Supt. Wilson Resigns.

The Fargo Call says that Supt. C. J. Wilson of the Dakota division of the Northern Pacific has resigned his position to accept a more lucrative one with some other road. Mr. Wilson succeeded A. J. McCabe in the summer of 1892, and for ten years has been a very popular official with the employes of the road as well as with the public generally. He is a very courteous gentleman, and we believe has done all he could to give the patrons of the road on his division the best possible service that lay in his power. His successor has not been named yet although Frank Ingalls and Chief Clerk Wilder are prominently mentioned for the place. Both are capable and either one would make a good superintendent.

A Love Letter.

Would not interest you if you're looking for a guaranteed Salve for Sores, Burns or Piles. Otto Dadd, of Ponder Mo., writes: "I suffered with an ugly sore for a year, but a box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured me. It's the best Salve on earth. 25c at H. H. Bateman's Drug Store."

S. J. Tande, of Pilot Mound township was in the city Tuesday and had to remain in the city over night on account of the storm. He reports good yields in crops in his neighborhood.

Ye editor accompanied Geo. VonBlon to the bustling little town of Jessie Tuesday using Mr. VonBlon's automobile as a means of travel and it didn't take long to make the trip, either. We found that the business men were all doing a good business. Messrs. Hjort, Thingelstad & Co., have a line store and need several clerks to take care of their business. Capt. Laffin has a nice store, is doing well and seems to be feeling happy all the time. Mr. Houggen of Aneta, now has the hardware store, is building, a big addition and is putting in a big stock of furniture as well as hardware. Charley Hart seems to be popular and is selling piles of lumber for the Gull River Co., and is "always looking for you." Ray Phipps seems to be holding his own at the Monarch Elevator while George Elliot and Oscar Rogne are looking after the Olson and Great Western elevators. Jessie does lots of business and the only kick we have coming is that the surveyor must have had blind staggers when he platted the town.

Land and Livestock for Sale.

As I desire to clean out the remainder of my property here, I offer 1 sec of land and 1800 head of sheep besides lumber, barb and woven wire fencing, water troughs, pumps, tanks, horses, harness, cows and a complete set of farming tools at prices that will make you money. If you need anything in that line come and see me. B. K. CLIMIE, Cooperstown.

Lost.

Two mare colts one gray and one red roan. Both three years old. Both branded on the right shoulder with two half circles. A suitable reward will be paid to anyone writing me where they are. THOMAS KELLY, Clifford, N. Dak.

Timber Culture Final Proof.—Notice For Publication.—United States Land Office, Fargo, North Dakota, Oct. 3 1903. Notice is hereby given that OLE HELMER has filed notice of intention to make final proof before Oscar N. Furlinton, Clerk of District Court, at his office in Cooperstown, N. Dak., on Saturday the 21st day of November 1903, on timber culture application No. 13466, for the sec of nat and lot 1 of section No. 6, in Township No. 144 N. Range No. 56 W. He names as witnesses: Knut O. Kalvik, Jacob Kittelson, Ole J. Stromme and Sven Olgard of Hannaford P. O. Griggs Co., N. Dakota. C. O. SCHUTLER, R. B. LUTHE, Agents. 1-3 Register.

His Idea Exactly. Uncle—How do you like your Sunday school teacher? Tommy—Oh, she's got good sense. She's smarter than mom is. Uncle—Indeed? So you believe in her, eh? Tommy—Sure! Her an' me thinks alike. She says Sunday school don't do me no good.—Philadelphia Press.

Lucky Inspiration. Young Bride (looking over the new house)—Why, Herbert, do you call this little pigeonhole a shoe closet? Young Husband—My love, that will hold a hundred pair of shoes of the size you wear. Young Bride—Well, perhaps you are right. It's neat and cozy anyway.—Chicago Tribune.

Refused. "Yes, he proposed to Miss Coke while they were standing at the edge of one of her father's deepest coal mines." "And what did she do?" "She threw him down."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

While we never trouble trouble till trouble troubles us, still we are not kept waiting long between times, are we?—Atlanta Journal.
