Mrs. W. H. Phipps left Tuesday afternoon for Bismarck to visit friends and from there will go to Bowbells to visit the Drinkwaters. Mr. Phipps will join her as soon as he cleans up business here. They will return to Cooperstown about the middle of November.

I was a student at Aaker's Business College, Fargo, N. D. for nine months, devoting most of my time to the Short-hand course, from which I hold a diploma and completing a three months course in bookkeeping. I have attended other schools, but prefer the A. B. College. Through Prof. Aaker I secured a position as stenographer and bookkeeper in P. E. Sundberg's elegant jewelry store, this city. Twice before I was offered positions through Prof. Aaker, so it seems that the school has more positions than it can fill.

Respectfully,
NERTIE JOHNSON.
