Gull River Lumber Co.

Cooperstown, North Dakota.

I wish to show my appreciation of the fact that for the last six months of last year my customers gave me their grain for less than the line Co's were offering and for the further fact that my business this year far exceeds that of last. So have arranged with the Crane-Johnson Co., for a liberal supply of hard coal and will supply it to my regular customers at a low price. Order at once and be prepared to unload from the car. This offer is good only to regular customers.
