			- determined of the second
	Go to FIRST NATIONAL BANK for
A Local. A	your Farm Loans.	ment Store ad.	church everybody invited.	9
	The wind blew down I. D. Allen's
M. E. Church Services.	jewelry sign Monday.	City Bakery. Five cents a loaf.	FIRST NATIONAL BANK.	When you are Hardillard Come and see
	5 room house for sale or rent. En-
Sunday: Class meeting 10:00 a.m. Preaching 10:30 a.m.	quire of S. Almklov.	homish, Wash., where he expects to locate.	inducy dress ginghams at the One	🕱 in need of IIUIUYYUIC Us. 🔮
Epworth League 6:30 p. m	Best K.K.K. Fat Norway herring at Jimeson & Olson, The New Store.	A. Rhodes has placed a large Good-	Price Department Store.
Preaching 7:30 p.m.	Good girl wanted for general house	hue windmill over his machinery	Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Upton have re-
Thursday: Prayer meeting 7:30 p.m.	work. Apply to Mrs. W. J. Payne,	manahamaa	turned from St. Paul, where Mrs. Up-	I
J. S. DELONG, Pastor.	Cooperstown.	One-third off on all ladies fancy	ment.	We now carry a NEW and
Room for rent, MRS. TIPTON.	Macaroni seed wheat for sale. Ap-	dressing sequels at The One Price De-	Dave Sansburn and Sherman Paint-	I
Try Mac's macaroni bread at the	ply to P. P. IDSVOOG,	partment Store.	as want to Farme Tweed to attend	Complete stock of
City Bakery. Five cents a loaf.	Cooperstown, M. D.	GIRL WANTED-to work in kit- chen at Palace Hotel. Wages $16.00	the rooster show and the state grain
STATE BANK of Cooperstown, has	Joe Ebentire and George Goodman	per month. Apply at once.	convention.	General Hardware, Heaters and money at all times for Farm	went to Fargo Tuesday to attend the fifth annual convention of the grain		Mr. and Mrs. Runyon, of Valley
Loans.	and stock growers association.	has accepted a position with C. B.	City,, spent a few days with Mr. and	Ranges. Silverware, Trunks
Ladies' cloaks and ladies' and gents'	I The fram you in on time monual.	Jungck and will be found in Jungck's	Mrs. S. A. Lewis, returning home Tuesday afternoon.	Values and Setting fur coats sold at a big discount for cash or on time at The One Price Depart-	notwichstanding the storm, and got	tonsorial parlor.
ment Store.	around on time on the return trip,		Geo. Fridd was in town Tuesday at- tending to his customers. In case of	Machines.
Mrs. J. Stevens is having an addition	which is not so slow for a day like	and one at Hannaford tomorrow night, so that both ends of the county will	a deadlock he says he would accept the	We also carry a full line of Horse Blankets, built to her millinery store on Burrell		be well represented in that line.	nomination for governor.
avenue and is getting things in shape		O. B. Westly yesterday received a	Have you taken a look at our five	Foot Warmers, etc.
for the spring trade.	leaves for that place this week. Alvey	car load of wood from his farm in	and ten cent counters It will sur-	All who have to ded with my to she is a very accommodating gentleman			All who have traded with us know that town, N. D., can be found in his office from now on until further notice.	and his friends here wish him success.	of land that is bringing him in good returns.	for 5 and 10 cents at Jimeson & Olson, The New Store.	Our prices are right.
Office in Syverson's new building, upstairs.	our special artist. The half-tones ap-	ling Brands of groceries. They are the	Mrs. P. H. West and son, Harry, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs.	Lunded Day O Tarrett
The Binford base ball club has al-	pear to be somewhat too fine for news-	pure food products and comply with	C.O. Johnson left for their home at	SAAMACTAA RIAC Y HACATA 3 paper print, nevertheless you can get a		New Rockford Tuesday. Mrs. West	SAULYNUU DIHN A HUNYULS of 1904 and the Times says all they need is a battery. Borrow the Odd		The New Store.	is the mother of Mrs. Johnson. of 1904 and the Times says all they need is a battery. Borrow the Odd Fellows' goat, old man.	F. B. King has gone to Chicago to	B. K. Climie returned from St. Paul	J. D. McComber's family boarded	HANNAFORD N D need is a battery. Borrow the Odd Fellows' goat, old man.	F. B. King has gone to Chicago to	B. K. Climie returned from St. Paul Saturday. He had been down with	J. D. McComber's family boarded the train at this point Tuesday after-	HANNAFORD, N. D.
need is a battery. Borrow the Odd Fellows' goat, old man. The friends of S. B. Langford will be pleased to learn that he has recov-	F. B. King has gone to Chicago to see a big automobile parade which will be pulled off in the windy city in a few days. What he don't know	B. K. Climie returned from St. Paul Saturday. He had been down with two carloads of fat lambs and disposed of them at a good figure. He has now	J. D. McComber's family boarded the train at this point Tuesday after-
need is a battery. Borrow the Odd Fellows' goat, old man. The friends of S. B. Langford will be pleased to learn that he has recov- ered sufficiently from his attack of ill-	F. B. King has gone to Chicago to see a big automobile parade which will be pulled off in the windy city in a few days. What he don't know about the festive automobile when he	B. K. Climie returned from St. Paul Saturday. He had been down with two carloads of fat lambs and disposed of them at a good figure. He has now sold out all of his sheep.	J. D. McComber's family boarded the train at this point Tuesday after- noon. We did not learn where they were going but as they are shipping out their household goods it is pre-	HANNAFORD, N. D.
need is a battery. Borrow the Odd Fellows' goat, old man. The friends of S. B. Langford will be pleased to learn that he has recov- ered sufficiently from his attack of ill- ness to be up again. He was very sick	F. B. King has gone to Chicago to see a big automobile parade which will be pulled off in the windy city in a few days. What he don't know about the festive automobile when he gets back wont be worth mentioning.	B. K. Climie returned from St. Paul Saturday. He had been down with two carloads of fat lambs and disposed of them at a good figure. He has now sold out all of his sheep. The wind it blew a hurricane,	J. D. McComber's family boarded the train at this point Tuesday after- noon. We did not learn where they were going but as they are shipping out their household goods it is pre- sumed that they are leaving the coun-
need is a battery. Borrow the Odd Fellows' goat, old man. The friends of S. B. Langford will be pleased to learn that he has recov- ered sufficiently from his attack of ill- ness to be up again. He was very sick last week but was successfully treated by Dr. Bergstrom and is getting along	F. B. King has gone to Chicago to see a big automobile parade which will be pulled off in the windy city in a few days. What he don't know about the festive automobile when he gets back wont be worth mentioning. Cooperstown had a narrow escape	 B. K. Climie returned from St. Paul Saturday. He had been down with two carloads of fat lambs and disposed of them at a good figure. He has now sold out all of his sheep. The wind it blew a hurricane, By-and-by it blew some more. This was Monday morning and was 	J. D. McComber's family boarded the train at this point Tuesday after- noon. We did not learn where they were going but as they are shipping out their household goods it is pre- sumed that they are leaving the coun- ty for good,
need is a battery. Borrow the Odd Fellows' goat, old man. The friends of S. B. Langford will be pleased to learn that he has recov- ered sufficiently from his attack of ill- ness to be up again. He was very sick last week but was successfully treated by Dr. Bergstrom and is getting along nicely.	F. B. King has gone to Chicago to see a big automobile parade which will be pulled off in the windy city in a few days. What he don't know about the festive automobile when he gets back wont be worth mentioning. Cooperstown had a narrow escape from a theatre fire, but the Courier says the asbestos curtain worked all	B. K. Climie returned from St. Paul Saturday. He had been down with two carloads of fat lambs and disposed of them at a good figure. He has now sold out all of his sheep. The wind it blew a hurricane, By-and-by it blew some more. This was Monday morning and was the first blizzard of the season for all	J. D. McComber's family boarded the train at this point Tuesday after- noon. We did not learn where they were going but as they are shipping out their household goods it is pre- sumed that they are leaving the coun- ty for good, Jake Arnold received a telegram
need is a battery. Borrow the Odd Fellows' goat, old man. The friends of S. B. Langford will be pleased to learn that he has recov- ered sufficiently from his attack of ill- ness to be up again. He was very sick last week but was successfully treated by Dr. Bergstrom and is getting along nicely. William Glass has been elected one	F. B. King has gone to Chicago to see a big automobile parade which will be pulled off in the windy city in a few days. What he don't know about the festive automobile when he gets back wont be worth mentioning. Cooperstown had a narrow escape from a theatre fire, but the Courier says the asbestos curtain worked all right and the audience was saved, like-	B. K. Climie returned from St. Paul Saturday. He had been down with two carloads of fat lambs and disposed of them at a good figure. He has now sold out all of his sheep. The wind it blew a hurricane, By-and-by it blew some more. This was Monday morning and was the first blizzard of the season for all of which we are duly thankful.	J. D. McComber's family boarded the train at this point Tuesday after- noon. We did not learn where they were going but as they are shipping out their household goods it is pre- sumed that they are leaving the coun- ty for good. Jake Arnold received a telegram last Monday from Council Bluffs, Ia., stating that his brother had shot him-
need is a battery. Borrow the Odd Fellows' goat, old man. The friends of S. B. Langford will be pleased to learn that he has recov- ered sufficiently from his attack of ill- ness to be up again. He was very sick last week but was successfully treated by Dr. Bergstrom and is getting along nicely. William Glass has been elected one of the directors of Fargo College which	F. B. King has gone to Chicago to see a big automobile parade which will be pulled off in the windy city in a few days. What he don't know about the festive automobile when he gets back wont be worth mentioning. Cooperstown had a narrow escape from a theatre fire, but the Courier says the asbestos curtain worked all right and the audience was saved, like- wise the building. Manager Mar-	 B. K. Climie returned from St. Paul Saturday. He had been down with two carloads of fat lambs and disposed of them at a good figure. He has now sold out all of his sheep. The wind it blew a hurricane, By-and-by it blew some more. This was Monday morning and was the first blizzard of the season for all of which we are duly thankful. I will give 10 per cent discount ou 	J. D. McComber's family boarded the train at this point Tuesday after- noon. We did not learn where they were going but as they are shipping out their household goods it is pre- sumed that they are leaving the coun- ty for good, Jake Arnold received a telegram last Monday from Council Bluffs, Ia., stating that his brother had shot him- self. The telegram did not state
need is a battery. Borrow the Odd Fellows' goat, old man. The friends of S. B. Langford will be pleased to learn that he has recov- ered sufficiently from his attack of ill- ness to be up again. He was very sick last week but was successfully treated by Dr. Bergstrom and is getting along nicely. William Glass has been elected one of the directors of Fargo College which is a sure thing that that institution	F. B. King has gone to Chicago to see a big automobile parade which will be pulled off in the windy city in a few days. What he don't know about the festive automobile when he gets back wont be worth mentioning. Cooperstown had a narrow escape from a theatre fire, but the Courier says the asbestos curtain worked all right and the audience was saved, like- wise the building. Manager Mar- quardt should be duly credited by	 B. K. Climie returned from St. Paul Saturday. He had been down with two carloads of fat lambs and disposed of them at a good figure. He has now sold out all of his sheep. The wind it blew a hurricane, By-and-by it blew some more. This was Monday morning and was the first blizzard of the season for all of which we are duly thankful. I will give 10 per cent discount ou all repairs of harnesses during the 	J. D. McComber's family boarded the train at this point Tuesday after- noon. We did not learn where they were going but as they are shipping out their household goods it is pre- sumed that they are leaving the coun- ty for good, Jake Arnold received a telegram last Monday from Council Bluffs, Ia., stating that his brother had shot him- self. The telegram did not state whether the man was killed or whether	CLOSING OUT SALE
need is a battery. Borrow the Odd Fellows' goat, old man. The friends of S. B. Langford will be pleased to learn that he has recov- ered sufficiently from his attack of ill- ness to be up again. He was very sick last week but was successfully treated by Dr. Bergstrom and is getting along nicely. William Glass has been elected one of the directors of Fargo College which is a sure thing that that institution has one good business man on the board—and we are not questioning	F. B. King has gone to Chicago to see a big automobile parade which will be pulled off in the windy city in a few days. What he don't know about the festive automobile when he gets back wont be worth mentioning. Cooperstown had a narrow escape from a theatre fire, but the Courier says the asbestos curtain worked all right and the audience was saved, like- wise the building. Manager Mar- quardt should be duly credited by Cooperstown theatre goers Aneta Panorama.	B. K. Climie returned from St. Paul Saturday. He had been down with two carloads of fat lambs and disposed of them at a good figure. He has now sold out all of his sheep. The wind it blew a hurricane, By-and-by it blew some more. This was Monday morning and was the first blizzard of the season for all of which we are duly thankful. I will give 10 per cent discount ou all repairs of harnesses during the months of January and February. Bring in your work.	J. D. McComber's family boarded the train at this point Tuesday after- noon. We did not learn where they were going but as they are shipping out their household goods it is pre- sumed that they are leaving the coun- ty for good, Jake Arnold received a telegram last Monday from Council Bluffs, Ia., stating that his brother had shot him- self. The telegram did not state whether the man was killed or whether the shooting was accidental, in fact no particulars could be learned.	CLOSING OUT SALE of all kinds
need is a battery. Borrow the Odd Fellows' goat, old man. The friends of S. B. Langford will be pleased to learn that he has recov- ered sufficiently from his attack of ill- ness to be up again. He was very sick last week but was successfully treated by Dr. Bergstrom and is getting along nicely. William Glass has been elected one of the directors of Fargo College which is a sure thing that that institution has one good business man on the board—and we are not questioning the ability of any of the other 'mem-	F. B. King has gone to Chicago to see a big automobile parade which will be pulled off in the windy city in a few days. What he don't know about the festive automobile when he gets back wont be worth mentioning. Cooperstown had a narrow escape from a theatre fire, but the Courier says the asbestos curtain worked all right and the audience wassaved, like- wise the building. Manager Mar- quardt should be duly credited by Cooperstown theatre goers Aneta Panorama. At the annual meeting of the First	B. K. Climie returned from St. Paul Saturday. He had been down with two carloads of fat lambs and disposed of them at a good figure. He has now sold out all of his sheep. The wind it blew a hurricane, By-and-by it blew some more. This was Monday morning and was the first blizzard of the season for all of which we are duly thankful. I will give 10 per cent discount ou all repairs of harnesses during the months of January and February. Bring in your work. WM. STRINGER.	J. D. McComber's family boarded the train at this point Tuesday after- noon. We did not learn where they were going but as they are shipping out their household goods it is pre- sumed that they are leaving the coun- ty for good. Jake Arnold received a telegram last Monday from Council Bluffs, Ia., stating that his brother had shot him- self. The telegram did not state whether the man was killed or whether the shooting was accidental, in fact no particulars could be learned. Jake left on the afternoon train for	CLOSING OUT SALE of all kinds
need is a battery. Borrow the Odd Fellows' goat, old man. The friends of S. B. Langford will be pleased to learn that he has recov- ered sufficiently from his attack of ill- ness to be up again. He was very sick last week but was successfully treated by Dr. Bergstrom and is getting along nicely. William Glass has been elected one of the directors of Fargo College which is a sure thing that that institution has one good business man on the board—and we are not questioning the ability of any of the other 'mem- bers, either.	F. B. King has gone to Chicago to see a big automobile parade which will be pulled off in the windy city in a few days. What he don't know about the festive automobile when he gets back wont be worth mentioning. Cooperstown had a narrow escape from a theatre fire, but the Courier says the asbestos curtain worked all right and the audience was saved, like- wise the building. Manager Mar- quardt should be duly credited by Cooperstown theatre goers Aneta Panorama. At the annual meeting of the First National Bank held last week the fol-	B. K. Climie returned from St. Paul Saturday. He had been down with two carloads of fat lambs and disposed of them at a good figure. He has now sold out all of his sheep. The wind it blew a hurricane, By-and-by it blew some more. This was Monday morning and was the first blizzard of the season for all of which we are duly thankful. I will give 10 per cent discount ou all repairs of harnesses during the months of January and February. Bring in your work. WM. STRINGER. Ingvald Greenland has been very	J. D. McComber's family boarded the train at this point Tuesday after- noon. We did not learn where they were going but as they are shipping out their household goods it is pre- sumed that they are leaving the coun- ty for good. Jake Arnold received a telegram last Monday from Council Bluffs, Ia., stating that his brother had shot him- self. The telegram did not state whether the man was killed or whether the shooting was accidental, in fact no particulars could be learned. Jake left on the afternoon train for Council Bluffs.	CLOSING OUT SALE
need is a battery. Borrow the Odd Fellows' goat, old man. The friends of S. B. Langford will be pleased to learn that he has recov- ered sufficiently from his attack of ill- ness to be up again. He was very sick last week but was successfully treated by Dr. Bergstrom and is getting along nicely. William Glass has been elected one of the directors of Fargo College which is a sure thing that that institution has one good business man on the board—and we are not questioning the ability of any of the other 'mem- bers, either. Don't forget that the Workman	F. B. King has gone to Chicago to see a big automobile parade which will be pulled off in the windy city in a few days. What he don't know about the festive automobile when he gets back wont be worth mentioning. Cooperstown had a narrow escape from a theatre fire, but the Courier says the asbestos curtain worked all right and the audience was saved, like- wise the building. Manager Mar- quardt should be duly credited by Cooperstown theatre goers Aneta Panorama. At the annual meeting of the First National Bank held last week the fol- lowing directors were elected: R. C.	B. K. Climie returned from St. Paul Saturday. He had been down with two carloads of fat lambs and disposed of them at a good figure. He has now sold out all of his sheep. The wind it blew a hurricane, By-and-by it blew some more. This was Monday morning and was the first blizzard of the season for all of which we are duly thankful. I will give 10 per cent discount ou all repairs of harnesses during the months of January and February. Bring in your work. MM. STRINGER. Ingvald Greenland has been very sick since the 17th with pneumonia	J. D. McComber's family boarded the train at this point Tuesday after- noon. We did not learn where they were going but as they are shipping out their household goods it is pre- sumed that they are leaving the coun- ty for good. Jake Arnold received a telegram last Monday from Council Bluffs, Ia., stating that his brother had shot him- self. The telegram did not state whether the man was killed or whether the shooting was accidental, in fact no particulars could be learned. Jake left on the afternoon train for Council Bluffs.	CLOSING OUT SALE of all kinds
need is a battery. Borrow the Odd Fellows' goat, old man. The friends of S. B. Langford will be pleased to learn that he has recov- ered sufficiently from his attack of ill- ness to be up again. He was very sick last week but was successfully treated by Dr. Bergstrom and is getting along nicely. William Glass has been elected one of the directors of Fargo College which is a sure thing that that institution has one good business man on the board—and we are not questioning the ability of any of the other 'mem- bers, either. Don't forget that the Workman lodge at Hannaford gives a masque- rade ball at Hannaford tomorrow	F. B. King has gone to Chicago to see a big automobile parade which will be pulled off in the windy city in a few days. What he don't know about the festive automobile when he gets back wont be worth mentioning. Cooperstown had a narrow escape from a theatre fire, but the Courier says the asbestos curtain worked all right and the audience was saved, like- wise the building. Manager Mar- quardt should be duly credited by Cooperstown theatre goers Aneta Panorama. At the annual meeting of the First National Bank held last week the fol- lowing directors were elected: R. C. Cooper, H. P. Hammer, G. H. Condy, Robert Jones, Peter E. Nelson, S.	B. K. Climie returned from St. Paul Saturday. He had been down with two carloads of fat lambs and disposed of them at a good figure. He has now sold out all of his sheep. The wind it blew a hurricane, By-and-by it blew some more. This was Monday morning and was the first blizzard of the season for all of which we are duly thankful. I will give 10 per cent discount ou all repairs of harnesses during the months of January and February. Bring in your work. MM. STRINGER. Ingvald Greenland has been very sick since the 17th with pneumonia and is under Dr. Bergstrom's care. The disease is having its usual run	J. D. McComber's family boarded the train at this point Tuesday after- noon. We did not learn where they were going but as they are shipping out their household goods it is pre- sumed that they are leaving the coun- ty for good. Jake Arnold received a telegram last Monday from Council Bluffs, Ia., stating that his brother had shot him- self. The telegram did not state whether the man was killed or whether the shooting was accidental, in fact no particulars could be learned. Jake left on the afternoon train for Council Bluffs. Night Was Her Terror.	CLOSING OUT SALE of all kinds Of Warm Goods
need is a battery. Borrow the Odd Fellows' goat, old man. The friends of S. B. Langford will be pleased to learn that he has recov- ered sufficiently from his attack of ill- ness to be up again. He was very sick last week but was successfully treated by Dr. Bergstrom and is getting along nicely. William Glass has been elected one of the directors of Fargo College which is a sure thing that that institution has one good business man on the board—and we are not questioning the ability of any of the other 'mem- bers, either. Don't forget that the Workman lodge at Hannaford gives a masque- rade ball at Hannaford tomorrow night. The lodge intends to make	F. B. King has gone to Chicago to see a big automobile parade which will be pulled off in the windy city in a few days. What he don't know about the festive automobile when he gets back wont be worth mentioning. Cooperstown had a narrow escape from a theatre fire, but the Courier says the asbestos curtain worked all right and the audience was saved, like- wise the building. Manager Mar- quardt should be duly credited by Cooperstown theatre goers Aneta Panorama. At the annual meeting of the First National Bank held last week the fol- lowing directors were elected: R. C. Cooper, H. P. Hammer, G. H. Condy, Robert Jones, Peter E. Nelson, S. Almklov and Ed Michaelis. The bank	B. K. Climie returned from St. Paul Saturday. He had been down with two carloads of fat lambs and disposed of them at a good figure. He has now sold out all of his sheep. The wind it blew a hurricane, By-and-by it blew some more. This was Monday morning and was the first blizzard of the season for all of which we are duly thankful. I will give 10 per cent discount ou all repairs of harnesses during the months of January and February. Bring in your work. MM. STRINGER. Ingvald Greenland has been very sick since the 17th with pneumonia and is under Dr. Bergstrom's care. The disease is having its usual run and the doctor hopes to pull him	J. D. McComber's family boarded the train at this point Tuesday after- noon. We did not learn where they were going but as they are shipping out their household goods it is pre- sumed that they are leaving the coun- ty for good. Jake Arnold received a telegram last Monday from Council Bluffs, Ia., stating that his brother had shot him- self. The telegram did not state whether the man was killed or whether the shooting was accidental, in fact no particulars could be learned. Jake left on the afternoon train for Council Bluffs. Night Was Her Terror. "I would cough nearly all night long"	CLOSING OUT SALE of all kinds Of Warm Goods At greatly reduced prices, for one week
need is a battery. Borrow the Odd Fellows' goat, old man. The friends of S. B. Langford will be pleased to learn that he has recov- ered sufficiently from his attack of ill- ness to be up again. He was very sick last week but was successfully treated by Dr. Bergstrom and is getting along nicely. William Glass has been elected one of the directors of Fargo College which is a sure thing that that institution has one good business man on the board—and we are not questioning the ability of any of the other 'mem- bers, either. Don't forget that the Workman lodge at Hannaford gives a masque- rade ball at Hannaford tomorrow night. The lodge intends to make this a pleasing event and if you attend	F. B. King has gone to Chicago to see a big automobile parade which will be pulled off in the windy city in a few days. What he don't know about the festive automobile when he gets back wont be worth mentioning. Cooperstown had a narrow escape from a theatre fire, but the Courier says the asbestos curtain worked all right and the audience was saved, like- wise the building. Manager Mar- quardt should be duly credited by Cooperstown theatre goers Aneta Panorama. At the annual meeting of the First National Bank held last week the fol- lowing directors were elected: R. C. Cooper, H. P. Hammer, G. H. Condy, Robert Jones, Peter E. Nelson, S. Almklov and Ed Michaelis. The bank is very well satisfied with its business	B. K. Climie returned from St. Paul Saturday. He had been down with two carloads of fat lambs and disposed of them at a good figure. He has now sold out all of his sheep. The wind it blew a hurricane, By-and-by it blew some more. This was Monday morning and was the first blizzard of the season for all of which we are duly thankful. I will give 10 per cent discount ou all repairs of harnesses during the months of January and February. Bring in your work. MM. STRINGER. Ingvald Greenland has been very sick since the 17th with pneumonia and is under Dr. Bergstrom's care. The disease is having its usual run and the doctor hopes to pull him through all right.	J. D. McComber's family boarded the train at this point Tuesday after- noon. We did not learn where they were going but as they are shipping out their household goods it is pre- sumed that they are leaving the coun- ty for good. Jake Arnold received a telegram last Monday from Council Bluffs, Ia., stating that his brother had shot him- self. The telegram did not state whether the man was killed or whether the shooting was accidental, in fact no particulars could be learned. Jake left on the afternoon train for Council Bluffs. Night Was Her Terror. "I would cough nearly all night long" writes Mrs. Chas, Applegate of Alex- andria, Ind., "and could hardly get any	CLOSING OUT SALE of all kinds
need is a battery. Borrow the Odd Fellows' goat, old man. The friends of S. B. Langford will be pleased to learn that he has recov- ered sufficiently from his attack of ill- ness to be up again. He was very sick last week but was successfully treated by Dr. Bergstrom and is getting along nicely. William Glass has been elected one of the directors of Fargo College which is a sure thing that that institution has one good business man on the board—and we are not questioning the ability of any of the other 'mem- bers, either. Don't forget that the Workman lodge at Hannaford gives a masque- rade ball at Hannaford tomorrow night. The lodge intends to make this a pleasing event and if you attend and don't have a good time it will be your own fault.	F. B. King has gone to Chicago to see a big automobile parade which will be pulled off in the windy city in a few days. What he don't know about the festive automobile when he gets back wont be worth mentioning. Cooperstown had a narrow escape from a theatre fire, but the Courier says the asbestos curtain worked all right and the audience was saved, like- wise the building. Manager Mar- quardt should be duly credited by Cooperstown theatre goers Aneta Panorama. At the annual meeting of the First National Bank held last week the fol- lowing directors were elected: R. C. Cooper, H. P. Hammer, G. H. Condy, Robert Jones, Peter E. Nelson, S. Almklov and Ed Michaelis. The bank is very well satisfied with its business during the past year. The officers have not yet been elected but it is not	 B. K. Climie returned from St. Paul Saturday. He had been down with two carloads of fat lambs and disposed of them at a good figure. He has now sold out all of his sheep. The wind it blew a hurricane, By-and-by it blew some more. This was Monday morning and was the first blizzard of the season for all of which we are duly thankful. I will give 10 per cent discount ou all repairs of harnesses during the months of January and February. Bring in your work. MM. STRINGER. Ingvald Greenland has been very sick since the 17th with pneumonia and is under Dr. Bergstrom's care. The disease is having its usual run and the doctor hopes to pull him through all right. B. B. Phipps came down from Lewis 	J. D. McComber's family boarded the train at this point Tuesday after- noon. We did not learn where they were going but as they are shipping out their household goods it is pre- sumed that they are leaving the coun- ty for good. Jake Arnold received a telegram last Monday from Council Bluffs, Ia., stating that his brother had shot him- self. The telegram did not state whether the man was killed or whether the shooting was accidental, in fact no particulars could be learned. Jake left on the afternoon train for Council Bluffs. Night Was Her Terror. "I would cough nearly all night long" writes Mrs. Chas, Applegate of Alex- andria, Ind., "and could hardly get any sleep. I had consumption so bad that	CLOSING OUT SALE of all kinds Of Warm Goods At greatly reduced prices, for one week only. Be sure to call and inspect goods.
need is a battery. Borrow the Odd Fellows' goat, old man. The friends of S. B. Langford will be pleased to learn that he has recov- ered sufficiently from his attack of ill- ness to be up again. He was very sick last week but was successfully treated by Dr. Bergstrom and is getting along nicely. William Glass has been elected one of the directors of Fargo College which is a sure thing that that institution has one good business man on the board—and we are not questioning the ability of any of the other 'mem- bers, either. Don't forget that the Workman lodge at Hannaford gives a masque- rade ball at Hannaford tomorrow night. The lodge intends to make this a pleasing event and if you attend and don't have a good time it will be your own fault. Cashier Whitcomb, of the State	F. B. King has gone to Chicago to see a big automobile parade which will be pulled off in the windy city in a few days. What he don't know about the festive automobile when he gets back wont be worth mentioning. Cooperstown had a narrow escape from a theatre fire, but the Courier says the asbestos curtain worked all right and the audience was saved, like- wise the building. Manager Mar- quardt should be duly credited by Cooperstown theatre goers Aneta Panorama. At the annual meeting of the First National Bank held last week the fol- lowing directors were elected: R. C. Cooper, H. P. Hammer, G. H. Condy, Robert Jones, Peter E. Nelson, S. Almklov and Ed Michaelis. The bank is very well satisfied with its business during the past year. The officers have not yet been elected but it is not likely that there will be any change.	B. K. Climie returned from St. Paul Saturday. He had been down with two carloads of fat lambs and disposed of them at a good figure. He has now sold out all of his sheep. The wind it blew a hurricane, By-and-by it blew some more. This was Monday morning and was the first blizzard of the season for all of which we are duly thankful. I will give 10 per cent discount ou all repairs of harnesses during the months of January and February. Bring in your work. Ingvald Greenland has been very sick since the 17th with pneumonia and is under Dr. Bergstrom's care. The disease is having its usual run and the doctor hopes to pull him through all right. B. B. Phipps came down from Lewis Monday to move his family home. They went up on Tuesday's train and	J. D. McComber's family boarded the train at this point Tuesday after- noon. We did not learn where they were going but as they are shipping out their household goods it is pre- sumed that they are leaving the coun- ty for good. Jake Arnold received a telegram last Monday from Council Bluffs, Ia., stating that his brother had shot him- self. The telegram did not state whether the man was killed or whether the shooting was accidental, in fact no particulars could be learned. Jake left on the afternoon train for Council Bluffs. Night Was Her Terror. "I would cough nearly all night long" writes Mrs. Chas, Applegate of Alex- andria, Ind., "and could hardly get any sleep. I had consumption so bad that if I walked a- block I would cough frightfully and spit blood, but, when	CLOSING OUT SALE of all kinds Of Warm Goods At greatly reduced prices, for one week only. Be sure to call and inspect goods, quality and prices, it will really surprise
need is a battery. Borrow the Odd Fellows' goat, old man. The friends of S. B. Langford will be pleased to learn that he has recov- ered sufficiently from his attack of ill- ness to be up again. He was very sick last week but was successfully treated by Dr. Bergstrom and is getting along nicely. William Glass has been elected one of the directors of Fargo College which is a sure thing that that institution has one good business man on the board—and we are not questioning the ability of any of the other mem- bers, either. Don't forget that the Workman lodge at Hannaford gives a masque- rade ball at Hannaford tomorrow night. The lodge intends to make this a pleasing event and if you attend and don't have a good time it will be your own fault. Cashier Whitcomb, of the State Bank of Binford, was in the city last	F. B. King has gone to Chicago to see a big automobile parade which will be pulled off in the windy city in a few days. What he don't know about the festive automobile when he gets back wont be worth mentioning. Cooperstown had a narrow escape from a theatre fire, but the Courier says the asbestos curtain worked all right and the audience was saved, like- wise the building. Manager Mar- quardt should be duly credited by Cooperstown theatre goers Aneta Panorama. At the annual meeting of the First National Bank held last week the fol- lowing directors were elected: R. C. Cooper, H. P. Hammer, G. H. Condy, Robert Jones, Peter E. Nelson, S. Almklov and Ed Michaelis. The bank is very well satisfied with its business during the past year. The officers have not yet been elected but it is not likely that there will be any change. Geo. B. Clark and Hon. Nic Swen-	B. K. Climie returned from St. Paul Saturday. He had been down with two carloads of fat lambs and disposed of them at a good figure. He has now sold out all of his sheep. The wind it blew a hurricane, By-and-by it blew some more. This was Monday morning and was the first blizzard of the season for all of which we are duly thankful. I will give 10 per cent discount ou all repairs of harnesses during the months of January and February. Bring in your work. Ingvald Greenland has been very sick since the 17th with pneumonia and is under Dr. Bergstrom's care. The disease is having its usual run and the doctor hopes to pull him through all right. B. B. Phipps came down from Lewis Monday to move his family home. They went up on Tuesday's train and Bert will have no chance to complain	J. D. McComber's family boarded the train at this point Tuesday after- noon. We did not learn where they were going but as they are shipping out their household goods it is pre- sumed that they are leaving the coun- ty for good. Jake Arnold received a telegram last Monday from Council Bluffs, Ia., stating that his brother had shot him- self. The telegram did not state whether the man was killed or whether the shooting was accidental, in fact no particulars could be learned. Jake left on the afternoon train for Council Bluffs. Night Was Her Terror. "I would cough nearly all night long" writes Mrs. Chas Applegate of Alex- andria, Ind., "and could hardly get any sleep. I had consumption so bad that if I walked a. block I would cough frightfully and spit blood, but, when all other medicines failed three $1.00	The sure to call and inspect goods, quality and prices, it will really surprise you. Don't forget street number,
need is a battery. Borrow the Odd Fellows' goat, old man. The friends of S. B. Langford will be pleased to learn that he has recov- ered sufficiently from his attack of ill- ness to be up again. He was very sick last week but was successfully treated by Dr. Bergstrom and is getting along nicely. William Glass has been elected one of the directors of Fargo College which is a sure thing that that institution has one good business man on the board—and we are not questioning the ability of any of the other 'mem- bers, either. Don't forget that the Workman lodge at Hannaford gives a masque- rade ball at Hannaford tomorrow night. The lodge intends to make this a pleasing event and if you attend and don't have a good time it will be your own fault. Cashier Whitcomb, of the State Bank of Binford, was in the city last Thursday. He is a very pleasant gen-	F. B. King has gone to Chicago to see a big automobile parade which will be pulled off in the windy city in a few days. What he don't know about the festive automobile when he gets back wont be worth mentioning. Cooperstown had a narrow escape from a theatre fire, but the Courier says the asbestos curtain worked all right and the audience was saved, like- wise the building. Manager Mar- quardt should be duly credited by Cooperstown theatre goers Aneta Panorama. At the annual meeting of the First National Bank held last week the fol- lowing directors were elected: R. C. Cooper, H. P. Hammer, G. H. Condy, Robert Jones, Peter E. Nelson, S. Almklov and Ed Michaelis. The bank is very well satisfied with its business during the past year. The officers have not yet been elected but it is not likely that there will be any change. Geo. B. Clark and Hon. Nic Swen- son went down to Fargo last week to	B. K. Climie returned from St. Paul Saturday. He had been down with two carloads of fat lambs and disposed of them at a good figure. He has now sold out all of his sheep. The wind it blew a hurricane, By-and-by it blew some more. This was Monday morning and was the first blizzard of the season for all of which we are duly thankful. I will give 10 per cent discount ou all repairs of harnesses during the months of January and February. Bring in your work. Ingvald Greenland has been very sick since the 17th with pneumonia and is under Dr. Bergstrom's care. The disease is having its usual run and the doctor hopes to pull him through all right. B. B. Phipps came down from Lewis Monday to move his family home. They went up on Tuesday's train and Bert will have no chance to complain of not having anything to do so long	J. D. McComber's family boarded the train at this point Tuesday after- noon. We did not learn where they were going but as they are shipping out their household goods it is pre- sumed that they are leaving the coun- ty for good. Jake Arnold received a telegram last Monday from Council Bluffs, Ia., stating that his brother had shot him- self. The telegram did not state whether the man was killed or whether the shooting was accidental, in fact no particulars could be learned. Jake left on the afternoon train for Council Bluffs. Night Was Her Terror. "I would cough nearly all night long" writes Mrs. Chas Applegate of Alex- andria, Ind., "and could hardly get any sleep. I had consumption so bad that if I walked a. block I would cough frightfully and spit blood, but, when all other medicines failed, three $1.00 bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery	The sure to call and inspect goods, quality and prices, it will really surprise you. Don't forget street number,
need is a battery. Borrow the Odd Fellows' goat, old man. The friends of S. B. Langford will be pleased to learn that he has recov- ered sufficiently from his attack of ill- ness to be up again. He was very sick last week but was successfully treated by Dr. Bergstrom and is getting along nicely. William Glass has been elected one of the directors of Fargo College which is a sure thing that that institution has one good business man on the board—and we are not questioning the ability of any of the other 'mem- bers, either. Don't forget that the Workman lodge at Hannaford gives a masque- rade ball at Hannaford tomorrow night. The lodge intends to make this a pleasing event and if you attend and don't have a good time it will be your own fault. Cashier Whitcomb, of the State Bank of Binford, was in the city last Thursday. He is a very pleasant gen- tleman to meet. He reports business	F. B. King has gone to Chicago to see a big automobile parade which will be pulled off in the windy city in a few days. What he don't know about the festive automobile when he gets back wont be worth mentioning. Cooperstown had a narrow escape from a theatre fire, but the Courier says the asbestos curtain worked all right and the audience was saved, like- wise the building. Manager Mar- quardt should be duly credited by Cooperstown theatre goers Aneta Panorama. At the annual meeting of the First National Bank held last week the fol- lowing directors were elected: R. C. Cooper, H. P. Hammer, G. H. Condy, Robert Jones, Peter E. Nelson, S. Almklov and Ed Michaelis. The bank is very well satisfied with its business during the past year. The officers have not yet been elected but it is not likely that there will be any change. Geo. B. Clark and Hon. Nic Swen-	B. K. Climie returned from St. Paul Saturday. He had been down with two carloads of fat lambs and disposed of them at a good figure. He has now sold out all of his sheep. The wind it blew a hurricane, By-and-by it blew some more. This was Monday morning and was the first blizzard of the season for all of which we are duly thankful. I will give 10 per cent discount ou all repairs of harnesses during the months of January and February. Bring in your work. MM. STRINGER. Ingvald Greenland has been very sick since the 17th with pneumonia and is under Dr. Bergstrom's care. The disease is having its usual run and the doctor hopes to pull him through all right. B. B. Phipps came down from Lewis Monday to move his family home. They went up on Tuesday's train and Bert will have no chance to complain of not having anything to do so long as there is a baby around the house.	J. D. McComber's family boarded the train at this point Tuesday after- noon. We did not learn where they were going but as they are shipping out their household goods it is pre- sumed that they are leaving the coun- ty for good. Jake Arnold received a telegram last Monday from Council Bluffs, Ia., stating that his brother had shot him- self. The telegram did not state whether the man was killed or whether the shooting was accidental, in fact no particulars could be learned. Jake left on the afternoon train for Council Bluffs. Night Was Her Terror. "I would cough nearly all night long" writes Mrs. Chas Applegate of Alex- andria, Ind., "and could hardly get any sleep. I had consumption so bad that if I walked a. block I would cough frightfully and spit blood, but, when all other medicines failed, three $1.00 bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery wholly cured me and I gained 58	CLOSING OUT SALE of all kinds Of Warm Goods At greatly reduced prices, for one week only. Be sure to call and inspect goods, quality and prices, it will really surprise
need is a battery. Borrow the Odd Fellows' goat, old man. The friends of S. B. Langford will be pleased to learn that he has recov- ered sufficiently from his attack of ill- ness to be up again. He was very sick last week but was successfully treated by Dr. Bergstrom and is getting along nicely. William Glass has been elected one of the directors of Fargo College which is a sure thing that that institution has one good business man on the board—and we are not questioning the ability of any of the other 'mem- bers, either. Don't forget that the Workman lodge at Hannaford gives a masque- rade ball at Hannaford tomorrow night. The lodge intends to make this a pleasing event and if you attend and don't have a good time it will be your own fault. Cashier Whitcomb, of the State Bank of Binford, was in the city last Thursday. He is a very pleasant gen- tleman to meet. He reports business very encouraging in Binford and looks forward to a much larger business	F. B. King has gone to Chicago to see a big automobile parade which will be pulled off in the windy city in a few days. What he don't know about the festive automobile when he gets back wont be worth mentioning. Cooperstown had a narrow escape from a theatre fire, but the Courier says the asbestos curtain worked all right and the audience was saved, like- wise the building. Manager Mar- quardt shouid be duly credited by Cooperstown theatre goers Aneta Panorama. At the annual meeting of the First National Bank held last week the fol- lowing directors were elected: R. C. Cooper, H. P. Hammer, G. H. Condy, Robert Jones, Peter E. Nelson, S. Almklov and Ed Michaelis. The bank is very well satisfied with its business during the past year. The officers have not yet been elected but it is not likely that there will be any change. Geo. B. Clark and Hon. Nic Swen- son went down to Fargo last week to join the Shrine. It is said Mr. Swen- son's friends are urging him to become a candidate for county treasurer. If	B. K. Climie returned from St. Paul Saturday. He had been down with two carloads of fat lambs and disposed of them at a good figure. He has now sold out all of his sheep. The wind it blew a hurricane, By-and-by it blew some more. This was Monday morning and was the first blizzard of the season for all of which we are duly thankful. I will give 10 per cent discount ou all repairs of harnesses during the months of January and February. Bring in your work. WM. STRINGER. Ingvald Greenland has been very sick since the 17th with pneumonia and is under Dr. Bergstrom's care. The disease is having its usual run and the doctor hopes to pull him through all right. B. B. Phipps came down from Lewis Monday to move his family home. They went up on Tuesday's train and Bert will have no chance to complain of not having anything to do so long as there is a baby around the house. Dr. L. S. PLATOU, of Valley City,	J. D. McComber's family boarded the train at this point Tuesday after- noon. We did not learn where they were going but as they are shipping out their household goods it is pre- sumed that they are leaving the coun- ty for good. Jake Arnold received a telegram last Monday from Council Bluffs, Ia., stating that his brother had shot him- self. The telegram did not state whether the man was killed or whether the shooting was accidental, in fact no particulars could be learned. Jake left on the afternoon train for Council Bluffs. Night Was Her Terror. "I would cough nearly all night long" writes Mrs. Chas, Applegate of Alex- andria, Ind., "and could hardly get any sleep. I had consumption so bad that if I walked a block I would cough frightfully and spit blood, but, when all other medicines failed, three $1.00 bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery wholly cured me and I gained 58 pounds." It's absolutely guaranteed to cure coughs, colds, la grippe, bron-	CLOSING OUT SALE of all kinds of Warm Goods At greatly reduced prices, for one week only. Be sure to call and inspect goods, quality and prices, it will really surprise you. Don't forget street number,
need is a battery. Borrow the Odd Fellows' goat, old man. The friends of S. B. Langford will be pleased to learn that he has recov- ered sufficiently from his attack of ill- ness to be up again. He was very sick last week but was successfully treated by Dr. Bergstrom and is getting along nicely. William Glass has been elected one of the directors of Fargo College which is a sure thing that that institution has one good business man on the board—and we are not questioning the ability of any of the other 'mem- bers, either. Don't forget that the Workman lodge at Hannaford gives a masque- rade ball at Hannaford tomorrow night. The lodge intends to make this a pleasing event and if you attend and don't have a good time it will be your own fault. Cashier Whitcomb, of the State Bank of Binford, was in the city last Thursday. He is a very pleasant gen- tleman to meet. He reports business very encouraging in Binford and looks forward to a much larger business this year, of course.	F. B. King has gone to Chicago to see a big automobile parade which will be pulled off in the windy city in a few days. What he don't know about the festive automobile when he gets back wont be worth mentioning. Cooperstown had a narrow escape from a theatre fire, but the Courier says the asbestos curtain worked all right and the audience was saved, like- wise the building. Manager Mar- quardt shouid be duly credited by Cooperstown theatre goers Aneta Panorama. At the annual meeting of the First National Bank held last week the fol- lowing directors were elected: R. C. Cooper, H. P. Hammer, G. H. Condy, Robert Jones, Peter E. Nelson, S. Almklov and Ed Michaelis. The bank is very well satisfied with its business during the past year. The officers have not yet been elected but it is not likely that there will be any change. Geo. B. Clark and Hon. Nic Swen- son went down to Fargo last week to join the Shrine. It is said Mr. Swen- son's friends are urging him to become a candidate for county treasurer. If Nic should get on the ticket he ought	B. K. Climie returned from St. Paul Saturday. He had been down with two carloads of fat lambs and disposed of them at a good figure. He has now sold out all of his sheep. The wind it blew a hurricane, By-and-by it blew some more. This was Monday morning and was the first blizzard of the season for all of which we are duly thankful. I will give 10 per cent discount ou all repairs of harnesses during the months of January and February. Bring in your work. WM. STRINGER. Ingvald Greenland has been very sick since the 17th with pneumonia and is under Dr. Bergstrom's care. The disease is having its usual run and the doctor hopes to pull him through all right. B. B. Phipps came down from Lewis Monday to move his family home. They went up on Tuesday's train and Bert will have no chance to complain of not having anything to do so long as there is a baby around the house. Dr. L. S. PLATOU, of Valley City, graduate of Christiania University, Norway, will be in Cooperstown Jan.	J. D. McComber's family boarded the train at this point Tuesday after- noon. We did not learn where they were going but as they are shipping out their household goods it is pre- sumed that they are leaving the coun- ty for good. Jake Arnold received a telegram last Monday from Council Bluffs, Ia., stating that his brother had shot him- self. The telegram did not state whether the man was killed or whether the shooting was accidental, in fact no particulars could be learned. Jake left on the afternoon train for Council Bluffs. Night Was Her Terror. "I would cough nearly all night long" writes Mrs. Chas Applegate of Alex- andria, Ind., "and could hardly get any sleep. I had consumption so bad that if I walked a block I would cough frightfully and spit blood, but, when all other medicines failed, three $1.00 bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery wholly cured me and I gained 58 pounds." It's absolutely guaranteed to cure coughs, colds, la grippe, bron- chitis and all throat and lung troubles.	CLOSING OUT SALE of all kinds of Warm Goods At greatly reduced prices, for one week only. Be sure to call and inspect goods, quality and prices, it will really surprise you. Don't forget street number, name and place.
need is a battery. Borrow the Odd Fellows' goat, old man. The friends of S. B. Langford will be pleased to learn that he has recov- ered sufficiently from his attack of ill- ness to be up again. He was very sick last week but was successfully treated by Dr. Bergstrom and is getting along nicely. William Glass has been elected one of the directors of Fargo College which is a sure thing that that institution has one good business man on the board—and we are not questioning the ability of any of the other 'mem- bers, either. Don't forget that the Workman lodge at Hannaford gives a masque- rade ball at Hannaford tomorrow night. The lodge intends to make this a pleasing event and if you attend and don't have a good time it will be your own fault. Cashier Whitcomb, of the State Bank of Binford, was in the city last Thursday. He is a very pleasant gen- tleman to meet. He reports business very encouraging in Binford and looks forward to a much larger business this year, of course. Mrs. Elsie Starbird, of Wilmer, B.	F. B. King has gone to Chicago to see a big automobile parade which will be pulled off in the windy city in a few days. What he don't know about the festive automobile when he gets back wont be worth mentioning. Cooperstown had a narrow escape from a theatre fire, but the Courier says the asbestos curtain worked all right and the audience was saved, like- wise the building. Manager Mar- quardt should be duly credited by Cooperstown theatre goers Aneta Panorama. At the annual meeting of the First National Bank held last week the fol- lowing directors were elected: R. C. Cooper, H. P. Hammer, G. H. Condy, Robert Jones, Peter E. Nelson, S. Almklov and Ed Michaelis. The bank is very well satisfied with its business during the past year. The officers have not yet been elected but it is not likely that there will be any change. Geo. B. Clark and Hon. Nic Swen- son went down to Fargo last week to join the Shrine. It is said Mr. Swen- son's friends are urging him to become a candidate for county treasurer. If Nic should get on the ticket he ought to be in good shape to make a hot	B. K. Climie returned from St. Paul Saturday. He had been down with two carloads of fat lambs and disposed of them at a good figure. He has now sold out all of his sheep. The wind it blew a hurricane, By-and-by it blew some more. This was Monday morning and was the first blizzard of the season for all of which we are duly thankful. I will give 10 per cent discount ou all repairs of harnesses during the months of January and February. Bring in your work. WM. STRINGER. Ingvald Greenland has been very sick since the 17th with pneumonia and is under Dr. Bergstrom's care. The disease is having its usual run and the doctor hopes to pull him through all right. B. B. Phipps came down from Lewis Monday to move his family home. They went up on Tuesday's train and Bert will have no chance to complain of not having anything to do so long as there is a baby around the house. Dr. L. S. PLATOU, of Valley City, graduate of Christiania University, Norway, will be in Cooperstown Jan. 29th and 30th for the purpose of	J. D. McComber's family boarded the train at this point Tuesday after- noon. We did not learn where they were going but as they are shipping out their household goods it is pre- sumed that they are leaving the coun- ty for good. Jake Arnold received a telegram last Monday from Council Bluffs, Ia., stating that his brother had shot him- self. The telegram did not state whether the man was killed or whether the shooting was accidental, in fact no particulars could be learned. Jake left on the afternoon train for Council Bluffs. Night Was Her Terror. "I would cough nearly all night long" writes Mrs. Chas Applegate of Alex- andria, Ind., "and could hardly get any sleep. I had consumption so bad that if I walked a block I would cough frightfully and spit blood, but, when all other medicines failed, three $1.00 bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery wholly cured me and I gained 58 pounds." It's absolutely guaranteed to cure coughs, colds, la grippe, bron- chitis and all throat and lung troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free	CLOSING OUT SALE of all kinds of Warm Goods At greatly reduced prices, for one week only. Be sure to call and inspect goods, quality and prices, it will really surprise you. Don't forget street number, name and place.
need is a battery. Borrow the Odd Fellows' goat, old man. The friends of S. B. Langford will be pleased to learn that he has recov- ered sufficiently from his attack of ill- ness to be up again. He was very sick last week but was successfully treated by Dr. Bergstrom and is getting along nicely. William Glass has been elected one of the directors of Fargo College which is a sure thing that that institution has one good business man on the board—and we are not questioning the ability of any of the other 'mem- bers, either. Don't forget that the Workman lodge at Hannaford gives a masque- rade ball at Hannaford tomorrow night. The lodge intends to make this a pleasing event and if you attend and don't have a good time it will be your own fault. Cashier Whitcomb, of the State Bank of Binford, was in the city last Thursday. He is a very pleasant gen- tleman to meet. He reports business very encouraging in Binford and looks forward to a much larger business this year, of course.	F. B. King has gone to Chicago to see a big automobile parade which will be pulled off in the windy city in a few days. What he don't know about the festive automobile when he gets back wont be worth mentioning. Cooperstown had a narrow escape from a theatre fire, but the Courier says the asbestos curtain worked all right and the audience was saved, like- wise the building. Manager Mar- quardt shouid be duly credited by Cooperstown theatre goers Aneta Panorama. At the annual meeting of the First National Bank held last week the fol- lowing directors were elected: R. C. Cooper, H. P. Hammer, G. H. Condy, Robert Jones, Peter E. Nelson, S. Almklov and Ed Michaelis. The bank is very well satisfied with its business during the past year. The officers have not yet been elected but it is not likely that there will be any change. Geo. B. Clark and Hon. Nic Swen- son went down to Fargo last week to join the Shrine. It is said Mr. Swen- son's friends are urging him to become a candidate for county treasurer. If Nic should get on the ticket he ought to be in good shape to make a hot campaign after taking in the Shrine. By-the-way why not make him county	B. K. Climie returned from St. Paul Saturday. He had been down with two carloads of fat lambs and disposed of them at a good figure. He has now sold out all of his sheep. The wind it blew a hurricane, By-and-by it blew some more. This was Monday morning and was the first blizzard of the season for all of which we are duly thankful. I will give 10 per cent discount ou all repairs of harnesses during the months of January and February. Bring in your work. WM. STRINGER. Ingvald Greenland has been very sick since the 17th with pneumonia and is under Dr. Bergstrom's care. The disease is having its usual run and the doctor hopes to pull him through all right. B. B. Phipps came down from Lewis Monday to move his family home. They went up on Tuesday's train and Bert will have no chance to complain of not having anything to do so long as there is a baby around the house. Dr. L. S. PLATOU, of Valley City, graduate of Christiania University, Norway, will be in Cooperstown Jan. 29th and 30th for the purpose of practicing his profession. Regular	J. D. McComber's family boarded the train at this point Tuesday after- noon. We did not learn where they were going but as they are shipping out their household goods it is pre- sumed that they are leaving the coun- ty for good. Jake Arnold received a telegram last Monday from Council Bluffs, Ia., stating that his brother had shot him- self. The telegram did not state whether the man was killed or whether the shooting was accidental, in fact no particulars could be learned. Jake left on the afternoon train for Council Bluffs. Night Was Her Terror. "I would cough nearly all night long" writes Mrs. Chas Applegate of Alex- andria, Ind., "and could hardly get any sleep. I had consumption so bad that if I walked a block I would cough frightfully and spit blood, but, when all other medicines failed, three $1.00 bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery wholly cured me and I gained 58 pounds." It's absolutely guaranteed to cure coughs, colds, la grippe, bron- chitis and all throat and lung troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at H. H. Bateman's drug store.	CLOSING OUT SALE of all kinds of Warm Goods At greatly reduced prices, for one week only. Be sure to call and inspect goods, quality and prices, it will really surprise you. Don't forget street number, name and place.
need is a battery. Borrow the Odd Fellows' goat, old man. The friends of S. B. Langford will be pleased to learn that he has recov- ered sufficiently from his attack of ill- ness to be up again. He was very sick last week but was successfully treated by Dr. Bergstrom and is getting along nicely. William Glass has been elected one of the directors of Fargo College which is a sure thing that that institution has one good business man on the board—and we are not questioning the ability of any of the other 'mem- bers, either. Don't forget that the Workman lodge at Hannaford gives a masque- rade ball at Hannaford tomorrow night. The lodge intends to make this a pleasing event and if you attend and don't have a good time it will be your own fault. Cashier Whitcomb, of the State Bank of Binford, was in the city last Thursday. He is a very pleasant gen- tleman to meet. He reports business very encouraging in Binford and looks forward to a much larger business this year, of course. Mrs. Elsie Starbird, of Wilmer, B. C., is the guest of Miss Grace Thomp-	F. B. King has gone to Chicago to see a big automobile parade which will be pulled off in the windy city in a few days. What he don't know about the festive automobile when he gets back wont be worth mentioning. Cooperstown had a narrow escape from a theatre fire, but the Courier says the asbestos curtain worked all right and the audience was saved, like- wise the building. Manager Mar- quardt should be duly credited by Cooperstown theatre goers Aneta Panorama. At the annual meeting of the First National Bank held last week the fol- lowing directors were elected: R. C. Cooper, H. P. Hammer, G. H. Condy, Robert Jones, Peter E. Nelson, S. Almklov and Ed Michaelis. The bank is very well satisfied with its business during the past year. The officers have not yet been elected but it is not likely that there will be any change. Geo. B. Clark and Hon. Nic Swen- son's friends are urging him to become a candidate for county treasurer. If Nic should get on the ticket he ought to be in good shape to make a hot campaign after taking in the Shrine. By-the-way why not make him county treasurer.	B. K. Climie returned from St. Paul Saturday. He had been down with two carloads of fat lambs and disposed of them at a good figure. He has now sold out all of his sheep. The wind it blew a hurricane, By-and-by it blew some more. This was Monday morning and was the first blizzard of the season for all of which we are duly thankful. I will give 10 per cent discount ou all repairs of harnesses during the months of January and February. Bring in your work. MM. STRINGER. Ingvald Greenland has been very sick since the 17th with pneumonia and is under Dr. Bergstrom's care. The disease is having its usual run and the doctor hopes to pull him through all right. B. B. Phipps came down from Lewis Monday to move his family home. They went up on Tuesday's train and Bert will have no chance to complain of not having anything to do so long as there is a baby around the house. DR. L. S. PLATOU, of Valley City, graduate of Christiania University, Norway, will be in Cooperstown Jan. 29th and 30th for the purpose of practicing his profession. Regular visits last Friday and Saturday of each month.	J. D. McComber's family boarded the train at this point Tuesday after- noon. We did not learn where they were going but as they are shipping out their household goods it is pre- sumed that they are leaving the coun- ty for good. Jake Arnold received a telegram last Monday from Council Bluffs, Ia., stating that his brother had shot him- self. The telegram did not state whether the man was killed or whether the shooting was accidental, in fact no particulars could be learned. Jake left on the afternoon train for Council Bluffs. Night Was Her Terror. "I would cough nearly all night long" writes Mrs. Chas Applegate of Alex- andria, Ind., "and could hardly get any sleep. I had consumption so bad that if I walked a block I would cough frightfully and spit blood, but, when all other medicines failed, three $1.00 bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery wholly cured me and I gained 58 pounds." It's absolutely guaranteed to cure coughs, colds, la grippe, bron- chitis and all throat and lung troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at H. H. Bateman's drug store.	CLOSING OUT SALE of all kinds of Warm Goods At greatly reduced prices, for one week only. Be sure to call and inspect goods, quality and prices, it will really surprise you. Don't forget street number, name and place.

of weeks. Mrs. Starbird will be re- built last year, on one of the finest Carleton, on January 14, 1904, Julius Cooperstown until Feb. 10. Eyes excorners on the Boulevard. This is one Jenson to Edna H. Stai, both of Bald amined and glasses fitted by the latest to form part of a collection of exhibits storm and screen windows. Will take at the St. Louis World's Fair and we land in part payment. Apply to feel sure that there will be no finer at the fair-in the minds of their parents, at least.

Hannaford, N.

membered as Miss Elsie Lewis.

party and dance at the opera house tention of the lodge to have a social morning at 10:30 o'clock. The Rev. last Friday evening. Progressive gathering where the members and J. G. Moore, presiding elder of Minot hearts were played at which game their wives and the sweethearts of the district, will be present. A cordial inmost of the young people are adepts young fellows who have no wives, can vitation is extended to all. Dancing followed and was continued meet together and cnjoy a game of until about 2 a. m. The ladies served flinch, crokinole or any other game a lap supper and a good time is report- they choose, to be topped off by a lunch ed by all.

in to have a chat with the editor last ders into the lodge room. Friday. He came up with a couple of fat steers and sold them to E E. Downe and is of the opinion that those could do it if they wanted to.

you are helping out the lodge at the farm of Mrs. J. E. Johnson, two miles same time and that the lodge is help- north of town. ing your family. If you can't go yourself, buy a dozen tickets anyhow.

Indian game rooster which is consid- son intends to visit Norwa7 this opinion of the Courier the town is unered to be somewhat of a scrapper. spring or early summer and will not Bill Davidson owns a Plymouth Rock be a candidate for re-election. As his The department gets no pay for its rooster that he thinks can clean out successor two candidates have already work and the boys have done lots of any other bird in the village and did stepped into the arena, John P. Blocknot hesitate to say so in the hearing er and Martin Rood. Both are good subscription list could be handed of Doc who immediately signed artimen and would undoubtedly make a around-there hasn't been any for a of agreement that his Indian game could wipe up the earth with the Ply- is opposed to any man for marshal who would be the ones who would have to mouth Rock. In a day or two after is in any way connected with any pay the money. If the town proper Bill tucked his rooster under his arm other business-he cannot give the purchases the cart every citizen that and struck out for the poultry farm of town satisfactory service. We want a is protected by the fire department in Winsloe to settle the dispute. It took man for marshal who can and will the city of Cooperstown would have a just about ten seconds for Bill to arrive give his entire time and services to hand in paying for it and it is the only at the conclusion that Plymouth Rock roosters are all right as a domestic pet tioned we believe that Mr. Blocker is boys made a splendid record at Wahpebut as fighters they are no good. Just the better candidate of the two. How- ton last year and are entitled to some the immediate family attended the ever, there is yet plenty of time and recognition for their services. Buy Plymouth Rock funeral. No cards.

presenting the product of Cooperstown figure. Good cellar, cistern, furnace, contracting parties in wishing them and Griggs county. The pictures are fighting plant and equipped with much happiness. J. A. MOFFATT.

Griggs lodge No. 13, A. O. U. W., will celebrate at its lodge room on the ence Saturday at eight o'clock p. m. The Moderation club gave a card evening of January 27th. It is the in- quarterly meeting services Sunday Workmen are invited and any visiting brother will find the glad hand extend-S. R. Jones, of Hannaford, dropped ed to him on that evening if he wanreceive a big crowd. Remember that this flour was made was grown on the town wont count, anyhow.

City politics are commencing to the proposition of getting the town warm up even at this early day. It is board to purchase for the department Doc Winsloe has a black breasted said that Marshal Anton Christian- a ball bearing racing cart. In the good official. The Courier, however, day or two-and the business men the town and of the two men men- fair way to get at the matter. The conditions change rapidly these days. 'em a cart.

Photographer Von Blon is exhibit- of the finest residence properties in Hill township, Griggs county. The and most approved methods. Call at ing some very cute baby pictures re- the city and will be sold at the right Courier joins with the friends of the I. D. Allen's jewelry store.

> The second quarterly conference and quarterly meeting for the Cooperstown M. E. Church will be held next Saturday and Sunday. Quarterly confer-

The Binford Base Ball Club will start out this season on February 12, about 1,300; one dark bay horse with by giving a grand masquerade ball. The price of tickets has been placed at $1.00. This admits you to the parquet Sec. 18-147-58. and gives you the privilege of dancing with all the pretty girls and matrons

The Cussons Milling Co. has been that you can find who will dance with grinding up some of that much re- you. You can then reach down into who get some of these steers will have knowned macaroni flour which we your jeans and ante up the price of good eating. It helps out some to te have heard so much about the past a supper after which you will be entitable to turn in a fat steer or two dur- year or two, and the Courier has been led to fill up on all the good eatables ing the winter-and most farmers favored with a sack for a sample. The provided for the occasion. This ball editorial family has been dining on should result in a large score, financithis flour for the past few days and we ally, for the club. Manager Otto Pritz Miss Lottie Tillotson, of St. Paul, are in a position to say that it makes will deliver an address in, which it is will give an elocutionary entertain- very nice bread. It is just a trifle expected he will tell how that lovely ment in Groven's Hall, Hannaford, on darker, maybe, than that made from cup will repose on a velvet cushion the night of Feb. 3d, under the aus hard wheat and just a little sweeter. under a glass case at the end of the pices of the A. O. U. W. lodge of that The flour makes very nice bread and coming season-when his club puts it place. The lady is said to be one of we do not see why macaroni wheat is all over the aggregation from the the best in her class and she should not all right. The wheat from which creek town. He figures that Coopers-

> The fire department met in special session last Friday night to consider der obligations to purchase this cart. good work for the town. To be sure a THE TIONAL BANK of COOPERSTOWN.

Take Notice. Farmers tributary to Jessie are hereby notified that a meeting will be held at that place on January 25 to take steps to organize the farmers' elevator company. COMMITTEE.

Taken Up.

Jan. 13, 1904, one span of horses, one light bay horse, white stripe in face and three white stockings, weight star in forehead and right eye out, weight about 1,200. DAVID WILLCOX.

With a sincere and grateful appreciation of the confidence and favor of the public. which has made the pastyear avery prosperous one for this bank, it returns its hearty thanks to its customers, and bespeaks for them, and all the people of Cooperstown and vicinity, a Happy and Prosperous New Year, Clearing Sale Prices. We have a lot of axle grease in wood boxes and the boxes are in bad shape so we must sell grease.

While it Lasts, - 3 boxes for 25c.

A Special Selection of

dge House Paints

~******

Will be found at our store this spring when you get ready to paint, and we want you to let us show you our Five Year Guarantee with this paint. No other make

EDGE PAINT

深淡淡

