

SENATOR HANNA IS LAID AT REST

Funeral Services Over Remains of Distinguished Ohioan Held at Cleveland.

Great Throngs Take Last Look at Dead Statesman While Thousands of Others Are Unable To—Many Noted Persons in Attendance—Body Deposited in Chapel.

Cleveland, O., Feb. 19.—Surrounded by great masses of flowers and guarded by a detail of state militiamen, the remains of Senator Marcus A. Hanna lay in state and were viewed by 50,000 persons yesterday afternoon.

The Last Rites. Cleveland, O., Feb. 20.—The last rites over the body of Senator Marcus A. Hanna were held yesterday afternoon at St. Paul's Episcopal church.

Cleveland, O., Feb. 20.—The last rites over the body of Senator Marcus A. Hanna were held yesterday afternoon at St. Paul's Episcopal church.

An Immense Throng. Thousands who were unable to view the remains of the dead senator, as they lay in state in the chamber of commerce auditorium Thursday and Friday, flocked to the corner of Euclid and Case avenues, to witness the conveying of the simple black casket, bearing the remains of the senator, into the church.

The Funeral Services. A few moments before one o'clock Mrs. Hanna, accompanied by her son, Dan, entered the church.

Body Placed in Chapel. The service was most solemn and impressive, and outbursts of sobs could be heard at frequent intervals from all parts of the church.

Honor Hanna's Memory. Wilkesbarre, Pa., Feb. 20.—Yesterday was generally observed throughout the anthracite fields as a day of mourning.

New Railway Projected. Springfield, Ill., Feb. 17.—Articles of incorporation were filed with the circuit clerk of Warren county at Monmouth Tuesday of the Chicago, Joliet & Iowa Railway company.

Asylum Burned. Racine, Wis., Feb. 20.—The main building of the Racine county insane asylum at Gatliff, four miles west of this city, was burned to the ground last night, causing a loss of $100,000.

Turkey to Invade Bulgaria. Washington, Feb. 18.—Diplomats here learn that Turkey is about to invade Bulgaria, thereby starting a war in Europe, which may spread to other powers.

Killed by Dynamite. Ogden, Utah, Feb. 20.—Two carloads of dynamite exploded at Jackson station, on the Ogden-Lucan cutoff yesterday, killing 23 and injuring 30 workmen.

Michigan Republicans. Grand Rapids, Mich., Feb. 18.—The republican state central committee has decided to call a state convention in this city May 18 to elect 28 delegates to the republican national convention.

DEFENDS AMERICA.

William Redmond Protests Against Remark Made by Member of British Parliament.

London, Feb. 17.—William Redmond caused a scene in the house of commons on Tuesday during the discussion on the subject of Chinese labor in the Transvaal.

The speaker called Mr. Redmond to order and other members protested, but still Mr. Redmond continued repeating his exclamation, and added: "In America at least they don't appoint a chancellor of the exchequer who is unfit for his post."

The speaker again intervened and Mr. Redmond finally subsided with the remark: "America seems to get on all right."

SEEK DIVINE AID.

St. Louis Christian Temperance Women Enlist Public Against Sunday Liquor Selling.

St. Louis, Feb. 19.—Ten thousand women knelt in prayer for more than an hour yesterday to invoke Divine aid in their campaign against the opening of saloons on Sundays.

The crusade is sponsored by the Women's Christian Temperance union, which holds a big mass meeting daily at 11 a. m. for the purpose of public prayer against the saloons.

BULLETS FLEW FAST.

Riot Occurs in an Effort by Officers to Close a Poolroom at Madison, Ill.

Madison, Ill., Feb. 20.—In an effort to close up a pool room that has for a long time operated in the outskirts of this city, three constables, augmented by a posse of citizens and bearing warrants for the arrest of six men connected with the poolroom, precipitated a riot late yesterday, which resulted in the shooting of seven men.

WAR ON PRICES.

Newspaper Publishers' Association Makes Request for a Federal Suit Against Combines.

New York, Feb. 19.—At the meeting of the American Newspaper Publishers' association yesterday the famine in white paper was discussed and the following resolution, introduced by Conde Hamlin, of the St. Paul Pioneer Press, was unanimously adopted:

"That the American Newspaper Publishers' association requests the president of the United States and the attorney general to institute a suit against any of the three paper combinations to test the legality of their existence, and whether they do not stifle competition."

Named for Congress.

Toledo, O., Feb. 20.—The republican congressional convention for the Fifth district of Ohio was held at Defiance Friday and by a vote of 32 to 26 decided not to instruct its delegates to vote for President Roosevelt in the convention.

Baltimore's Fire Loss.

Baltimore, Md., Feb. 19.—Paul Turner, chairman of the general loss committee of the insurance companies, says that the aggregate property loss by the great fire was $125,000,000.

Must Surrender Big Sum.

Milwaukee, Wis., Feb. 20.—Judge Tarrant rendered a verdict for $94,000 against Gerhard Terlinden, the German absconder arrested in Milwaukee some years ago, in favor of the Disconto Gesellschaft, of Berlin, Germany, who had charged him with misappropriating 400,000 marks.

Dowager Empress Dead.

London, Feb. 20.—A special dispatch from Canton says it is reported in official circles there that the dowager empress of China is dead.

Burned at the Stake.

Little Rock, Ark., Feb. 20.—Glenco Bays, a negro, was burned at the stake early yesterday near Crossett, on the charge of murdering J. D. Stephen, of Ashley.

Aged Odd Fellow Passes Away.

Iowa City, Ia., Feb. 18.—John Norwood Clark, aged 90, longer a continuous member of the old fellows than any other person, died here Wednesday. He joined the order at Baltimore in 1837.

SANTO DOMINGO REPEATS INSULT

United States Sailors May Chastise Rebels Who Forcibly Entered Samana Consulate.

The Revolution-Haunted Island May Be Brought Under Protection of American Government—Instructions Sent to Admiral Wise to Take Steps to Secure Proper Attonement.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 18.—Unless the republic of Santo Domingo takes better care of its rebels it is quite within the range of possibilities that the revolution-haunted island may be brought under the protection of the United States as the only possible means of keeping it in order.

Another breach of international law committed by the rebels adds to the formidable case which the United States may look upon as sufficient cause for intervention.

Rebels Enter Consulate.

Minister Powell has reported to the state department that the American consulate at Samana had been entered by an armed force of rebels and that two refugees had been taken from its shelter by force. His report was based upon

CONGRESS KEEPS BUSY.

Daily Summary of Work Done in Senate and House by the Lawmakers of the Nation.

Washington, Feb. 16.—The senate yesterday agreed to vote on the ratification of the Panama canal treaty on February 23. The agricultural appropriation bill, carrying $6,072,380, was reported. In the house Mr. Shafroth (Col.) voluntarily resigned his seat on evidence of fraud at his election; investigation showed he was not to blame. His action is the first of the kind on record.

Washington, Feb. 17.—After feeling remarks by Senator Foraker in announcing the death of Senator Hanna in the senate yesterday, the adoption of the usual resolutions and the appointment of the committee to take charge of the arrangements for the funeral, the body at 12:12 adjourned as a further mark of respect. The house also held but a short session, adjourning out of respect to the deceased senator.

Washington, Feb. 18.—The senate and house transacted no business yesterday out of respect to the memory of Senator Hanna.

Washington, Feb. 19.—The Panama canal question was the uppermost topic in the senate yesterday, and Senator Spooner spoke in favor of the subject during the greater portion of the day. The house passed the fortifications appropriation bill.

Washington, Feb. 20.—There was no session of the senate yesterday, adjournment having been taken on

RUSSIAN TROOPS DIE FROM COLD

Six Hundred Reported to Have Frozen to Death While Marching Across Lake Baikal.

Russian Cruiser Blown Up and Over One Hundred Men Killed—Fresh Attack Upon Port Arthur—Japan in Rear of the Czar's Army—Russia Occupies Newchwang.

Berlin, Feb. 17.—A St. Petersburg dispatch says that 600 Russian soldiers have been frozen to death while marching across Lake Baikal, eastern Siberia. The correspondent adds that the temporary railroad across the lake is not yet completed, that a large detachment of troops was sent on a 22-mile march over the ice-covered lake and that it is presumed that part of these troops lost their way in a snowstorm and perished.

Blown Up by a Mine.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 17.—The Russian second-class cruiser Boyarin was blown up by a mine February 13 in the same manner as was the Russian

Map showing location and railroad connections of Admiral Alexieff, new headquarters of torpedo transport Yentsei. She had on board 197 officers and men, all of whom, it is understood, were lost. No details of the disaster have been given out.

Between Two Armies.

London, Feb. 17.—Detached fragments of news from the seat of war indicate to military experts here that Japan has landed an army in force at the head of Liaotung gulf, somewhere near Newchwang, and that Russia has banded in massing her available forces along the Yalu. With one Japanese army north of Newchwang and another of 100,000 along the Yalu river, as stated in a dispatch to the Daily Mail this morning, the Russians will be caught between two strong forces and likely be attacked on both flanks.

Russia Seizes Newchwang.

Russia, apparently is rushing troops to Newchwang, that city being occupied yesterday. Dispatches from Newchwang describe hasty preparations to resist an attack. Even big guns from a Russian warship in the harbor are being mounted on shore to repel assault from the land side.

Viceroy Alexieff and his entire military staff have hastily left Port Arthur and taken up headquarters at Mukden.

Russia Invades Corea.

Seoul, Feb. 18.—Russian troops have crossed the Yalu river at Wiju. Russia has been massing infantry, artillery and cavalry along the north bank of the Yalu river for several weeks. It is believed that the Russian force on the Yalu is larger than any Japan has been able to concentrate there in the ten days since the war began. The news that Russian forces have crossed the Yalu indicates that the czar's forces have taken the aggressive and will go to meet the Japanese advance near Pingyang.

Japanese Fleet Intact.

London, Feb. 19.—The Japanese legation here received an official dispatch from Tokio saying it was not true that any Japanese vessels had been destroyed so far in any of the various naval engagements, and that all necessary repairs had already been made. The Japanese fleet remains intact.

Seized by Russians.

Seoul, Feb. 19.—Wiju, the port recently opened by Corea to the trade of the world, has been seized by Russian troops, and 2,000 of the czar's soldiers are now encamped there. Three thousand more troops are at Chin Tien Chong, across the Yalu river from Wiju, and it is in that vicinity that the first great land battle is expected.

Japan Seizes Islands.

Rome, Feb. 19.—Japanese naval forces have seized the Elliott islands, off the eastern coast of the Liaotung peninsula and about 75 miles north-east of Port Arthur. The Russian embassy here has learned. The islands occupy a strong strategic position, and will be used by Japan as a base of supplies.

Many Drowned.

Vienna, Feb. 20.—Two regiments of Russian pioneers and one regiment of railway troops, altogether comprising 3,000 men, have been drowned while crossing Lake Baikal, according to a dispatch received by the Narodni Listy from its St. Petersburg correspondent. No particulars of this new disaster to the Russian troops marching to Manchuria are given.

Minister Buchanan Resigns.

Washington, Feb. 19.—The state department has received and has accepted the resignation of W. E. Buchanan, the American minister to Panama. No successor has been appointed.

High Honor for Woman.

Washington, Feb. 17.—Rev. Anna H. Shaw has been elected president of the National American Woman's Suffrage association.

"DAMSKI!"

Philadelphia North American.

DOLLAR WHEAT IS REACHED.

Price of May Cereal on Chicago Board of Trade the Highest in Many Years.

Chicago, Feb. 20.—Dollar wheat is a reality. May wheat reached the dollar mark soon after the opening of the board of trade Friday, nor did it stop there.

Amid scenes of the wildest excitement in the pit, it advanced steadily until it sold for $1.01 1/2 a bushel, when J. Ogden Armour's brokers began to sell at an enormous profit to the young manipulator. Later it reached $1.03.

No. 2 Red winter wheat, the finest quality, sold for $1.08 a bushel, the highest mark for many years.

Tragedy in Wisconsin.

Milwaukee, Wis., Feb. 20.—A special to the Sentinel from Ripon, Wis., says: Will Laning, aged 27 years, shot and instantly killed Miss Emma Buegler, aged 23 years, on the farm of Gus Hensley, 2 1/2 miles south of Fairwater, and then killed himself with the same revolver. It is said that Laning asked the girl to marry him and that she had written a letter refusing him. Fairwater is eight miles south of Ripon.

Took His Own Life.

Milwaukee, Wis., Feb. 19.—Dan P. Lyden, said to be connected with the firm of W. S. Mills & Co., Dearborn Building, committed suicide Thursday at the Chicago & Northwestern depot by inhaling chloroform from a sponge saturated with the drug. He left a note bequeathing his body to the state of Wisconsin to be given to some medical college.

Death of Former Diplomat.

Chicago, Feb. 20.—Frederick H. Winston, United States minister to Persia in 1885-86, and prominent in Chicago for 40 years, died Friday afternoon at Magnolia Springs, Fla. Gen. Winston has been active in social, municipal, legal and educational circles in this city since the days of the civil war.

New Congressman.

Philadelphia, Feb. 17.—George A. Castor (rep.) was elected to congress from the Third district at a special election held to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Henry Burk (rep.).

Takes Up the Law.

Lincoln, Neb., Feb. 17.—Jules Lombard, 80 years old, of Omaha, has been admitted to practice law. He was a famous singer years ago, and sang during Lincoln's campaign and at his funeral.