The teachers institute opened up for a week's session in the primary school building Monday morning, with Prof. Hoover, of Park River, as conductor. Mr. Hoover was here on a similar errand five years ago, and notes that Cooperstown has greatly improved in many ways, especially in the growth of trees and the building of sidewalks.

Talk about your yellow peril. This town will soon be in the midst of a yellow peril, all right, all right, if these dandelions continue to spread in the future as they have the past year. Everybody should dig these pests out of their lawns or it will be only a matter of two or three years until the laws will be a solid mass of yellow dandelions.

The man who was invited to go to Chicago and take in the Zoo, recently said: No, thank you, I'll stay at home. My eldest daughter does the kangaroo walk, my second daughter talks like a parrot, my son laughs like a hyena, my cook is as cross as a bear, and my mother-in-law says I'm an old gorilla. When I go anywhere I want a change. —Ex.

Fin Van Vorhis was in town yesterday, laying in a supply of fishing lines and hooks. He and his sister Miss Annie go to Spiritwood Lake tomorrow for a little outing and expect to return Sunday. We have heard of a sea monster in this beautiful lake, but when Fin returns that monster will be no more for the time honored old fisherman will surely capture him.—Binford Times.

Wright, and the remains were interred in the cemetery at this place by the side of his wife, the Rev. McCloud, of Aneta, officiating.

The open conference on "The Co-operation of Temperance Forces" has met with a ready response from most of those appealed to. Six participants are already secured and still others are to be heard from. This conference will undoubtedly be a very interesting and profitable symposium on this subject from these various angles by representative people. It is safe to promise that it will be well worth any one's while to come and hear it on the afternoon of June 29th.

Manager St. John has received word from the manager of the Concord College, Minn., base ball club to the effect that his club will come to Cooperstown about June 20th to play in a three days tournament, providing that arrangements can be made with the different local clubs to participate in the games. Binford will probably go in and it is possible also that Hannaford can be induced to enter into the deal. This tournament would provide three days of good sport to the fans.

At a meeting of the Congregational church held last Thursday evening it was unanimously voted to go ahead and build a parsonage right away. Two sites have been selected for the new building, the corner opposite G. H. Condy's residence on Burrell avenue and the corner opposite J. C. Hazard's house on Lenham avenue. Either one is a good location and will be satisfactory to the church. The meeting was largely attended and the members were unanimously in favor of going ahead with the new parsonage.

Revolution Imminent.

A sure sign of approaching revolt and serious trouble in your system is nervousness, sleeplessness, or stomach upsets. Electric Bitters will quickly dismember the troublesome causes, it never fails to tone the stomach, regulate the Kidneys and Bowels, stimulate the Liver and clarify the blood. Run down systems benefit particularly and all the usual attending aches vanish under its searching and thorough effectiveness. Electric Bitters is only 50c, and that is returned if it don't give perfect satisfaction—Guaranteed by H. H. Bateman, Druggist.

Those of our readers who are looking around for a place to celebrate the Fourth of July should make it a point to come to Cooperstown. The Fair Association has secured many attractions for the two days, July 4 and 5, and you will undoubtedly be able to celebrate and have a good time. One of the many attractions secured is the guideless horse, which goes around the track in a race with another horse without any driver, salutes the judges and people very cleverly and is a novelty all by itself. Come to Cooperstown on those dates. Base ball games, races, etc., and sports galore.

C. H. Skelton was in the city the other day with his auto and got tangled up with a three days rain, consequently the running was anything but smooth when he started out Monday morning with about two hundred of our citizens rubbering at him as he started up. Now if there is any one thing more than another that Charley likes, it is to have about a dozen or fifteen of those "damned Indians" standing around asking him questions and getting in his way when he is oiling up. He started up good and lively Monday, however, made at least half a mile by noon, with the sun improving every minute. Charley will be accompanied by an expert next trip whose sole duty will be to answer questions.

Milk cans $2.25 at Evenson's.

The North Dakota State Fair at Mandan which will be held September 27, 28 and 29, 1904 will be larger than ever. The reputation of this fair having been well established by holding nine successful exhibitions. Each year has witnessed a steady growth in both exhibits of all descriptions and in point of attendance. The rapid strides this state is making in coming to the front as an agricultural and stock growing country has attracted many new settlers and the exhibits when viewed at the fair always cause expressions of surprise from those who are not acquainted with our resources, and it is the duty of every loyal citizen to help the State Fair management each year in trying to surpass the previous in bringing about a creditable exhibition for this state. The officers this year are in the field early and will make every effort to secure a creditable display. They are also securing attractions to amuse as well and the grounds are already being used as training quarters for several speedy horses.
