The silver edition of the Grand Forks Herald is the finest thing that has struck this office in years. The booklet is artistically gotten up and illustrated covering 120 pages. The Courier wishes the Herald continued prosperity and hopes that when the golden and niversary is reached it will take double the pages to print it.

The republican party has nominated Theodore Roosevelt for president and Charles W. Fairbanks .for vice-president. These two men will undoubtedly be elected next November. In nominating the former the re publican party has not done so on what it thinks Mr. Roosevelt and what he positively will do, He is a president who does things and does them without fear or favor. He has commanded the respect of the bosses on account of his independence reof the laboring classes because he tries to do what is right. He is a president of the people and for the people Mr. Fairbanks the office of president he would be a safe man. The republican party has done well and the peonext November.

The W. C. T. U.

The fifth annual institute and convention for Barnes and Griggs counties convened at 2 p. m. Tuesday with a very good representation of delegates from the different unions of the two counties. The day meetings are held in the Baptist church which has been very tastily decorated for the occasion. The local union has certainly done well in preparing such a splendid program and in entertaining its visitors. We would very much the strains of Mendelssohn's like to give a more detailed account of the convention but time Christman, sister of the bride, and space will not allow this the bridal party entered the week. A Costly Mistake.

Blunders are sometimes very expensive. Occasionally life itself is the price of a mistake, but you'll never be Mr. Leonard Hewer, brother of wrong if you take Dr. King's New Life Pills for Dyspepsia Dizziness, Headache, Liver or Bowel troubles. It does not fall to the lot of a country newspaper to write up very many golden weddings in the community where it sends out the news week after week, and for the first time since the present editor of the Courier had control of this paper have we the opportunity to chronicle an event of this kind. We here produce a p'aoto of the happy couple,

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Aga, father and mother of Mrs. J. E. Johnson. The anniversary of this golden wedding was on June 21st, 1904, will do, but on what he has done and the reunion of father and mother and their children took place at the home of Lumberman and Mrs. J. E. Johnson. Mr. and Mrs. Aga were married at Ullisvang, Norway, fifty years ago the 21st of this month. As a result of that union nine children have been born to them and eight of them are now living and were present with their families at this golden jubilee. They are: Mrs. gardless of their dictum, and has Haaverson and Mrs. Bertheum, of Orr, N. D., Mrs. Ode, of Manvel, won the support and admiration N. D., John and Ole Aga, of Hatton, N. D., Peter, Aga, Jr., of Aneta, N. D., Mrs. J. E. Johnson and Gunder Aga, of Cooperstowr, N. D. These children and families spent a very pleasant day with their aged father and mother who had traveled side by side is a man whose public career has through the various stages of married life until they have now been conservative and wise. If reached the golden jubilee just as devoted to each other as when through some misfortune he they stood before the altar on the day they were married. The should be called upon to assume father has reached the age of 84 while the mother is 75, both of them enjoying good health, and the COURIER joins the children and many friends in hoping that they, will live to enjoy the golden sunple will retify their judgment set of ripe old age and good health. The children presented them with many useful and valuable presents.
