The program both days was fine. The medal contest Wednesday evening in the opera house was largely attended and enjoyed. After a very close contest the medal was awarded A. M. Baldwin. Much credit is due the county president, Mrs. L. M. Brown and the local union for the very good program provided.

A Very Close Call.

"I stuck to my engine, although every joint ached and every nerve was racked with pain," writes C. W. Bellamy, a locomotive fireman, of Burlington, Iowa. "I was weak and pale, without any appetite and all run down. As I was about to give up, I got a bottle of Electric Bitters, and after taking it, I felt a well as I ever did in my life." Weak, sickly, run down people always gain new life, strength and vigor from their use. Try them. Satisfaction guaranteed by H. H. Bateman. Price 50 cents.
