It Was a Success. A young lady who engages largely in church and mission work was recently the moving spirit in some amateur theatricals which were got up in the interest of a deserving local charity. The entertainment was billed, and the performance was duly given. But somehow or other no notice was taken of it in the local newspapers. A few days later a friend met the young lady in question, when the conversation turned to the theatricals.

"Was the entertainment a success?" "I should think it was," replied the lady, with a smile. "Why, we got over $100."

"Is that so?" said the friend. "Then you must have had a large audience." "Well, no," she replied. "We only took $150 at the door, but father gave us a check for $100 if we would promise never to do it again."—St. Joseph Press.

The Temperature. "Why do you watch the thermometer on the wall so closely?" queried the invalid.

"Because," replied the untrained nurse, "the doctor said if the temperature got any higher I was to give you another dose of quinine."
