question, when the conversation turned to the theatricals.
"Was the entertainment a success?"
"I should think it was," replied the lady, with a smile. "Why, we got over $100."
"Is that so?" said the friend. "Then you must have had a large audience."
"Well, no," she replied. "We only took $150 at the door, but father gave us a check for $100 if we would promise never to do it again."—St. Joseph Press.
The Temperature.
"Why do you watch the thermometer on the wall so closely?" queried the invalid.
"Because," replied the untrained nurse, "the doctor said if the temperature got any higher I was to give you another dose of quinine."
