Difference in Prayers.

Little Alice always said her prayers regularly before going to bed. One night, however, as she rested her head on the pillow she remarked, in a questioning way:
"Mamma, my prayers are so much longer than the one nurse says in the morning. Can't I say hers when I'm tired?"
"Does the nurse pray in the morning?" asked the mother with a puzzled look.
"Yes," said Alice sweetly. "She says, 'Lord, have I got to get up?'"—New York Tribune.

List at Seventy-five.

Even at seventy-five List was a pianist whose powers lay beyond the pale to which sober language or calm criticism could reach or be applied. Enough that its greatest charm seemed to me to lie in a perfectly divine touch and in a tone more remarkable for exquisitely musical quality than volume or dynamic force aided by a technique still incomparably brilliant and superb.—Hermann Klein in Century.
