ALBERT LARSON.

The Binford Times, the Hannaford Enterprise and the Courier have a clear case of libel against privilege to vote for the best man the Sentinel for that cartoon of last week. The editors pictures but when you have a county given to the party sending information were much too good looking for ticket that is composed of as the real thing.

seems to be all mixed up. Judges Lauder, Palda and Glaspell have been turned down by the republican party and have been nominated by the democrats. This is another case of independence in politics-for with good men on the ticket and what there is in it.

It is all right to be independent in politics and to have the same as alleged republican papers say, good a set of nominees as is possible to get and take the The judiciary in this state ticket as a whole is better than the opposition, is there any call for a republican paper to refuse to endorse his ticket under those are as they are in this campaign ward will be paid for information leading to the recovery of said mare. a republican paper says it is republican on national and state but in county affairs is independent, it looks to a man up a tree as if that paper was out for boodle and nothing else. We haven't noticed our democratic friend up the street saying anything about its independence in county politics and there are candidates on his ticket he could cut if he felt like it and wanted to be independent. The more republican papers that the opposition can bait with a plea of being independent for a given sum the better it is for their cause of course and is shrewd politics. But then the COURIER should not talk so, its editor is a postmaster and should not have a think coming because he wears a collar you know. Bah! If we didn't know some of these fellows who are howling independence we might take some stock in their talk-most of them would sell out for two bits and then sell out again to the other fellow for two more.

A Shooting at McHenry.

McHenry, N. D., Sept. 30 .-Jack Ryanishot and killed William Zech, a pioneer restaurant man of this city last night. A posse is scouring the country for the murderer and is determined to capture the man at any cost. Intense excitement prevails over the killing and great indignation is felt. The people of the town feel that it is acquiring a bad reputation and there is a movement to preserve better order here at any cost.

The murderer was allowed to hang around the town two or three hours after he committed the crime and was not arrested until a day or two after the crime was committed. We understand he was found about ten miles from McHenry asleep in a strav stack and was placed under

Just Weights.

Not long since the writer of this took a load of farm produce to Cooperstown and had it weighed on two different scales. There was one hundred pounds difference in the gross weight of the load. Why not establish and maintain city scales regulated by government weights? Cooperstown prices maybe sugarcoated, never-the-less they are ordinarily hard enough to swallow without having to rob some one or be robbed in the bargain. FARMER.

The Courier does not know whether there is any discrepancy in the weighs of the various scales around town or not, but Farmer says there is. If this is so his point is very well taken and a remedy is needed. We do not believe that anybody in this town is robbing anybody systematically or intentionally. The idea of a public scale operated by the town and with government weights is a good one how-

Concerning ADVERTISING.

We do not think we are open to criticism or liability on account of untruthful advertising. We trust you all know we are fully committed to truthful statements over the counter and in the press. Even if this policy was not based on any conscientous ground, it is the only wise policy to follow to increase and maintain a business on an enduring foundation.

Advertising is a very important factor in the success of every business, but with the qualifications necessary to do effective advertising there must always be the thought and determination to maintain the principles of the establishment they re-

Poor Richards saying, "Honesty is the best policy," must be ever in mind. No misleading expression allowed in describing the goods or the values. The public is quick to learn and sure to appreciate facts.

We believe it best to state things as they are. If the goods are last seasons, to say so, and let the price be low according to merit.

If damaged or soiled, odd sizes, or whatever the unfavorable feature may be, so state the facts, but to be ever vigilant that we may have only the newest and best to advertise.
