Local.

We have improved farms for sale. FIRST NATIONAL BANK

Call at R. S. Lunde's office for farm loans and insurance.

Mrs. J. H. Jackson and Miss Clara Jackson, of Hannaford, were visitors in the county seat town last Saturday.

Remember this! R. S. Lunde insures threshing rigs in operation in the fields.

STATE BANK of Cooperstown, has money at all times for Farm Loans.

Peter Stewart and Andrew Urquhart, two of Helena township old timers' were rubbering around town last Saturday.

Don't forget Mrs. Tipton's sale the 19th if the weather is not too bad, otherwise the 22nd. Books at private sale until the auction.

Munn & McCoy will be here within four weeks with a party of Illinois land seekers. Those wishing to sell their land should see me at once. FRANK GLADSTONE.

W. T. Munn returned to town last Saturday after an extended visit up in the Canadian northwest. W. T. says they are getting 35 bushels per acre up in that country.

N. A. Patterson made a flying trip to Fargo last Saturday. He went down after his little daughter, Elizabeth, who had been making Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Jones a brief visit.

Dick Howden, the merchant prince came down from McHenry last Thursday to see how his best girl was getting along. Dick tells of the exciting arrest of the fellow who killed the butcher up in his town.

Miss Grace Gray, of Hope, won the grand prize in the Minneapolis Tribune contest. She got the big $25,000 auto, a trip to St. Louis and is called the queen of the contest. The Tribune gets a lot of new subscribers, a pile of money and some good advertising.

At the close of the preaching service at the Baptist church on Sunday morning last, the pastor, Rev. S. Batchelor, had the pleasant duty of extending the hand of welcome and fellowship to several new members. Divine service will be conducted by the pastor every Sunday morning and evening.

H. G. Richardson, of Bryan township, was a caller on the COURIER last Monday and planked the price of a year's subscription to the COURIER. Mr. Richardson does not get down to the county seat very often living nearer McHenry. He says that they expect to get a postoffice established at Lewis in the near future and that will be his town then.

Mrs. N. A. Patterson gave a supper to a few of her lady friends last Thursday evening, fourteen being present. The table was very prettily decorated, one of the features being pink carnations at each plate. Following the supper the party revolved itself into a conundrum party and for an hour or two the ladies had a good time guessing some brain cracking conundrums. The ladies enjoyed Mrs. Patterson's hospitality very much.

It gives me pleasure to recommend Aaker's Business College, Fargo, N. D., to anyone who wishes a good, thorough business education. A person is hardly in a position to judge the merits of a school unless he has attended others so that he can make comparisons. I have attended another business college for about three months, and the A. B. C. in the lead for earnest, progressive work.

Respectfully,
MATTIE ROSTEN,
Audubon, Minn.

Yeast Foam 7 packages for 25 cents. Pyramid Soap Powder per pkg. 25c. Good California Prunes per lb. 5c. JIMESON & OLSON, Phone 135. The New Store.

Fred A. Sinclair, of Portal is sending out a very unique campaign souvenir. It is an aluminum court plaster holder. On one side it says: "Fred A. Sinclair, democratic nominee for sheriff of Ward county. On the other side it says: "You stick to me and sometimes I'll stick to you." Fred would make a cracking good sheriff and if he was only on the other ticket would get there. However, here's hoping that he will get just a dozen or so more votes than his opponent—that's the worst luck we wish him.

FOR SALE—Good hard coal burner. Inquire of E. S. Hamilton.

Evaporated Cream 15c per-can at Jameson & Olson. The New Store. Phone 135.

Mr. Daniel Sinclair will auction off his personal property Wednesday of next week. He lives four miles north of Hannaford.

Mankato Commercial College, Mankato, Minn., last year enrolled 520 students. It pays to attend a successful school.

C. W. Sayles returned to Hartford, Wis., last Monday. He was accompanied by Mrs. F. J. Stone and children who will visit in Wisconsin for a few weeks.

It is only three weeks until election and up to this time very little work has been done by the candidates. We expect the last few days prior to election our farmer friends will receive company quite often. Then there will be a quiet spell for them for another two years.

Mrs. B. B. Phipps and little daughter are spending a few days at the home of Col. and Mrs. H. P. Hammer.

The Binford Times last week contained a cartoon touching on local politics that was very good. In addition to the cartoon there was an item to the effect that the home of E. O. Curry had been made glad by the arrival of a fine baby girl. The COURIER offers congratulations.

Santa Claus Soap 7 bars for 25 cents. Diamond C Soap 7 bars for 25 cents. Lenox Soap 7 bars for 25 cents. Perfect Soap 7 bars for 25 cents. at Jameson & Olson, Phone 135. The New Store.

Strange as it may seem, the COURIER needs money to run its business. If our subscribers will kindly remember this when they are distributing the returns from their crops and will drop in and pay up for their paper, no offense will be taken. This is no joke.

Rain again put a stop to threshing last Friday afternoon. The machines had enjoyed a steady run of eight days and had cleaned up a lot of ground. There is still ten days of threshing in some localities while in some places machines are about through.

U No Nolan, the Hon. W. I.

Well—he will be here Friday Oct. 28th, and is worth hearing.

Up to this time very little work has been done by the local candidates but there is a stir among them now and from this time up to election the voters all over the county will have a chance to promise thirty or forty candidates that they will vote for them on election day.

Dr. Rose, resident dentist, Cooperstown, N. D., can be found in his office from now on until further notice. Office in Syverson's new building, upstairs.

Mr. Floyd Starr, of Kalamazoo, Mich., addressed the young folks of Cooperstown in the Congregational church last Thursday evening on behalf of the L. T. L. Mr. Starr was not greeted by as large a crowd as he should be, nevertheless there was a fair turnout and those who were present were greatly interested and enjoyed the talk. The L. T. L. is the foundation of the temperance cause and greater interest should be taken in that organization.

HOTEL FOR SALE.

Newell House. Just renovated all through inside and in good condition. Part cash, balance on easy terms. Will take good land in trade. JOHN SYVERSON, Cooperstown, N. D.

The W. C. T. U. meet with Mrs. Blackwell this afternoon. Important business. 4 1/2 gallon keg, good table syrup only $1.48 at Jameson & Olson. Phone 135. The New Store.

Lyman Lewis and family returned to Cooperstown Monday and will become citizens of the town. Mrs. Starbird and baby came with them and will remain for a couple of months.

DR. L. S. PLATOU, of Valley City, graduate of Christiania University, Norway, will be in Cooperstown Oct. 28th and 29th for the purpose of practicing his profession. Regular visits last Friday and Saturday of each month.

Hon. E. T. Burke, candidate for judge addressed an audience at the opera house last Tuesday evening on the issues of the campaign. Mr. Burke is a pleasing speaker and put in his time talking national politics. A republican club was fully organized after the meeting with forty odd members. Theo. Thompson was elected president; M. G. Evenson and Dr. Westley vice-presidents; O. D. Purinton secretary and A. Garborg, treasurer.

John O'Meara was arrested last Sunday on complaint of Emil Marquardt on a charge of threatening his life. It appears that the man had stated that he would kill Mr. Marquardt and he had been flourishing a loaded revolver around too prominently. His case came up before Justice Reरिक Monday and he was bound over to the district court $500 bonds being demanded which he could not produce. It is thought by some that Mr. O'Meara was not entirely accountable for his actions and the board of insanity may examine him.

LOST—One large grey shawl, between Syverson's Store and R. S. Workmans. Finder please leave at COURIER office.

Rev. H. F. Josephson, of Winona, Minn., who accepted a call from the Zion Free Church south of town, to become its pastor has now arrived and taken charge of his duties here. He is now moving into his house in town on Lenham Avenue, known as the Urquhart house, where he will reside with his family. Rev. Josephson is well known among the Scandinavians around Cooperstown and needs no introduction. He is a hard worker, an able speaker and a conscientious man, and therefore a desirable addition to our town.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, is narrated by John Oliver of Philadelphia, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters: to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents, and guaranteed to give satisfaction, at H. H. Bateman's drug store.

Expectations as to the wheat crop ran high during early fall—then were dashed to the ground as it were—now we find that returns are quite good after all, and feel thankful for the result. The future is always uncertain so far as financial returns are concerned. It is well to have something put away to meet emergencies. Put your reserve in the bank where it is well guarded and will cause you less anxiety than if you had it sewed in a mattress. THE STATE BANK will take care of your savings, large or small, and will pay you interest on time deposits. It is also well provided with funds for loans on approved paper.

Go to FIRST NATIONAL BANK for your Farm Loans.

Jamestown high school team will play our school girls basket ball team here Saturday October 22nd. Our girls expect to win but they certainly will have to play as the Jamestown girls have a strong team.

Gone Estray.

Dr. Dunham, the Fargo veterinary, was up yesterday, looking up some cases of cattle scab.

Editor Arbogast was up from Hannaford yesterday looking after business matters. We were favored with a brief visit.

One mouse colored mule, weight about 1050 pounds, 6 years old, had leather halter on with a long rope attached. A reasonable reward will be given to the party sending information to B. A. Thorsgard, Courtenay, N. D.

Chester P. Abbott, who has been a school teacher of Griggs county for some time, went suddenly insane last Sunday and was at once taken in charge by the officials. The board of insanity acted on his case Tuesday and he was committed to the asylum at Jamestown. Mr. Abbott received a heavy blow on his head some time ago and it is thought that might have something to do with his trouble. The COURIER hopes that with proper treatment Mr. Abbott will soon recover.

A Great Sensation.

There was a big sensation in Leesville, Ind., when W. H. Brown of that place, who was expected to die, had his life saved by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. He writes: "I endured insufferable agonies from Asthma but your New Discovery gave me immediate relief and soon thereafter effected a complete cure. Similar cures of Consumption, Pneumonia, Bronchitis and Grip are numerous. It's the peerless remedy for all throat and lung troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed by H. H. Bateman, druggist. Trial bottles free.

$100,000 to loan on farm land. First National Bank of Cooperstown.

For Sale Cheap.

Residence on Burrell Ave., known as the Fiero house. Inquire of A. M. Baldwin.

Teachers' Examination.

The next regular state teachers' examination will be held at the court house in Cooperstown, Friday and Saturday, Oct. 28 and 29, 1904.

Applicants should provide themselves with pen and ink. Paper will be furnished. Those having to take only partial examinations must be present at the set for the subject on which they are required to write.

Examinations begins promptly at 9 o'clock a. m. Friday.

CLARA FEIRING, Supt. of Schools.

A thoughtful Man.

M. M. Austin, of Winchester, Ind. knew what to do in the hour of need. His wife had such an usual case of stomach and liver trouble, physicians could not help her. He thought of and tried Dr. King's New Life Pills and she got relief at once and was finally cured. Only 25c at H. H. Bateman's Drug Store.

OBITUARY.

Mr. John J. Johnson, an old settler who lives nine miles east of town died last Thursday night after a prolonged illness caused by cancer with which he had been a sufferer for the last six years. He bore the sufferings with patience and was always content with his lot.

Decased was born in Gudbrandalen, Norway, 71 years ago and together with his wife came to this country in 1888 to his son Andrew, with whom he has made his home ever since. He leaves six children to mourn his departure. The children are: Isaac Johnson, who lives in Norway; Andrew Johnson and Mrs. Halvor Thoreson, both of Steele Co.; Ole C. Johnson, Griggs Co.; Mrs. Ed. Barnes, Trail Co.; Mrs. O. Bakke, Rolette, Co.

The funeral services were held in Ness Lutheran church last Sunday afternoon, and the remains were interred in that cemetery. Rev. E. T. Siness preaching the funeral sermon.
