LOCAL NEWS-

Mrs. J. Stevens has an ad. in this issue of the paper. Read it.

Lost—At the opera house last Friday night, a pair of child's spectacles in black leather case. Finder please return to this office.

John L. Houghton has recently built a very neat barn for Editor Rearick, who has purchased a driving team and is getting in shape to enjoy life this coming summer.

Neal D. Wasem, who used to play ball with Hope and Cooperstown a few years ago, was in the city Monday. He has not been here for eight years and notices a big change.

Fred Sinclair's portly form was around town last Monday. He had dropped in from Portal and was putting in time visiting relatives and old friends, and he has a lot of them in this section.

The new machinery warehouse for the Farmers Blacksmith & Supply Company will be 32x60 and the frame work is up and enclosed. The company expects to double the size of the building later as the business increases.

The Fair Association will meet today in adjourned session for the purpose of electing officers for the ensuing year. All stock holders should make it a point to be present as it is a matter of great importance to the association.

Foreman Peterson, of the Binford Times, was a visitor to Cooperstown last Monday and like all printers feels more at home in a printing office, so he called on the COURIER, set some type, and enjoyed himself. Come in again, old man.

P. E. Nelson has been making some great improvements in his hardware store spring and now has a very fine display room. He will also put in a nice new plate glass front and when completed will have one of the finest hardware stores in the state.

A. M. Baldwin returned home Tuesday after putting in a few weeks touring the West Indies. He also took in the president's inaugural March 4 at Washington. He had a most delightful trip and his only regret is that he is not going to do it over again.

Erick Erickson, the old pioneer machine man; has a new ad. in this paper, in which he calls attention to his line of farm machinery, gas engines, vehicles, etc. He handles a fine line and can sell you anything you want, the best to be obtained, at right prices.

T. R. Jones and Charley Platt returned last Tuesday from western North Dakota, where they had been picking up a bunch of horses. While out there they visited President Roosevelt's old ranch at Medora and T. R. threw his hat up in the air and did the honors right.

Alexander Cameron, Ph. D., lectured in the Baptist church last Monday night on "How the world looks to a blind man." His lecture is said to have been very interesting. He has been blind for 28 years, but seems to get around remarkably well for a man totally blind. His experiences are well worth listening to.

Mrs. E. S. Hamilton and Mrs. E. J. Crawford entertained 26 lady friends at Finch at the home of the former last Tuesday afternoon from 3 to 7. The ladies certainly had a very enjoyable time and Mrs. Hartman captured the most games. No prizes were given but each lady was presented with a beautiful carnation. The refreshments were very nice and the party a great success.

Will Butler's sale last Monday was a crackerjack and Col. Winsloe succeeded in getting good prices for everything. A fine 9 months old Percheron mare colt was sold to G. W. Dyson for $107, while W. F. Moodle, of Binford, purchased a coming three years old stallion for $795 and got a bargain at that. The total receipts of the sale were $3250 and Mr. Butler is greatly pleased thereat.

Incredible Brutality

It would have been incredible brutality if Chas. F. Lemberger, of Syracuse, N. Y., had not done the best he could for his suffering son. "My boy," he says, "cut a fearful gash over his eye, so I applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve, which quickly healed it and saved his eye." Good for burns and ulcers too. Only 25c at H. H. Bateman's drug store.

Railroad Rates and Service.

The Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway, via which line there are five daily trains between St. Paul and Chicago, including the Government Fast Mail and the Pioneer Limited, has a long list of low excursion rates to points in the East and South. If you are contemplating a trip in either direction write W. B. Dixon, Northwestern Passenger Agent, St. Paul, for full particulars before arranging for tickets.

YOU CAN'T PLEASE EVERYBODY.

We do not intend to try to do this but shall not turn out work that does not SATISFY us. We shall know then that you have gotten YOUR MONEY'S WORTH.

The Colonel's Waterloo.

Colonel John M. Fuller, of Honey Grove, Texas, nearly met his Waterloo, from Liver and Kidney trouble. In a recent letter, he says: "I was dead, of these complaints, and, although I tried my family doctor, he did me no good: so I got a 50c bottle of your great Electric Bitters, which cured me. I consider them the best medicine on earth, and thank God who gave you the knowledge to make them." Sold, and guaranteed to cure Dyspepsia, Biliousness and Kidney Disease, by H. H. Bateman, druggist, at 50c a bottle.
