NAVAL BATTLE EXPECTED.

Clash Between Fleets of Rojestvensky and Togo Thought to Be Imminent.

St. Petersburg, April 5 .- News of a battle between Rojestvensky's and Togo's fleets is expected any day. There has ben an air of suppressed excitement at the admiralty for several days. This, it is learned, is caused by knowledge that Rojestvensky's ships are approaching the zone where their discovery by Togo's scouts may be expected at any

It is no longer a secret that the Russian fleet sailed from Madagascar on March 16, under orders to proceed to Vladivostok and to engage the Japanese squadron if it cannot elude them.

Rojestvensky has been 18 days on his voyage. His progress necessarily is slow, for he has a great fleet of colliers and supply toats and he must coal at sea. But at the lowest calculation he has steamed 1,800 miles to 2,100 miles of the distance between Madagascar and the Malay straits.

Togo's scouts are known to be watching outside of Singapore and Sunda straits. It is assumed naturally that they are cruising west and south of the island of Java.

It is not expected that Rojestvensky will elude Togo's scouts. It is expected that a battle will take place. All the hopes of Russia are centered in this battle.

St. Petersburg, April 3.-According to the peace reports circulated on the Bourse Saturday Russia will cede the southern portion of the Island of Sakhalin, in the North Pacific off the east coast of Asia, used as a Russian convict settlement, to Japan, and agree that Manchuria and Korea are perma nently outside a Russian sphere of influence, and the eastern Chinese railroad will be turned over to Japan for cession to China or to an international syndicate upon a consideration of $125 000 000 which Japan will accept in lieu of indemnity.

READY TO KILL CZAR.

Terrorist with Two Bombs in His Possession Gains Entrance to Tsarskoe Selo.

St. Petersburg, April 6 .- An agent of the terrorist propaganda, disguised as a colonel of Cossacks, was arrested within the czar's palace at Tsarskoe Selo on Monday. Two bombs were found on his person. Twelve agents of the secret police are under arrest, suspected of being his accomplices. Only a blunder in his disguise led to the man's arrest and the frustration of one of the most daring attempts upon the life of the czar yet made. The man was well disguised as a colonel of a Cossack regiment. He entered the place Monday on the occasion of the czar's weekly reception to the officers of the palace guard. His actions excited suspicion and it was then no. ticed that his sword was not of the kind used by the Cossacks, but was an infantry officer's weapon. Then the man was searched and a packet containing two bombs was found. The arrest of the 12 secret police agents followed.

Husband's Rheumatism, a Daughter's Nervous Prostration. "I have recommended Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to many people," said Mrs. Gossett, "because I have seen such good results, time after time, right in my own family. There are three of us who have no doubt about their merits. We do not need to take anybody's word on the subject for our own experience has taught us how well they deserve praise.

"It was just about ten years ago that I first read about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and bought my first box. I was at that time all run down, weak, nervous and without ambition. I had been doctoring all summer for malaria and stomach trouble. Everybody thought I was going into consumption, as my mother had died of that disease

"Thanks to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, I am now alive and hearty. I began to improve as soon as I began to take them, and when I had taken three boxes I was a well woman. Everyone wonders how I keep so well and am able to care for my home and six children without help.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills explain it. "My oldest girl's health began to fail when she was about fourteen. She was nervous, complained of sharp pains in her head, would get deathly sick and have to leave the school room to get fresh air to revive her. I gave some pills to her. "So, I quit coffee, and tried tea and at last cocoa. But they did not agree with me. Then I turned to Postum Coffee with the happiest results. It proved to be the very thing I needed. It not only agreed perfectly with baby and myself, but it increased the flow of my milk. My husband then quit coffee and used Postum, quickly got well of the dyspepsia with which he had been troubled. I no longer suffer from the dizziness, blind spells, pain in my heart or sour stomach. Postum has cured them.

husband to my seven-months'-old baby. It has proved to be the best hot drink we have ever used. We would not give up Postum for the best cof-fee we ever drank." Name given by Labor Commissioner Laxdal wants Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. There's a reason.

"Now we all drink Postum, from my
