HARDWARE

Cooperstown, - North Dakota.

Are you thinking about the HARVEST?

The Science of Advertising is advancing with rapid strides. Big business houses, as well as small, appreciating its great value; make of it a distinct department placed in charge of the brightest men obtainable.

These men are no longer contented with ordinary type display; but demand special illustrations and embellishments; these the printer must be able to supply AND WE CAN, or the trade will go elsewhere.

The example here and in our previous papers go to show how matter can be written up to an illustration and how much such illustrations attract the eye.

If you want to reap a good harvest, and rake in the business that is your due, don't cling to obsolete methods.

New type and new decorative material furnish the best whetstone for your scythe.

Shatesbury's Retort.
When a member of a church congress at Manchester argued that the introduction of the custom of cremation would endanger belief in the resurrection of the dead the reply of Lord Shatesbury silenced any further doubt when he asked, "What, then, has become of the holy martyrs who were cremated?"

The Fountain of Youth.
Mr. Jones—My daughter is only eighteen. You had better wait until she is older. The Lover—Well, I've waited two years for her to get older, but she still stays at eighteen.—Judge.

The Usual Cause.
"Reggie, can you spell kitten?"
"No, mother."
"But what do you go to school for?"
"Only cause you make me, mother," said Reggie sadly.

What makes life dreary is the want of motive.

Distinction in Terms.
Binks—Skinner tells me he is going into Catchem's law office as a partner. Jinks—Doesn't he mean as an accomplice?—Cincinnati Commercial Tribune.

The Pleasant Smile.
It is a grand gift to be able to smile as the pleasant man or woman smiles. It is not the stereotyped "duty smile" of society; it is not the patronizing smile of careless tolerance nor the painful smile of bored politeness.

The Last Recourse.
"No work," said the man gloomily, "and not a thing in the house to eat. What shall we do?"
"There is nothing for us to do," replied his wife, "but to take in boarders."—Philadelphia Ledger.

The brightest blaze of intelligence is of incalculably less value than the smallest spark of charity.—Nevins.

Conspirators.
It will surprise many to know that Washington Irving was a confessed orchard thief. Once, while picking up an apple in his own orchard, he was accosted by an urchin of the neighborhood, who, not recognizing him as the proprietor, offered to show him a tree where he could get some better apples than those.

"But," said the boy, "we must not let the old man see us."
"I went with him," said Irving, "and we stole about a dozen or two of my own apples and then went shares."

Thank You.
"Thanks" is a miserable expression commonly used by persons who have not had the advantages of good breeding. Every favor received and civility shown deserves to be recognized, and the smallest acknowledgment the recipient can make is to say or write, "Thank you." The vulgarity of "Thanks" is on a par with the postal card correspondence.

Mistakes.
When you make a mistake, don't look back at it long. Take the reason of the thing into your own mind and then look forward. Mistakes are lessons of wisdom. The past cannot be changed. The future is yet in your power.—Hugh White.

Kind Words.
A word of kindness is saying as easily lost as the pearls slipping from a broken stream.—Prentice.

A Forecast.
She—Dearest, we'll have a lot to contend with when we are married. He (absently)—Yes; we'll have each other.—Milwaukee Wisconsin.

He alone has energy who cannot be deprived of it.—Lavater.
