The baroness still directs the affairs of her large estate as rumored that she even contemplates a trip to the United States.

The patriotic American who desires to achieve notoriety as a mountain climber need not go to the Alps, for in the ascent of Mt. Hood, the loftiest peak of the Cascade mountains, which extend north and south across Oregon and Washington for 130 miles, he will find an ample outlet for his ambitions. Mt. Hood reaches an elevation of over 11,000 feet, thus ranking among the high peaks of the world.

French physicians say that epidemic cerebro-spinal meningitis, otherwise spotted fever, is not by any means a newly discovered disease, but has been exhaustively studied for over 60 years. In 1837 the malady broke out at Bayonne among two regiments of the line, which, being removed to other garrisons, spread the epidemic. Spotted fever is of short duration, and dies down on the return of sunshine and warmth.

The tippling habit is growing among the American people, according to figures of the bureau of statistics. The nation's drink bill has increased during the last year so that each of the 81,752,000 inhabitants is spending on an average of $18.33 annually for stimulants, or $91.65 for each family of five persons, which is an equivalent of one glass of beer a day for every one of the population. The use of whisky increased from 1.01 gallons for each person in 1896 to 1.48 gallons in 1904. The consumption of wine in the same period shows a gain of 100 per cent.

Great Britain is ctively engaged in strengthening her coast defenses in Western Canada by building a new fort at Esquimalt, B. C. The "war in the far East" has enforced the withdrawal of the entire Pacific squadron from the Canadian coast in order to protect English holdings along the east coast of Asia. This left the British waters in Puget Sound unprotected except for a fort at Esquimalt, which was armed with guns more or less obsolete. Esquimalt is situated on the inner end of the entrance to Puget

The anti-Shea lead ers in this committee practically have voted to depose the leader. A "trial" has been held and President Shea has been found guilty of violating the constitution and by laws of the teamsters' organization. There is no appeal from the action of the international committee. It is planned to announce the finding of "guilty" soon and to declare the office of president vacant until Shea's successor shall be elected at Philadelphia in August.

The specific charge of calling a strike contrary to the constitution and making expenditures of the brotherhood's money contrary to the terms of the constitution and by-laws, is what President Shea was "tried" upon.
