A Slugging Match.

The local ball team went to Binford last Friday to play a return game with the Binfordites and the way the fielders were kept going was a caution. Grangard opened the game with a hit to third and was out at first, the next two up struck out. This inning lent to great cheering of the Binford fans as they thought they had Cooperstown on the run, and after Binford had made two scores to the locals goose egg great was the rejoicing in the Binford Camp. However to even things up a trifle, Cooperstown scored three runs in their half by two hits and a noble bunch of errors. From this on Binford only got one run until the 7th when they got 3 which left the score 6 to 7 in favor of the locals, Cooperstown having made three in the 5th. Then came goose eggs until the fatal ninth when the reds thought there ought to be something doing and fell on to Kramer, and who was badly assisted by a few errors, the locals crossed the pan for five runs and cinched the game. Batteries for Binford, Kramer and Schroder; Cooperstown, Hoar and Grangard. Struck out by Hoar 11, by Kramer 8, Hits off Hoar 8, off Kramer 9.

Score by innings.
 Cooperstown 0 3 1 0 3 0 0 0 5—12
 Binford 2 0 1 0 0 0 3 0 0—6

NOTES OF THE GAME.

↑ ↓
 The locals have graeatly improved in their batting which is pleasing to the fans.

↑ ↓
 Grangard and Dretcho each got next to Kramer for a 3 sacker.

↑ ↓
 No wonder Binford couldn't win, the Times typo wasn't in the game.

↑ ↓
 There were enough errors in the game to last the rest of the summer, Cooperstown made 4 while Binford had a total of 12.
