At Jamestown.

Merriment, enthusiasm and good humor from start to finish describes the long to be remembered trip to Jamestown last Friday. En route we visited the Sanborn school and aroused the populace to new interest in athletics. Arriving at Jamestown at 10 p. m. we were welcomed by our opposing team and their friends. Each member of our team was entertained by a James town girl. A brisk practice was held Saturday forenoon. The great event of the day, the basket ball game, was called at 3 p. m. The two teams were evenly matched. Our imperturbable guard, Clara Hammer, took her stand beside their giant forward and Grace Warner proceeded to force herself upon the attention of their other forward. Meanwhile our strenuous forward, Mary Koch, began to test her mighty opponent, while the indomitable Mabel Francis speedily disconcerted her rival for athletic prowess. Hazel Hartman and Josephine Hammer, from the advantage of their positions, as centers, deliberately tried to monopolize the attention of the rooters by four foot jumps, backward runs and other spectacular plays. Sarah Anderson and Stella Houghton did noble work encouraging the girls by vociferous rooting at the sound of which all Jamestown stood appalled. From the beginning both sides fought hard. In the first scrimmage in which both sides took their opponents measure, the Cooperstown girls took lead by four points, after which the two teams settled down to a struggle of endurance. The first half ended with a score of 13 to 12 in our favor. After ten minutes rest we again took the field and the struggle continued. Time was called twice on account of injury but after fifteen minutes the game was called a tie 24 to 24 (in favor of Cooperstown). Owing to the weariness of both teams the contest was not renewed. Miss E. Corey acted as umpire to the satisfaction of all. We were royally entertained during the entire stay. The hayrack ride to the Entertainment Hall and a dancing party on Saturday evening were features of the entertainment. Sunday also was very pleasantly spent. On our return we were received with open arms by our enthusiastic schoolmates and teachers, and after a rousing yell we settled down to our normal studious condition.

On next Friday a return game with the Jamestown girls will be played here. We are resolved not only to add new glory to Cooperstown's athletic record, but also to show our appreciation at Jamestown's generous hospitality.

Married.

At Cooperstown, N. D., Oct. 10th, 1905, by Rev. Oscar D. Purinton, Miss Gertrude Garrison to Mr. Ernest Walls, both of South Haven, Minnesota.

Wedding Bells.

A very pretty wedding occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Hagen east of town, Saturday, September 30, 1905, at 7:30 p. m. when their daughter Jennie was united in marriage to Mr. Edwin Snyder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Snyder. The wedding took place in the presence of about forty relatives and friends. Rev. O. D. Purinton in a beautiful and impressive manner spoke the words that united the destinies of the young couple. The bride was attended by her sister who acted as maid of honor. She was handsomely gowned in white silk trimmed with lace and chiffon and wore American Beauty roses in her dress and hair. The maid of honor, Miss Ida Hagan wore a becoming gown of blue and white silk. The groom and the groomsmen wore the usual black. After the ceremony the happy couple received the congratulations of relatives and friends, and then the company repaired to the dining room and sat down to a fine wedding collation. The remainder of the evening was spent in a social way.

The bride is well known young lady having grown from childhood to womanhood in this vicinity. She is a young lady of a sunny disposition and has a host of friends who wish for her a long life of happiness. The groom is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Snyder. He has lived here many years and is an upright and honorable young man. He is a farmer and the young couple have moved into their house a mile east of Mr. Hagen's where they are at home to their many friends. They were the recipients of some very handsome and useful presents. At about midnight many of the guests departed, wishing the young people a long life of usefulness and happiness.

MIKE PEDERSON, Sec. 8, 146 59.

Front Warnings.

In discussing whether or not trout bear a correspondent of the Amateur Sportsman asserts that they do not. In his opinion their sensitiveness to approaching danger is due solely to the vibration of the earth along the stream and the consequent vibration of the water. Thus persons standing perfectly still are able to talk and laugh with impunity, when the slightest bodily movement of either will frighten the shy fish.

The Real Victims.

"Was anybody punished for Graf-ton's misdeeds?"
"Yes."
"I understood he was acquitted."
"He was, but the business men on the jury lost money and missed their meals."—Washington Star.
