 Cooperstown, N. D. St. Paul, Minn.]

Remnant sale at The One Price Department Store.

Born—to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lewis, on Monday night, November 27, 1905, a baby boy. It is needless to say that Walter is about the happiest papa in Cooperstown about now, and has been passing around the cigars liberally. Dr. Brimi was in attendance and reports mother and boy doing nicely.

A new financial institution for Cooperstown is to be launched the first of the year. A Loan Company, to deal in farm mortgage, bonds, etc., backed by ample capital and with Cooperstown business men in charge is the new proposition. The Courier is not at liberty to give further particulars at present.

Married—on Tuesday morning, November 28, 1905, at the home of Mr. Fred Koch. Mr. Archie Dunstan, of Jamestown, N. D., to Miss Annie Koch, R. v. H. S. Harris, of the M. E. church performing the ceremony. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Koch while the groom is a business man of Jamestown and already has a home for his bride. The newly married couple left on Thursday for Jamestown followed by the congratulations of many friends.
