

—Herbert Langford was recovering finely from his recent accident, when on Monday the little fellow had the painful misfortune to fall and re-break his leg, that was healing so promptly.