

—In and about Cooperstown dwell in happy prosperity some sixty people from the town of St. Clair, Mich., and they all rank as our very best citizens. Having already profited so largely by St. Clair's loss it would seem that Griggs county ought to be satisfied. But no, her irresistible charms and unshaken credit in that Michigan vicinity will result in the honoring of her "draft" for nearly as many more citizens from that locality this spring.