A man up in McCook county said he could not afford to take a local paper, he was so poor, and his family needed every cent he had—which last was true—yet he paid the saloon keeper $2.75, and went home drunk late at night, with nothing for his family.—Salem Pioneer Register.

"I tell yer wot, boys," exclaimed Old Ben, the roughest man of the camp; "I tell yer wot, boys; it made a feller feel kinder watery around the lids to hear that little chit of a thing a settin' up thar like an angel sayin' her prayers so cute, 'Mary had a little lamb,' or suthin' o' that sort."—Exchange.

Wm. Birdsell, in the Salem Pioneer Register, says: "While cutting ice in a slough recently, I found thousands of young pickerel frozen in the ice. The water was about 1 1/2 or 3 feet deep in the middle, where we had dug a hole in dry weather. The mystery is, how did they get there? as the slough is a mile from any stream. They were about two inches long, and all a uniform size."

"Now," said the photographer, taking hold of the cloth over the instrument. "are you ready?" "Yes," replied the customer. "Well, just keep your eye on that sign," he said, pointing to a legend on the wall, which read, Positively No Credit, "and look pleasant."—Exchange.
