Relation Between Teeth and Brain.

Two English doctors, Leithwood and Harian, believe they have noticed that the teeth of those who devoted themselves to study undergo rapid changes, and that a period of rest retards the evil. They also put the question: Are these occurrences attributable to an over-excited brain, whose excessive stimulation makes it assimilate to itself those phosphatic elements which would otherwise go to nourish the teeth, or, rather, is this decay of the teeth due to a low state of health produced by over-work? Comparing together numerous facts obtained by different isolated observations, they concluded that if the brain be over-stimulated by work, the excess of phosphorus which it then consumes can only be gained at the expense of those organs which require this substance for their development, as the bones and the teeth.—Ex.

Great Scheme.

Pat Joyce, of New York, says: "Let Gladstone meet Rossa, representing the dynamiters, on some neutral ground, say Cuba, and come to an understanding. In his paper Rossa submits a plan for firing London. It is to locate fifty men or women in lodging houses circling three or four squares, and to have them fire the lodging houses all at the same time.

J. M. Freer, of Wheatland, lost a valuable mule, Sunday. The ungrateful animal seemed to be enjoying life, when, all of a sudden, in spite of the fact that Mr. Freer had had the same trick played on him lately by other mules, he waltzed over to the bourne from whence no mules nor men return, without a sigh of regret, and with a bad case of the colic.

Mrs. Charles Tracey, of Kingsbridge, Ky., has become the mother of the smallest "midget" born this century. The child weighs eleven ounces, is six inches in stature, its body can be encircled by the thumb, index finger of a fourteen-year-old child, and its head is about the size of a large marble, or less than an inch in diameter.

Near the village of Richmond, Mo., lives David Whitner, one of the three men who testified on oath that they beheld the Angel of the Lord bring down the plates from which the Book of Mormon was written and deliver them into the hands of Joseph Smith the Mormon prophet.

The Rev. Joseph Cook says if Mormonism is let alone for twenty-five years it will control every state west of the Mississippi river, excepting California and Oregon.
