Official Paper of Griggs County

Congress was memorialized by the legislature this winter to provide us with a new judicial system. It is to be hoped that Delegate Gifford will press the bill introduced by Mr Raymond.

The expression, attributed to Vest, as to attaching the Red River valley to the "Bloody Fifth," originated in a joke of W. A. Kindred in a Washington letter.

Knute Nelson has declined a Minnesota judgeship. It is alleged that his declination was caused by an apprehension at John McDermott's. that C. F. Kindred had his eyes on the "Bloody Fifth."

One ton of Heart river coal is said to go as far as two cords of cottonwood, and make as much dirt; soft coal has been discovered at Britton; anthracite is claimed north of Watertown; while Cooperstown has, in the Lenham well, the only vein of illuminating gas in the territory. The gas burned freely, and, until the casing shut it off, flowed steadily, with enough of it to supply all the buildings in town.
