Additional Locals.

—We print an extra edition this week.
—Julius Stevens returned from his Minnesota trip, Wednesday.

The short, mellow song of the meadow lark is heard everywhere in the land.

—R. C. Cooper is at the head of his harrow and seeder brigade. He expects an even dollar for every bushel of No 1., hard.

E. L. Craw and Mr. H. Johns visited Cooperstown Saturday, the latter gentleman purchasing the farm of Wm. Glass, about three miles from town.

In the rise in wheat April 9th, several local dealers in wheat and flour at Minneapolis made from ten to twenty thousand dollars. C. A. Pillsbury & Co. made $125,000.

—Mr. H. Retzlaff presents us with some fine pickerel from Red Willow lake. His party succeeded in capturing 200 pounds of fine fish one day last week, by the skillful use of the shot gun.

Another Indian massacre at Frog Lake. The settlers were invited into the Indian camp and shot down. Nearly all the government posts in the extreme west are supposed to have been captured by Riel.

James Gimblett was married to Miss Laura Langford, Tuesday evening. The ceremony was performed at the residence of the brides parents by Rev. Simmons, assisted by Rev. F. M. Rockwell.

Miss Martha Buhre departed for Cooperstown, Dak., on Saturday morning, where she will spend the summer for the benefit of her health. We know that the climate will do her good, for we have the word of our old friend, Dr. G. F. Newell, that there isn't its equal on the top of God's green earth.—Geneva (Wis.) Herald.

Valley City Notes.

A half-breed in the Barnes county jail is alleged to have the hydrophobia because he has an aversion to water. If this is a sure sign, the death rate in Dakota this year will be enormous.

A stable in the rear of P. O. King's furniture store was badly scorched Monday.

J. J. Dobbin is about as able an editorial writer as there is in this section.

Bertie, son of Mayor Weiser died Monday of consumption.

Mr. F. H. Remington, who was arrested for buying votes last election, has been discharged from custody. Rem. thinks, inasmuch as he did not get elected to any great extent, it is rather rough to be accused of corruption.

Ed. Vallandigham has gone east for a visit.

Dazey Items.

Dazey, April 14.—Mr. W. B. Frederick, of Sanborn, allowed the light of his countenance to shine on the Dazeyites last Thursday.

Mr. D. B. Berlin returned last Friday evening from Pennsylvania.

Nick Flagler spent a few days of last week in Davenport, looking after his farming interest there.

Mr. A. L. Ensign returned last Saturday from York state, and to the disappointment of his friends, came alone.

Nelson Bros., owners of the Dazey farm, have been up prospecting, and have selected a site in the suburbs for a private residence.

Rev. J. W. Donaldson, of Sanborn, preached a sermon in Dazey last Thursday evening to a comparatively large congregation.

Col. Baker, we observe, has become a permanent resident of our town, with the exception of his seemingly unavoidable weekly visits to the country. The fair unknown must be very fastidious, judging from the colonel's appearance Sundays.

Mr. Thos. Knudson has returned with a car load of stock, from Wisconsin, where he has been spending the winter.

Mrs. Nelson, mother of Mrs. Otto Holman, has arrived from Wisconsin, intending, we believe, to reside here.

Thorough Bred.

Two of the best thorough bred stallions ever in Dakota will be at Davis & Pickett's barn about the 22d of April.
