Russia's Motive For War.
 From the Philadelphia Evening Telegraph.
 One evident and powerful reason why Russia should urge war does not come to the surface in the present entanglements, but it is a most decided factor in the problem. At least as much of a motive as Indian conquest is the desire of the throne and the nobility to secure themselves through the exciting of a general patriotic spirit. History has shown before now that one of the surest antidotes to internal dissension is external diversion. With all the hatred of the imperial power among a large class of Russians, there is a definite love of country which may be appealed to forego its attacks upon home interests in the face of national perils. The game, to be sure, has sometimes failed. The Nephew of his Uncle tried it and went under in the process. But it is possible Russian imperialism may be more successful. It may not conquer England, but it may quiet Nihilism and that, we may be sure, is one of its chief objects in engaging in a foreign war.

A Sad Death.
 In Philadelphia recently at a coroner's inquest over the body of a child, the jury returned a verdict that death was caused by the administration of a patent cough syrup, containing morphia. Dr. Sam'l K. Cox, of Washington, states that not one cough medicine in ten is free from this objection. After careful analyses and practical tests he endorses Red Star Cough Cure as being purely vegetable, absolutely free from opiates, poisons and narcotics. He regards it as a most happy and valuable discovery.

The new excise bill that will probably become a law of New York is now before the legislature. The bill substantially codifies the liquor law of the state, provides for the classification of licenses into beer, ale and spirituous liquor classes, makes optional on the part of the commissioners the granting or refusal of a license, but gives the right of appeal to a court of competent jurisdiction in case of a refusal to grant a license; amends the civil damage act, prohibits the sale of liquor, etc., on Sunday, imposes a penalty on corporations organized for transportation of freight and passengers for employing men of intemperate habits, and makes it a misdemeanor on the part of any commissioner who votes to grant a license in violation of any of the provisions of the act. It is declared that the bill does not extend any privileges to honest and respectable dealers.

The losses by the fire at Cahory, Ill., aggregate upwards of one hundred thousand dollars. It was not incendiary.

"Love Sees No Faults."
 it has been said; but, when a woman is dragged down, emaciated, wan, and a shadow of her former self, with never a cheerful word, she can be no longer beautiful or lovable. Nature may have been generous in her gifts, and endowed her with all the charms of her sex, but disease has crept in unawares and stolen the roses from her cheeks, the lustre from her eye, and the sunshine from her heart. But to be well again lies in your own power. Take Dr. Pierce's "Favorite Prescription," it will cure you; thousands have been cured by it. Nothing equals it for all the painful maladies and weaknesses peculiar to women. Price reduced to one dollar. By Druggists.
