

SUPPLEMENT.

Offensive Partisanship.

President Cleveland refuses to appoint James Ryan postmaster at Appleton because he is publisher of a partisan democratic newspaper—that the administration is daily removing partisan republican editors and the postmaster general and the president will not knowingly appoint a man to a postoffice who is connected with a partisan newspaper.—Exchange.

If the above item is correct, Mr. Cleveland has introduced a reform that will certainly temper the heat of future political controversies; and result in much good, if his example is followed.

Mr. Ed. Siegfried, of Sanborn, came to town last evening.

The Dakota department of the St. Paul Globe is much improved lately. It has lost its peculiar tone.

John Ole presented us yesterday with a bunch of wheat, from the farm of farmer Frost, 28 inches in height.

Editor Vallandigham, of the Democrat spent yesterday in the city, returning to Valley City this morning.

Charles Nelson, of Dazey, came in and paid his subscription for two years, and got his Farm, Stock & Home. Mr. Nelson is one of Barnes county's prosperous settlers, and director of Wheatland school township.

At Pinkerton's old grove, on the raging Sheyenne, July Fourth, an all day and all night bowery dance will be had. Supper and breakfast furnished at the Pinkerton house. Platform 40x60. Good music. Supper and breakfast and dance ticket, $2 per couple.

Henry Ward Beecher rejects the idea of "original sin," and supplants the torments of hell with "annihilation." While Mr. Beecher, and Mr. Ingersoll, are both good citizens, Ingersoll appears the better Christian. He assaults Christianity from without.

Wells, Cellars and Cisterns Dug by Allen & Sanders, in the quickest and neatest manner,—in town or country. Enquire at Palace hotel.

BERG & LARSON

Sole agents in Griggs county for the McCormick Binder!

and

RECIPROCATOR

and

AMES STRAW BURNER

We will this fall show the farmers an entire change of programme, and a revolution in the threshing and cutting of grain.

The McCormick Binder is acknowledged to be the best machine in the world. We will cheerfully match it against any machine that is manufactured, for strength, lightness of draft, simplicity and perfect action. Buy no other, or you will regret it.

The Reciprocator Thresher has never been equaled; and the Ames Straw Burner is the only straw burner that is used by men who understand the business. We are practical threshers, and we know whereof we speak. Call and see us.
