Yankton Press: Captain Brooks, who is always experimenting in the agricultural line, has found, after a thorough test, that the yellow locust of the Pennsylvania mountains is the best of all timber to grow in Dakota. He has a thousand young trees in progress and has sent for a supply of seed which he will plant this summer. The yellow locust attains a height of fifteen feet in two years, from seed. In seven years it is large enough for fence posts, and for this use it has no equal.

Death of Maj. P. S. Buell.

Maj. P. S. Buell, who was living ill of heart disease, at the Palace for several weeks, died last Sabbath afternoon at 8 o'clock. Mr. Buell had been a resident of Griggs county for more than a year, coming here from New York state. He was in his seventy-fourth year; he leaves a wife, and one son—Mr. W. P. Buell, of Minneapolis, traveling for the American Whip Co., Mass. The remains of deceased were buried in the Cooperstown cemetery, on last Tuesday afternoon.

The contract for carrying the mail from Cooperstown to Lee was sub-let to Mr. Knud Thompson. The mail will leave Cooperstown on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, making the round trip each day. Mr. Carney Hegge is the mail carrier on this route. Mr. Thompson also secured the Cooperstown-Tower City route—mail days not yet set. Passengers will be carried on both routes.

Messrs. H. Retzlaff, Brophy, Blackwell, Crane, Cox, and Buchheit left for Devils Lake this morning. They will fourth in the City of the Lake and return home Monday. They are equipped for fishing and hunting, and the boarders at the Union house will have a banquet on the return of the party.

Stevens & Pickett are to be congratulated upon having secured the agency for the well known Corbin Banking company of New York. The company has a vast amount of money to loan, and if Messrs. Stevens & Pickett don't accommodate their customers, it will be because the security is a trifle attenuated.

Attorney Jacobson was in Valley City Monday.
