COURT NOTES.

In the Wass case the jury returned a verdict of guilty, with a recommendation to mercy.

Another case, of a similar drift, against defendant Quine, for felonious assault, is on trial.

The Pease bond case, and other important cases, can not be reached this term, which closes to-morrow.

Several school district officers have been indicted for frauds.

In the Wass case, several tilts between the judge and Messrs. Green and Stone, the defendant's counsel, have lightened up the gloom.

Judge Francis, while a very agreeable gentleman off the bench, while engaged in the trial of cases is so nervous as often to perplex and worry the attorneys. Patience, in a judge, is an indispensable requisite. An attorney should speak a thousand words, while the judge should speak but one. We have no doubt but that the judge will work off his superfluous energy after while, and give better satisfaction. His removal has been urged; but it is the opinion of those who have examined into the matter, that he can be removed only by impeachment; so the lawyers might better conciliate than "buck agin" his honor.

Remember, the Haggood, 16-inch Sulky Plow runs lighter than a 14-inch walking plow. For sale by Knud Thompson.

The Gull River Lumber company have an enormous stock of dry lumber on hand.

The ladies of Griggs County will all make an effort to call at H. S. Picketts furniture rooms where they learn that he has just received a car load of extra fine goods.

Only a few Plano Binders left. Call early. The best farmers will buy no other. The Plano is the strongest and simplest binder made, and no horse killer. Knud Thompson.

Knud Thompson wishes to whisper a word of warning in the ear of the gentle granger. Let not the sun go down before you visit his warehouse at Cooperstown and secure the only string you have on the elusive dollar. He buys his twine direct from the manufacturers and can sell it for what it costs other firms, and still get rich. Twine may be short in Dakota this year.

The Gull River Lumber company deal in the best building material only. Marblehead lime is like Portland cement—unequaled. Always in stock at the yard.

School bonds and warrants taken in exchange for school furniture. School houses built and bonds or warrants taken in payment.

Cash customers will do well to examine our prices on groceries. We do not sell tomatoes or sugar at cost, as a bait, but will sell groceries at the smallest living profit for the cash. John Syverson & Co.
