Knud Thompson bought a handsome Arabian for family driving, Monday. After supper he oiled up the buggy dusted the harness, and told the babies to be patient and he would take them out to see their grandmother He harnessed the pretty beast, and commenced to start. He just commenced. The boys laughed. "Yes, he is a little lazy he seems tired like-whoop-get uphit him with the sled stake, I've broke the whip-knock him down again-he's smashed one shaft-where is Michaels -does anybody want to buy a horse-blankety blank the blank blank-knock him down once more-now we go-he is afraid of so many Yankees and Dutchmen, and he don't like Norwegians-is there a Indian in the crowd-cr-r-rack! smash-here goes the other shaft." And he staid there flat on his sides for an hour, while the assembled multitude paddled him with clubs. Finally, he laid back one ear, winked his game eye at Knud, as if he had enjoyed every minute of the fun, and got up and walked back to the stable, as if nothing had happened. Peterson's Magazine for September opens with a very beautiful steel engraving, from a picture in the last Paris salon, "The Drink at the Spring," but contains in addition a mammoth colored fashion plate, besides some other illustrations, chiefly for the fashions, the work table, ets. The stories are remarkably good, even for Peterson. It seems to us to fulfill all the requirements of a lady's book, and at a price that places it within the reach of all-viz: two dollars a year for a single copy, with great reductions to clubs. Address, Charles J. Peterson, 306 Chestnut street, Philadelphia.—Adv. The dramatic and musical entertainment, under the auspices of the Literary society, will take place on the 27th inst. The minor drama The Obstinate Family, and the capital farce Ice on Parle Francais will be presented with a good caste and complete orchestra. Several vocalists of ability will assist in the entertainment. It will be the event of the season. Reserved seats can be procured at Whidden's. Admission, 35cts., children, 25 cts. No extra charge for reserved seats. The final game between the New York and Chicago base ball clubs was played in New York last Monday. The local nine had everything its own way from the start and out-played its opponents at every point. Anson's team received the worst defeat it has had this year. Kelly once got to second base. New York, 12; Chicago, none.

The steamer Soalendi from Auckland. New Zealand, arrived at San Francisco Monday, having on board Maxwell, the alleged St. Louis hotel murderer. Maxwell said his true name was Dangier, a native of Paris, thirty-four years old. his alleged victim, but beyond this was very reticent concerning the crime with which he is charged.

Take Notice.

The Reciprocator thresher will win every premium in contests this fall; and while it sells for the same price, is worth 100 per cent more than any other machine, in durability, economy in sav-ing wheat and cost of running. In fact, it is the best thresher on wneels, and we can prove it by the operation of the machine itself. Falk is talk, but it takes a thresher to starve straw-stack chickens. Berg & Larson.
