Andrew Johnson has opened a general store in the Nelson building on Burrell avenue.

F. H. Adams, returned home from the fair on last evening's train.

Hon. Julius Stevens returned from his Fair trip, Monday. Reports a very pleasant trip.

Mrs. Zimmerman's singing school is proving very successful as an educator and a social feature.

The M. S. R. R. commissioners, with General Manager Odell, made a flying trip over our road last week.

Rev. Jordan will preach in the school house next Sabbath morning, and at Fenner's school house in the afternoon, at 3 o'clock.

Andrew Johnson was presented with a brand new daughter last Tuesday morning. This makes three children for him—and their birthdays occur on the same day in the year. Andrew has been figurin', and says he will see that this little coincidence doesn't happen again.

The Ladies of the Congregational church met Wednesday evening for their usual missionary meeting, and as a special feature served as fine a chicken supper as ever made a man dream of sheol, after he had gone to sleep thanking his stars for the shirtless and beighted Hottentot. The ladies entertained their gentlemen guests royally, and the society's exchequer was increased $15, in consequence.

Thursday evening a double team driven by Sheriff Pinkerton, ran off. The neck yoke strap broke letting the pole drop to the ground; the horses became frightened and started, the pole broke in the center; the buggy riz like, and the sheriff of Griggs county went backwards, head first, landing on his shoulder, which was considerably bruised.

In the announcement of Edwin Bradley's marriage we were in error as to the place where the ceremony was performed. Mr. Breed says that the couple were not married at his house. It appears that they were kind of secretly married in town, unbeknown to the relatives of the girl.
