Additional Locals

Harry Wasser drives the best team in town.

Pickert Bros. lost 75 acres of wheat by prairie fire, Sunday.

W. W. Newell, wife and family, went to Champagne, Ills., Tuesday morning. They will return in the spring.

Whidden Bros. are prepared to pay you 5 cents per bushel over the market for 20,000 bushels of wheat this month.

Miss Lulu Lenham drove up from Sanborn Tuesday, returning on the train, Wednesday.

Whidden Bros. are stocking up for Fall trade, and are just opening a fine line of Staple Dry Goods, Boots and Shoes, etc. Notions, clothing, etc., to arrive in a few days.

Postmaster Barnard lost 100 acres of wheat by hail. Nevertheless, in his entire field of 400 acres he expects 20 bushels to the acre.

Threshing is still progressing on the Cooper farm. Mr. Cooper, this year, is giving his personal attention to his elevator business.

A large lot of furniture just received at Whidden Bros. Bedsteads, chairs, tables, etc.

Waldo M. Potter, the veteran journalist, of the LaMoire Progress and Chronicle, was in town on business last week, and made the COURIER office a pleasant call.

A fresh stock of groceries just opened at Bowden and Buck's.

The pay car came in and made the R. R. boys happy, Monday evening. The accommodation was delayed two hours, in consequence of toting the wealth.

Parties requiring coal, at bed rock prices, in car-load lots, will do well to place their orders with E. W. Blackwell, at the Gull River Lumber Co's. office, as early as possible.

Little Rob Vallandigham didn't know why there was no school Tuesday, but he "sposed its decoration day." It was examination of teachers day.

Knud Thompson will have a car load of Stoughton wagons next week, to be sold cheap for cash. They are expected each day.

E. C. Ward says he has made all the money he wants, and now he is doing missionary business. He is selling the farmers a No. 1 calf skin, hand made, shoe for $4.00. The farmers pay the same price for split leather shoes at the stores. Mr. Ward has ordered 200 pairs of these fine uppers.

One car load of Fuller & Johnson Mfg. company's walking plows, and Casady sulky plow. Call and see them. I can show you something fine in the Fuller & Johnson mowers.

We call attention to the new card of Dr. J. A. McGuire. Dr. McGuire is a graduate of Starling Medical college at Columbus, O., and has had an extensive experience. He was located at St. Cloud, Minn., until two years ago, he he removed to Casselton, and thence here, where he has landed interests.

COAL, COAL, COAL.

In car load lots at the Gull River Lumber Company's Yard.

Just received a car load of building paper.

Just received a car load of stoves, of all description. Adams & Glass.

I have just receive a car load of flour from the Daily Roller Mills, to which I would call the attention of my customers, as it is second to none now in the country, and I want they should try it, as when once tested will have no other. You will also find a full line of the Valley City flour, and my stock being complete in all lines of the flour and feed business. My motto is "Small Profits and Quick Sales." Trusting you will not fail to call and see me before purchasing elsewhere, I am yours, truly,
GEO. W. GREENLESE.

Agriculture vs. Mining.

The change in the leading industries of California is strikingly illustrated in the Mechanics' fair, at San Francisco. A few years ago the machinery hall resounded with the din of quartz mills and other machinery devoted to mining purposes. There were amalgamators, pumps, and an infinite variety of contrivances for the extraction of the precious metals. Now there is scarcely anything to remind one that California is a mining country, except a few models of mining machinery and a handsome display of mineral specimens. There is machinery enough in the building however, but it is almost wholly of an agricultural character. This industry has displaced mining as the chief business of the state.—Ex.
