Additional Locals

Phin. and Miss Nina VanVoorhis go east next week for the winter.

Wild goose hunting seems to be on the decline.

Knud Thompson is building a stable back of his warehouse.

Geo. Clark is measuring out the letters this week.

Commissioner Rukke was in town this week.

John Cullan, who was hurt last week, has not yet resumed his performances upon the flying ladder.

Our old settlers predict a mild winter, plenty of snow, and thirty-five bushels to the acre, next season.

How about that runaway down at Helena, Mr. Goosehunter?

Sarah Bernhardt was turned out of the Congregational church, Sunday, for trotting around on all fours.

John Aaberg's photograph gallery will be completed, and in running shape, in about a week.

In the Third commissioner district, there seems to be a strong desire for a change, without any man to succeed the present commissioner from that district being selected. It will be difficult to find a better commissioner than N. C. Rukke; but if such there is we shall cheerfully admit his claims.

Premium.

To those parties sending in their subscription arrears and paying one year in advance, we will present a years subscription to the Farm, Stock and Home, a semi-monthly agricultural paper published at Minneapolis, for Minnesota, Dakota and Montana. This is much the best paper of the kind issued in the Northwest. Remember, on above conditions we present you with One Year's Subscription.

IMPORTANT NEWS.

A FEW LINES OF PLAIN ENGLISH.

We do a square, legitimate trade every day in the year, and will always accommodate you at the lowest living profits, whether you have the dollar to pay for your coffee and sugar the day you need it or not. We ignore the 7 and 8 pound Arbuckle for a dollar business, as no man can lay it down here for less than $14.75 per cwt., consequently when you get 8 pounds for a dollar, you get it 18 cents less than the wholesale price and either pay that much extra on something else, or somebody else pays it. We give 6 lbs for a dollar, and sell other groceries at the same rate of profit, some of which are much lower than formerly. We don't believe in "Robbing Peter to pay Paul." Every man is treated on the square.
