Additional Locals

Attorney Mills, of Valley City, is now confined to his bed.

Frank Hunter has been to Valley City this week in search of a horsethief.

J. H. Montgomery builds a dwelling on Burrell avenue, before snow flies.

Henry Hougen has added another story to his house, and will use it for boarders.

B. B. Brown has purchased lots near Court House square, and has broken ground, for a residence.

Mr. White, the tinner, will erect a comfortable dwelling in the Twenty-third ward, at once.

This evening the ladies of Christ's Episcopal church, at Sanborn, give a fair. It promises to be the most complete thing of the kind ever held in this section.

N. J. Olson, formerly of the N. P. elevator, and Wm. Stowe, formerly with Covey & Brown, have opened up a general store in the Senate building, Sanborn.

The man with the machine to "test your strength" has been in town. Al. Pinkerton strikes a blow that knocks the indicator silly.

IMPORTANT NEWS.

A FEW LINES OF PLAIN ENGLISH.

We do a square, legitimate trade every day in the year, and will always accommodate you at the lowest living profits, whether you have the dollar to pay for your coffee and sugar the day you need it or not. We ignore the 7 and 8 pound Arbuckle for a dollar business, as no man can lay it down here for less than $14.75 per cwt., consequently when you get 8 pounds for a dollar, you get it 18 cents less than the wholesale price and either pay that much extra on something else, or somebody else pays it. We give 6 lbs for a dollar, and sell other groceries at the same rate of profit, some of which are much lower than formerly. We don't believe in "Robbing Peter to pay Paul." Every man is treated on the square.
