Around Town.

C. E. Blackwell made us a pleasant call, Wednesday.

W. H. Cram, the cigar man, was in town Wednesday.

J. E. Dabler, the Reliance Binder man, is in town, making collections.

O. B. Judd, Ripon, Wis.; S. S. Thorsen, St. Paul; were in town, Monday.

Geo. Brown, the liquor man, was the displaying his samples, Wednesday.

F. Greenland is another pioneer who has paid up his subscription this week.

Eight thousand bushels of wheat were marketed at Cooperstown, Monday.

Canton is to have a flax mill, and the manufacture of tow is to be commenced in a few days.

F. M. Byrne, special agent Fargo Insurance company, has been in town this week, adjusting hail losses.

B. A. Clausen has opened up the new drug store. C. G. Lande, the jeweler, now occupies part of the store.

What has become of our roller rink? We expected to see some divorce cases on the calendar at the next term of court.

Geo. W. Greenleese sold all his flour and feed, "smick, smack, smooth," last week, and is just getting a fresh supply.

There was a dance at Fenner's, west of town, Thursday evening. H. Retzlaff, John Regnery, Harry Blow, John McDermott and Jo. Buchheit, and their ladies, were among the guests.

Mrs. W. H. Carleton and Mrs. J. H. Vallandigham, two of Cooperstown's most charming and accomplished ladies, honored the Courthouse office with a call, Tuesday.

Every body is expected to be present at the concert the 19th inst. A special train will run on the branch, and it is expected that the largest audience known to the court house will be on deck.

Mrs. Chas. Husel, of Cooperstown, Dak., has returned to stop during the winter with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Husel, in China township.—Marine City (Mich) Reporter.

John Carlson, is the boss carpenter on the Norwegian Methodist church. Rev. C. L. Westberg is displaying some practical christianity by doing manual labor on the building. The church will be in a semi-gothic style, and costs $1,500.

The lumber has been purchased of Maynard Crane for the Norwegian M. E. church, and the building will be pushed to completion without delay. It will be located on the side of Gethsemane Hill, near R. M. Cowen's residence.

Mrs. Zimmerman, at "our boarding house," wishes to purchase a cow,—not for her contour, color, or good disposition; but for her milk,—not milk peddlers' milk, which is blue and sour, but milk of an opaqueness which hides the dirt on the bottom of the can, and on which the cream will rise betimes in the morning. Any body having a good cow can get cash for her.

Jack Smith, the man with the reversible nose, spent the evening before his departure in playing freeze-out for the drinks. He also jumped a ten dollar board bill, and the doctor bill. Just the same, he carried away $20 and the fine ticket to St. Paul, which a few clumps gave him. We regret to say we were one of the clumps. If the Devil, himself, came to Cooperstown and exhibited his cloven foot, some good natured person would be found to start a subscription for him, "because he was a cripple, you see."

Whidden Bros. are prepared to pay you 5 cents per bushel over the market for 20,000 bushels of wheat this month.
