 Mrs. Zimmerman desires that all the members of her vocal music class meet her at the Congregational church next Tuesday evening, at 8 o'clock, sharp.

C. H. Moseley, the substantial farmer of Helena, went to Michigan, for the winter, Tuesday. He will probably come back with some good company.

Sheriff Pinkerton lost his rubbers, while catching the train at Dazey. The finder will be liberally rewarded if he will keep them, as they are about played out.

The Fargo convention commenced operations Tuesday. Messrs. Adams and Jacobson, the delegates from Griggs county, departed for the scene of the pow-wow, so as to be on deck, Wednesday.

Courier Man—Who wants any more of your old beer. It's sour, any how.

Harry Blow—Who wants any more of your old COURIER. You can just stop my ad.

C. A. Ellison has sold out The Home to Frank Scougale and D. D. McFadgen, both of whom are among our most popular caterers, and they propose to make The Home the most popular resort in the city—V. C. Times.

Monday morning the shrill cry of fire was raised on the street; and supposed to have been at Adams' hardware store. It seems that Johnny White went up to stir the fire for his pa, and tipped over the stove. No harm done; but every boarder in the Palace hotel was down stairs in his shirt—disturbance. The boarders all have private fire escapes now.

Allan Pinkerton went to Frazee City, Tuesday, to yank the Bradley team, on which W. R. Whidden had a mortgage. Bradley traded his light team for a pair big farm horses, which he said were "as fat as seals." He was tickled to death with the trade, until he discovered that his "seals" were wind broken, and couldn't travel over a hundred yards without falling down, and reposing until they recovered their second wind.

Hail Insurance.

The by-laws of the Farmers' Mutual, of Griggs county, were adopted at a meeting of the farmers interested. The following board of directors was elected: John Hogenson, Mark Sutherland, Wm. McCulloch, F. D. Fenner, Dubois Newell, S. P. Langford, F. Greenland, D. Sinclair, Andrew Johnson.

The board will meet next Saturday, January 16th to elect a president, vice-president, secretary, and treasurer.

Gallatin Items.

Among Gilbertson's $400 team ran away recently. Nobody injured; but one of his horses fractured his shoulder, so bad as to lay it up for some time.

The quail are still here, and have their quarters under a certain strawstack.

Your correspondent recently saw an eagle. This is a sign that winter is not set in for good.

The feed mill, on the Sheyenne, is in full operation.

Won't some enterprising man put up a grist mill here. The finest site in the world.

The Nimrods were out hunting jack-rabbits the other day. They got one after shooting six times with a shot gun; and captured a half-dozen more with a revolver.
