GLADSTONE'S MEN.

NEW CABINET OFFICERS.

The grouty old lady who is the alleged heal of British affairs has grown more grouty and grumpy than ever, lately. The events of the past month in her realm are little to her have received an additional droop since she dissolution of the house of lords is one, was forced to summon Mr. Gladstone to form a cabinet again.

not quite happy, s. For nitied high off ich of a monarchical government they are acting amazingly like the fellows who are left out of our plain, common quadreavial republican cabines when a new president comes in. It was a bitter pill to her majesty to take Mr. Gladstone again, but in their promised Gladstone their support. They hold the balance of power, ireland has a real statesman.

lightly and gladly. He is not only hopeful. alumnus of Lonbut jaunty. He wears his 76 years as lightly don university. as most men wear half a century. When all Earl Kimberby, is said and done, it the population of em- the new secre are pires is counted, Gladstone is really the most for India, is an influential of living statesmen. And he is oxford man, born really a splendid old man. His public services began in 1802, and have continued, in one capacity and mother, without a break, filled are those of ever since. He is not only a statesman, but a mbassador to a politician. The large outlines of his career Russia and lord show him always on the side of liberality in lieutenant of lrethought and action. He has consummated land. He is not a some of the most important measures for the born earl, but a preedom of the British people in modern made one. He retimes. Let us hope that he will live to give ceived his title in home rule to Ireland.

high chancello . He gets a salary equal to that of the president of the United States and a life pension. The office carries with it, be- (48 sides, the elevation & ice to the rank of the !!! peerage. This post- Musical tion is facetiously .... called the weelsack Ato because the lord house of lords sits upon a square bug SIR FARRAR HERSCHELL.

wool covered with a red cloth. It has no back or arms.

looks, having been born in 1847. He is the son of a clergyman, and was not born a man, of long descent, and proud of it. He migh offices. He was born in 1835, and is the fifth carr of his name. He was lord heatenant of Lucian and the first of the standard data. was lord heatenant daughter of he la of Ireland under mented his orient the Gladstone gov- John Lothrop Moernment that went ley.

The gentleman he l

EARL SPENCER.

York-hire. He is a Cambridge university some. He is dreadfully afraid of dynaman, scalwar, and strong looking, like a big miters besides.

about growing eld is that one gets to be an old fogy. Except in extraordinary cases, like that of Mr. Gladstone houself, the world trade, which is constituted by the contrader of the contrader is moved by young people. In them the general government and cabinet position. The cherub-faced Earl Resolvers is the Mundella started in new secretary for 16re ga affairs. He it was who narried Baron Rothsch ld's doughter Hannah. He was born in 1847 and is man. He is now a manufacture.

he looks like a ross

EARL ROSERERY.

take a prominent public place other than his sent in the nouse of loris very early in PORTRAITS OF THE "G. O. M.'S" life, but has advanced vapidly since he did come into notice. He is rather a favorite with the premiar. He held office under the former Gardstene government. He is plainly one British lord who knows which ide of his bread is buttered, and takes the Liberal side. All whose senses are not taste. Her mouth naturally turns down at dulled by prejudice, scent in the sir marthe corners. Rumor declares the angles velous changes to come for England. The Earl Granville is secretary for the colonies. His private same is Granville George Love-Several members of the new Liberal cabi-net themselves are

Granville is the oldest man of the new coun-

Another point small way some British statesmen had to swallow as titter a one

The only person who seems to be quite happy is he whom his enemies call the G. O.
M. (Grand Old Man), William Ewart Gialcollege graduates are the exception In England the member, of parliament and the covernment conneil, who are not such, are the resting to American the disappointed man of the thirteen is Joseph Chambertain. Esq., president of the local government bound.
This is a very small office for a man who in dreams saw himself in the real statesman.

The full official title of Mr. Gladstone is prime minister and first lord of the treesury. He has taken the hom of government again leading and one leading to the treesury and consider the homological treesure. EARL KIMBERLEY. 1866. The secretary for war is Mr. B. The bigwig here delineated is the new local Campbell-Bannerman, a gentleman who a not yet distinguished himself. Sir William Ver non Harcourt, who high chancellor. the woolsack" say people who don't like him. There are very few peo-1% not, for one. He two.

Mack or arms.

Sir Farrar Herscheil is not so old as he cooks, having been born in 1847. He is the "portentous eru littou" He is a very carne! knight, but was made one in 1880.

The ford president of the council is Earl

Spencer, by name John Poyntz Spencer,

He, too, has held

He too, has held

The long descent, and prout of it. He won his reputation as a journalist. He use to be a leader wine or for The London Times which is enough to make any one honoless by dull for life. The wrote many articles, also,

out a few months hoped he is her or natured to her then appointed to the office of home sectors in parisonems, office of home sectors in the fight of th of a clergyman, of neering and quarrelsome, and he is not hard!

viceroy of India. He was converted to the Roman Cathone faith in 1874.

Mr. Man fella is president of the board of is the one submitted by Mr. Wintercores, of Great Britain is a therefore, not yet manufacturer of Nottingham, a 40 years old E Nottingham a sides having a cherub face and a cherub face and a man who can be a side of the side o billionaire wife he has a private name ther be coaxed or that is pretty enough for a novel.

It is Philip Archibald Prinners. It is full of the state of is fifth earl of Rose bery, and succeeded to his grand.

father's title in Management of Mr. Morley to be chief secretary of Iroland gives much satisfaction to all who have hope for that the management of Mr. Morley to be chief secretary of Iroland gives much satisfaction to all who have hope for that them. 1868. He appears was rapid and without any drawback from younger than he is, that time. An incident which helped to inand sitting in his crease her popularity occurred at almost place in the stup d her first operatic engagement. She was inold house of lords sulted by one of the female artistes of the

We hesday murched out to make uin.

of the most distinguished literary

spoken in favor of

He is out-

room for Mr. Morley. As editor of The Fortnightly Review John Mor ey first became known to fame Atterward he decame editor of Tac Pai Mail Gazette, which he is at present He changed it from a Tory paper to a high cass Radical one. He is editor also of the series of books called "English Men of Letters," well known in America. He is 47 years old a man of power and will. He is was who drove "Buckshot Forster" from the chief secretaryship of Ireland. He is the intimate triend of several of the irish

Much is to be hope- from Morley in ref.

ence to the Irish question. Eight million dollars go out of the United States every year to I land to pay taxes and relieve poverty. Prerefore the Irish question is in-berlain slopped over on the Irish question during the last campaign. In a vitter, abusive speech he declared that England would never, no never, grant hou rule to Ireland that the ver proposition was treason. The speech scaled his doom with Parnell and/ the Irish pur.y. Besides that, it is believed strongly that this ambitious commoner

MR. CHAMBERLAIN. has been intriguing to undermine Mr. Gladstone. Therefore the g. o. m. does not like him. Chamberlain is the dule of the cabinet. The chancellor of the exchequer is his buttonnole. He is a man of great wealth, being the son of a rich Birmingham bolt and screw manufacturer. Except on wanted to be lord the Irish question, Mr. Chamber an is a radical of the radicals. He goes in for dishigh chancellor, radical of the Tanters. Begoes in the two with oaks, and proceeded to build a habitation by "yearned for connecting church and state, for abolishing the wast tion lotty enough to satisfy the most aspiring." the house of lords, and stopping the vast sums voted to the royal family. Heaven only knows what he would not abolish if he had his way. He is a fine speaker, a man of ple who do like great brain and ambit ion and only 5) years him, apparently, old. He will get on. The little set-back be him, apparently, old. He will get on. The fittle set-back be Mr.Gladstone do s

Mr. George Otto Trevelyan is the sectotary for Scotland. He is a distinguished rary men, and nephew of Lord Macaulay, He wro e, among other things, a life of Caprice James Fox. tie has been in purli med since 355. speech in water costate should no in causes of com pinen e hunger. Forngeo : while after that he country form sed-government.

Emza Ameriano.

this city, it will cost $5000) and is to be erected in Laucela park.

PROADSIDE VIEW OF STATUE. The principal features of Mr. Whitehouse's design are a solid terrace wall pierced by a massive granite arch which passes beneath the elevated roadway. This arch is to be 60 walks surrounding the artificial lake in the Castle is a male colored servant, center of the park. This arched way affords a beautiful vista, looking east and west, and a refusal to accompany lum, out in the diswith two flights of steps connecting the lower walk with the roadbed above. On this roadbed, and the remark to a reporter that her "father possessed considerable of the plug ugly behind a Sunday school!"

sive granite constructure 50x18 feet, forming a covered terrace, through which the footway passes. The side walls of this termen of Great Brit- | roce are pierced by small archel o enings, giving a fine view of Late Michigan from the one side and the park from the other. frome rule. A person of the name of base for the colo sal bronze statue of Gen. Surmounting the whole is the solid granite Smith was seere. Grant, making a total height of 42 feet from tary for Ireland the lower readway to the bottom of the justimed dysunder the recent. Tery massive and constructed exclusively of Boverament. He blocks of grantle, a durable emblem of tawas appointed character of the man in memory of when Monday, and or the memorial is tuid.

VIEW SHOWING PLEVATED ROADWAY. From the terrace, where carriages can stand as well as polestrians, will be a view stand as well as ped strians, will be a view almost unique, as looking to the west one ces the spires and high buildings of the city, while to the cas, is seen the hase, making a continue of the statue. Work is to be big on as a continue of the statue. Work is to be big on as a contact the weather will permit.

A cut forty plans were submitted, and the disign was selected on account of its or granty as well as general excellence. The committee has $45.00 modes by they will read about $5,000 more, as it is proposed to have the less torage statue if at our respectively. It is estimated that the source one will cost $15.000. The rimining $55,000 is to be expended on the corner, Andrew J. formwell.

UNIQUE WASHINGTON RESIDENCES.

Jeaquin Miller's Log Cabin and Havwood's Airy Castle.

[Special Correspondence.]
WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—There is one man the capital who is gradually rising. hough he now fin is himself at night on a plane far above his fellow townsmen, it is a quistion whether his ambition is as yet satis fi d. He is Mr. A. B. Haywood, who file a position in the pension office. When a soldier from New Hampshire, during the late war, his left arm was taken away by a shot nearly to the shoulder. Since then he has had more or less pain in the part left after amoutation, and has discovered that he suffers less when removed some distancfrom the ground. He first built a cot four feet above ground, later still he erected one twelve feet from the ground which was very picturesque. The predatory inroads of trampand neg oes gave great annoyance. So he bough a plot of undula ing lant covered of Cherkelyan, which the was called "Pinche was called "Pinche festle. It is situated on a lil about three piles nor it of the Captio. From this hill a mission the Police was called "Pinche festle. It is situated on a lil about three piles nor it of the Captio. From this hill a mission the Police was called "Pinche festle." The cost is hardly more than that of the plain stationery. His present habitation is called Airy to one and the Virgin a mountains may be obtained. As will reseen by the picture a Some of a clegyman, of the sympan and a clear of the ward and strikes and a clear of the ward and strikes and a clear of the ward and strikes and a clear of the sympan and ward of the admirably the SSr down from the son a clear of the path should be a clear of the most gain from the son and a clear of the path should be a clear of the path should be the fittle reason increased warmth, as with as firm string closely. From one of the houses on the platform a stair leads to the lower story. This is a hitcher diving room neatly faished, car-peter and papered. Canvas and other water poof an emids are tacked close about the exit and entrances of the old oak to keep out the cold air and moisture. The she ggy inches are convenient hanging places for a quantity of househooping teggery and mothing and chairs, tables and chests, dishes med tool complete the furnishing of this strange hobitation, suspended like Me Lomet's coffin between heaven and earth, We see no little touches indicating woman's presence here, no traces of feminine adornings or knick-knacks. Windows look out on a broad expanse of country, and the feeling is that of being in an anchored belloon "far feet long and constructed of granite, and from the madding crowd." Mr. Haywood is connects the Lake Shore walk with the many a bachelor. His only companion in Airy

LIRY CASTLE

D D Z T

Who have any Correspondence, whatever, can save time and money by calling at

-T II E-

Courier Office!

-AND GETTING-

FARM LETTER HEADS,

-AND PRINTED-

ENVELOPES!

FOR FINE

Vo office west of Minneap-olis is better equipped than the

COURTER JOB ROOMS.

-FINE -

CommercialWork a Specialty