Our Washington Letter.

WASHINGTON, March 1: The last week in February was a dull ally spoils a week's work.

Things took a lively turn in the house ation committee sent in its report, and is not likely he will succeed, as the there was some hard, old fashioned knocks administered by both sides, rewarding colored mugwumps. Representative Henderson, of Illinois, however, rolled up his sleeves, and gave the democracy a decent drubbing be- the expenditure of the surplus of public cause of their opposition to the increase widows' pensions. The democracy returned the fire with considerable energy but they showed that they were being position, and Mr. Hewitt, from same

Again, on Friday afternoon, there were hot times in the house over Morrison's substitute for the Pulitzer resolutions touching the Bell and Pan-Electric telephone scandals. The democracy has all the fight to themselves.

Senator Mitchell, of Oregan, made a strong speech on Friday afternoon in support of the bill prohibiting the emigration of Chinese.

Jacob Gautz, Rapid City, Dak., and Col. Miller, of Huron Land office, are in the city.

The 22d of February was very quiet in the capital. The military organizations paraded through the streets. A national salute was fired at sunrise, and the Continental guards and about one hundred congressmen went to Mt. Vernon. President Cleveland showed his interest in this pilgrimage to Washington's shrine by sending a basket of

Among others absent from the city were Senators Logan and Evarts, who attended a banquet given by the Michigan Club at Detroit. Among all the speeches delivered that of Logan's was was received with most enthusiasm, and when, in referring to the disposition manifested by the administration to keep the people ignorance of the reasons for its actions, he declared that the "people shall know how the government is carried on; it brought down the house. applied for.—See'y to Com'r. Feb. Logan's friends in Michigan are very enthusiastic.

Speaking of Logan reminds me of the grand banquet tendered by the Logan invincibles in Baltimore on Tuesday night. The occasion was one of special Government and N. P. Railroad interest, because Capt. Bob Thomas, a representative from Iilinois, expressed he decided preference for Logan as the republican standard bearer in 1888, and the air was vocal with shouts of "Logan

The postal appropriation committee spent the 22d in trying trying to complete their report. This was not finished until the 24th. It appropriates the sum of $54,000,000 for the postal service, DENTS. N. P. Pref'd STOCK which is $625,598 more than the appropriation for the present fiscal year.

The Chinese problem is one that is attracting considerable interest just now on account of there maltreatment on the Pacific coast, and the rumor of a proclamation calling all Chinese subjects home. If the latter report should prove true, very grave troubles might arise in our intercourse with China. If China was in turn to require all Americans to leave that country, it would be a step backwords that might lead to war.

On the 24th ult, Mr. Payson, of Illinois, introduced a bill in the House,

The municipal authorities have order-now on account of there maltreatment ed that the name of the Deity be exponded to the structure of the name of the Deity be exponded that th attracting considerable interest just from the Senace, to quiet the titles of the Des Momes River settlers. It was prssed without division.

Another bill was passed to annex the northern part of Idaho to Washington

The Secretary of the Treasury, after an examanation of the Morrison tariff bill, concludes that that it will have the effect of only a reduction of $12,000,000 instead of $20,000,000 as claimed from

Two weeks are wanted to debate the silver bill. In the meantime the Coinage Coomittee are about as near agreeing as they were two weeks ago.

Quite a ripple of political excitment was occasioned in the Senate on Wednesday when Senator Morgan arraigned the Judiciary Committee for sending in the report and resolution read by Senator Edmunds. He maintained the whole action was out of order, etc., Of course the Republicans smiled all around and scented the battle not far off, when the matter comes up next week. In the meantime the Republicans will astonish the people with precedents and authorities on the subject of withholding papers on file from either branch of the national legislature.
