Official Paper of Griggs County

Riot and Murder.

CHICAGO, May 3.—Six thousand men assembled to-day apparently to be incited to riot. One German speaker, particularly inflamed his hearers. He said:

"Quit the Knights of Labor. They will never do any good. Join the Central Labor Union, which may help you to your rights and freedom. Anarchy is the only way for the workingmen to break the chains of slavery in which they are bound by the capitalists. It is your only way to become free. Freedom, freedom! I say. With revolver in one hand, knives in the other, and bombs in your pocket, march on to revolution and freedom. Every workman must starve together, and stand together, and fight together for his rights."

After listening to the harangue the crowd began to throw stones at the surrounding buildings. Then, as if by one spirit, the 6,000 men started toward the McCormick reaper works, half a mile west. Here ensued an attack upon the works, and the employees. The police were sent for, and the mob was dispersed, after the killing of about a dozen rioters, and the wounding of several of the workmen and police. In the evening the socialists flooded the city with incendiary circulars, in German and English, and the wildest excitement prevailed.

CHICAGO, May 4.—The socialists "run the city"—employing fire arms, and dynamite bombs against the officers. Fifty policemen are killed and wounded, and about an equal number of the rioters are in the dust. The greatest excitement and uneasiness prevails. The most violent anarchists are now in hiding.

Wanted to Stake Him.

The path of the officers who attempt to enforce the prohibition law in Iowa is not strewn with roses. Last night Deputy Sheriff Pierce went to the saloon of Lorenz Ill in the Des Moines House with a searchwarrant. As he entered the room he held up the warrant and announced his official position.
Not finding anything contraband in the bar-room he tried a door leading to the cellar, but found it locked. Pierce called upon the barkeeper to unlock the door and was met with refusal to do so and the remark that he could not enter there. He again called upon the man to open the door and when he refused the second time Pierce broke it open.
Descending the stairs by a dim light he saw a beer keg in the cellar and started for it, he walked into a pit about nine feet deep, the bottom of the pit being with sharpened stakes. Pierce threw out his arms and caught on the side of the poles, and by the aid of Constable Hansen, who accompanied him to the house, was rescued before falling on the stakes. Had he done so he must have been killed or crippled. The officers say the pit had been freshly dug, and every appearance of having been constructed for a trap. When he was released he seized the beer, and carried it up stairs, and placed it in the hands of Constable Hansen."

Natural Gas in Fargo.

FARGO, Special Telegram, April 29.— Fargo is excited over natural gas. For a year it has been struck while sinking wells within from six to fifteen miles of the city, but never in paying quantities.
Finally a franchise was asked for a local company, which promised to commence work immediately. While the details were being arranged, A. E. Rood of St.
Paul appeared and offered the city $5,000 if the franchise was given to him as president of the present Fargo Gas company, the amount to be paid six months after gas in paying quantities was discovered. The matter will again be considered at a special meeting of the city council, to be held Monday night. It is expected that pipes will have to be driven down about 1,800 feet, and those who have investigated are very enthusiastic over the prospects.

Southernism.

"Give me a little mo' of the potato, I feel like as if I was stawed. Rye-cheer, let me say, that I allowed to get to go an hour ago. You, Jim, bring up my hoss, djyar? Y'all must come and see we'uns. We'll have a right smart game of kee-ar'ds."

Terrible Punishment.

In Seward county, Kansas, a half-witted fellow named Rupin outraged and murdered Mrs. Freimutt during the temporary absence of her husband, horribly mutilating the body. On the return of the latter he became a raving maniac and committed suicide. The infuriated neighbors seized Rupin, put a rope around his neck, attached the other end to a saddle on the back of a wild colt, and then frightened the animal. After running five miles the colt fell exhausted and the dead and mutilated body of Rupin was released.

Duluth as a wheat market seems to have gone entirely to the dogs. Commission men at that place represented it last fall as the only market for number one hard. As the price of this quality of wheat was from seven to ten cents above Chicago No. 2, the difference was plainly in favor of Duluth. Late quotations from that market show a marked decrease in this difference, hard wheat being but two or three cents higher than No. 2 soft Chicago, which, being interpreted, is to say that Duluth elevators will deliver upon purchase made of them last fall, a grade of wheat costing them five to seven cents less than No. 1 hard. It also means that the Duluth grade will heretofore very nearly correspond with Chicago, and that in order to get a consignment of hard wheat into the Zenith city upon the shores of the Unsalted Sea one will be obliged to sit upon the precious stuff with a cocked shot-gun to prevent a pack of thieves from mixing it with soft wheat.—Hillsboro Banner.

An item in the Minneapolis Journal says that the Farmers' and Merchants' National Bank, of Perham Minn., suspended yesterday afternoon, paying 100 cents on the dollar. The bank is under the auspices of the Valley City, Dak., bank of the same name and the suspension is due largely to the troubles of Mr. Root, the president at Valley City.

are waiting patiently to hear from Messrs. Tiltson, of Greenville, Pa., regarding the proposed erection of a solid brick block covering the ground from the old Covey & Brown corner, to Siegfried's old site. If the firm mentioned does not fill the intermediate space, then we understand that Siegfried and Holliday will each build separate brick blocks on their lots.—
