Mary Ann's Great Quality.
"Good morning, Mrs. O'laherty."
"The same to yersilf, Mr. Dee; God bless ye."
"I had a short talk with your Mary Ann yesterday. She has improved wonderfully since I last saw her."
"She has, son. Faith and she now talks in sich high quality langwidge that I kin scarcely understand phwat she do be talkin' about half the toime. An' the shtoile that she do put on! One who didn't know her would think she's one of the Vanderbilts. She doesn't git out av bed till noon, an' it takes her an hour to dress. An' when she aits, Howly Moses! The idea of cuttin' a pea in two! an' aitin' hash wid a tork! an' puttin' ice in tay!"
"I see she dresses quite gaily," said Mr. Dee. "I dont see how she can afford to do so."
"Faith an' thim dresses are nearly all pritants from gintlemen frinds. Mary Ann has become very popular since she's intered hoigh society an' blached her hair yaller. There's scarcely a noight but phwat she's invoitod out to a fate shampater or a sorray or something grand; an' it's always the pick av the flock av the gintlemen that do be bringin' her home. Yis, indade; Mary Ann's great quality now."—Kentucky State Journal.

IF FARMERS
in the Northwest would consider that here the climate, soil and seasons differ from other sections of the United States they would see at once that different management must be observed and methods employed to make farming and stock-raising successful; hence the necessity of giving a preference to agricultural reading especially suited to these pursuits in this section. GRAIN AND STOCK-RAISING, POULTRY AND BEE management, DAIRYING, FRUIT AND VEGETABLE culture as it should be conducted in the Northwest, is reliably given in FARM, STOCK AND HOME, edited by Col. John H. Stevens, a farmer and resident of Minnesota since 1849, assisted by many practical farmers of recognized authority. It is just the paper every farmer in the Northwest should have; is published the 1st and 15th of every month—24 times yearly—and furnished at the very low subscription price of only 50 cents a year. Sample copy free. Write for it. Agents wanted. Address
FARM, STOCK AND HOME,
Minneapolis, Minn.
We as farmers of the Northwest recognize in FARM, STOCK AND HOME an earnest, vigorous, consistent and effective worker in the advocacy of a policy to arrest the extortions of railroads and other monopolies, and save to farmers the fruits of their labor.
