Notice.—U. S. Land Office, Fargo, D.T., June 28, 1886. Complaint having been entered at his office by Victor K. Anderson against Luther T. Sowle for failure to comply with law as to timber culture entry No. 6,801, dated May 24, 1882, upon the NW 1/4 section 8, tp. 144, R. 61, in Griggs county, Dakota Territory, with a view to the cancellation of said entry; contestant alleging that the said Luther T. Sowle has failed to comply with the timber culture law by not breaking, or cause to be broken, five acres of said tract during the first year of said entry ending May 24, 1883, and has also failed to break or cause to be broken five acres thereon, or cultivate to crop or otherwise five acres during the second year after entry ending May 24, 1884, and also failed to plant or cause to be planted five acres of said tract to trees, tree seeds, nuts, or cuttings during the third year after entry, and also failed to plant or cause to be planted five acres or any part thereof to trees, tree seeds, nuts or cuttings, during the fourth year after entry; that said failure so exists at the present time; the said parties are hereby summoned to appear at this office on the 15th day of August, 1886, at 10 o'clock a. m., to respond and furnish testimony concerning said alleged failure.

COOPERSTOWN.

A prominent capitalist of Maine, who owns wild lands in nearly every western state and territory, said, over his own signature, in a letter to the Kennebec Journal, over a year ago: "Of my landed interests in the west I regard my North Dakota property as, ultimately, of the most value, and my acres in Griggs county as the most valuable of North Dakota investments, as far as quality and character of the soil are concerned." The county is one of the smallest in the territory, 720 square miles in area, made up of gently rolling lands, lower than the cotean lands of the Missouri, and some 200 feet higher than the Red River Valley—all magnificent wheat land, drained by the Shyenne river and its main branch, which pass through the county, and diversified by beautiful lakes and productive meadows. The spring floods and the autumn drouths affect this "heart of Dakota" less than any other section of the wheat belt.

The capital of the county is Cooperstown, the terminus of the Sanborn & Cooperstown branch of the Northern Pacific. The road was designed to end here, and here in all probability the terminus will remain. Directly north of us is the unproductive reservation of the Cuthead Sioux, and Devil's Lake, north-east is the territory of the Manitoba railroad, whose line from St. Paul to Chicago is a diagonal, as distinguished from the right angle which the branch makes with the Northern Pacific railroad. To the northwest of us, but a few miles, are Carrington and Minnewaukan, with a branch of the Northern Pacific railroad extending from Jamestown, and obviating the extension of our branch in that direction. An extension east or west would only be made after the lapse of years. A great country trade naturally results for Cooperstown. Nearly a thousand car loads of wheat have already been shipped from this point this season, a showing that can be equaled by no other town of 500 inhabitants in the world. A fine court house of red brick, erected at an expense of $30,000, insures the holding of the county seat for all time, and ornaments the town.

A commodious hotel, erected at an expense of $20,000, furnishes accommodation to the traveler, and two enormous elevators are engaged day and night in handling the product of the county.

A magnificent high school building, and numerous churches, demonstrate the respectability and intelligence of the people.

Timber is abundant upon the river and wood is furnished in town at $5 per cord. The roads are at all times in admirable condition, and no pleasanter spot for a country life could be selected in the west.

The above cut represents the Court House at Cooperstown, which is of solid brick, erected and furnished at an expense of $30,000. Among other prominent buildings erected in 1886, are the Congregational, and Norwegian Methodist Episcopal Churches, handsome and commodious structures, that would grace a city of ten times the size of the Capital of Griggs County.

Nine hundred car loads of wheat, at ten tons per car, have been shipped from the Cooperstown station this season. This is equivalent to 300,000 bushels. At an average cash valuation of 70 cents per bushel, $210,000 have been distributed to the farmers for wheat alone. The population of Griggs county is about 2,000, and the wheat distribution has been over $100, to ever man, woman, and child within its limits. In addition, we have had a market well supplied with live stock, poultry, butter, cheese, eggs, garden produce, and other cereals besides wheat.

Probably no tract of land, of equal size in the world, is capable of greater production than this most fertile county of the most fertile territory, of the most fertile nation, of the most fertile continent, of the most fertile planet of which we know. Probably no community of the same number of people in this territory, or in any other new county, were ever so happily situated, financially, on the average, as our people. We have still room for more settlers. The facts stated, regarding the shipment of grain at this point will be verified, to the doubt ing, by the affidavits of the managers of the elevators, B. C. Cooper and G. N. Stork.

Any inquiries regarding the county, directed to the Courier Office, will be cheerfully answered; and any person desiring to purchase improved, and unimproved, real estate, cheap for cash, or in exchange for unincumbered city property in the Northwest, can be accommodated with fine sections, of early selection, without commission, by the COURIER.
