Tell us not in idle numbers
That GROCERIES are high.
That our PRINTS are not fast colors—
(Competition we defy.)
That the summer is not lingering
In our patent ARCTIC wear;
That our furs from far Alaska
Did not clothe a Polar bear.
That Old Sorens can whistle
Through the garments that we keep;
That a man should travel naked
When our stock for cash is cheap.
Hoi! for CROCKERY and GLASS
WARE.
And an endless lot of TOYS—
Things to make this merry Christmas—
For your little girls and boys.
For Old SANTA CLAUS is coming.
And he comes but once a year.
Make the little angels happy;
Wipe away the falling tear.
