

LAWRENCE BROS.

THE prices for wheat and farm products are low, and we endeavor to keep pace with the times by selling the best groceries and provisions, clothing, Christmas goods, boots and shoes, ladies and gents' furnishing goods, and everything found in a first-class country store at rock bottom prices with small profit. We have a superior line of winter clothing, including the best foot wear and overcoating which must be sold before the holidays; also many useful articles which we would be pleased to show you, and which are suitable for the holiday trade. It is no trouble to show goods, and before purchasing you will consult your own interests by calling upon us.
