E. W. Blackwell spent Sunday in Sanborn.

The board of county commissioners meet today.

Landlord Pashley rusticated on his farm at Mardell Sunday.

Louis Ruggles returned on Saturday evening from his winter's sojourn in Minnesota.

Mrs. Harris, mother of Mrs. J. F. Bronson, of Sanborn, is visiting friends in Cooperstown.

The Baptist Sunday school are making preparations to have a concert the latter part of next month.

Mr. Mark Sutherland and family have removed onto their farm where they will remain during the summer.

The last remnant of winter—a young blizzard—passed through Griggs county on its eastern tour last Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. I. B. Banks has accepted the position vacated by Beecher Cox in the Gull River Lumber Company's yard at this place, and will now build up his muscle wrestling with lumber piles.

Remember the Baptist entertainment which takes place this evening at the court house, at promises to be the recherche event of the season. Programme in another column.

A. N. Adams returned from the city of brotherly love—Boston, and other cities, last Friday. He reports a very pleasant visit, but is, nevertheless, glad to get back again to the land of pure ozone.

J. C. Yancey returned on Monday night from his visit to Iowa. Cash says that twenty-four hours in that state was long enough for him and that he will be content to remain in God's country—Dakota.

Contractor Muir has just completed and placed into position a large book case for the Congregational Sunday school. It is partitioned off to accommodate 400 volumes. It is a fine piece of workmanship.

A party of Sanborn gentlemen consisting of Messrs. J. M. Burrell, N. J. Olsen, Geo. L. Lenham and C. A. Van Wormer registered at the Palace Friday. The COURIER received a pleasant visit from the gentlemen.

The debate on the prohibition and high license question at the Good Templars lodge Monday evening was a very spirited affair on one side—no one being able, apparently, to get up and refute the able argument for prohibition presented by Bro. Fairbanks.

Owing to the failing health of the pastor of the Congregational church, Rev. Geo. Frost, there will only be service in that church on Sunday mornings for the time being and not in the evening as heretofore. In the meantime the reverend gentleman will endeavor to build up his constitution by horseback riding, and will doubtless make an expert equestrian.

The farewell dance given by Charley Hunter and his band of stalwarts at the Palace Hotel last Friday evening, was the most enjoyable and best attended affair which has taken place this winter. Messrs. Wanderlich and Nelson provided excellent music for the dancers and Landlord Pashley satisfied the cravings of the inner man by spreading a first-class supper. The dancers kept up the dreamy waltz and fantastic quadrille until 4:30 the following morning.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Van Voorhis a small company assembled on the morning of March 23d to witness the marriage ceremony of Mr. James A. Loughry to Miss Nina Van Voorhis. After the ceremony, which was performed promptly at 9 o'clock by Rev. Geo. B. Frost, the party partook of an inviting and bountiful breakfast. This ended, there followed hasty handshakes and good-byes, after which the happy couple were hurried to the depot where they took the train for Indiana, Penn., their future home. A host of friends join with the COURIER in extending hearty congratulations.

Who struck Ford with dot snowball. Dr. Kerr says we may look out for squalls.

Read the notice of the board of health and take heed.

The dudes are coming out with new white hats.

Read the auction sale notice of personal property.

A. Haskell and family have moved out on their farm.

Merchant Syverson returned from his business trip to St. Paul Wednesday.

John Anberg, the photographer, has returned from his winter's sojourn in Minneapolis.

White stiff hats promise to be all the go for the coming summer, judging from the number lately received by Syverson & Co.

Griggs county promises to be well supplied with farm horses this summer, as a number are being brought into this section.

Lawrence Bros. have received a brand new two hundred pound Hall safe, which they have had placed in their bank.

Commencing on April 5th, at 9 a. m., Superintendent Kerr will hold the regular teachers' examination, at the court house in Cooperstown.

Lawrence Bros have just received a carload of fine brood mares and geldings which they offer for sale at their stables. Their advertisement will appear next week.

J. H. Kellum, formerly of Dazey, but now of Hannaford, called on us this morning to renew his subscription and have his paper changed to the latter place.

Clark & Smart have accepted the agency for the Western Fire and Marine Insurance Company, of Sioux Falls, Dakota, and will conduct the business of that company in this section.

Rev. P. Jensen, of the Norwegian M. E. church of Fergus Falls, Minn., will speak Sunday afternoon at 3:30 p. m., at the Congregational church. Communion services will be held after the sermon.

Sykeston, the county seat of Wells county, is to have a weekly newspaper called "The Wells County Settler." The outfit for the same is already at Carrington awaiting transportation to that point.

C. H. White, J. H. Low, St. Paul; S. W. Johnson, W. P. Miller, Fargo; T. A. Hamlin, Wheatland, and Theo. England of Minneapolis, were among the guests of Landlord Pashley, during the week.

Editor Adams is in St. Paul this week on business, and has purchased and had shipped a new large job press and the COURIER is now prepared to do all kinds of job work with neatness and dispatch. Send in your orders.

Messrs. T. A. Hamlin and Theo. England, general agents and adjusters for the North Dakota Fire and Marine Insurance Company, of Sioux Falls, Dak., were in town yesterday with a view to establishing an agency.

Mrs. O. C. Ford will in a few days open up a first-class millinery store on Burrell avenue. She has a large invoice of goods of the latest style and best material on the road from New York which she will sell at bed-rock prices.

Wm. McIntyre, who has been spending the winter at his old home in Nile, Canada, returned to Cooperstown Tuesday evening, accompanied by his brother Richard. Mac says he is glad to get back to Cooperstown.

Little Adolph Thompson celebrates the eighth anniversary of his birth today, by inviting his young acquaintances to his home for a good time. Lots of fun and plenty of good things to eat will doubtless be the leading features of the gathering.

At a meeting of the reading room committee it was decided to close the room for the summer months, at the expiration of the six weeks, the time specified at the opening for its continuance, unless further arrangements are made to keep it open for a couple of weeks longer until the weather fairly settles.

The Fargo Republican, in speaking of the exercise necessary for President Cleveland to take for his health, suggests that he takes Commissioner Sparks by the nape of the neck and the gable end of his pants and wipe the floor with him every morning before breakfast. Every Dakota farmer will utter a fervent amen to this idea.

The members of the Baptist church and others interested in the morality of Cooperstown are agitating the question of building a church. The lots to be secured for the erection of the church and parsonage lie just northeast of Dr. Kerr's residence and are owned by General Manager Oakes, of the Northern Pacific. It is hoped that that gentleman will open his big heart and donate a couple of lots to the denomination for the purpose for which they are desired, as it will increase the value of the property in that immediate vicinity.

D. B. Swartwout, the veteran, was in town Tuesday.

Ollaf Lundebj, brother of Rev. Mr. Lundebj, left for Norway this morning.

Prof. Hodge has received a call from the Valley City school board. But he won't accept it don'tcherknow.

Miss Christine Bauer's German students are reported as making rapid progress in the study of that language.
