The county commissioners meet next Monday, April 4.

It is rumored that B. A. Clausen will move to Minot in the spring.

Bring your job work to the COURIER office, and see what can be done for you.

Everybody seems to have a kick coming against the Inter-state commerce law.

Secretary Johnson says the roll of the Farmers' Mutual has been increased by thirty names within ten days.

B. A. Clausen and M. L. Michaels attended divine service Sunday evening and were assigned a front pew.

It is reported that P. L. Hoiland is in British Columbia, sick, dead-broke, and working for thirty dollars a month.

Paul Adams was confined to the house by sickness last week, but is convalescent and favors us with his smiles as of yore.

Billy and Dick Blow returned with their teams Sunday afternoon from the Minnesota pineries. The boys look hale and hearty.

The graduated quartette, Clem Johnson's remarks, and the chorus, "Angel of Peace," were heartily applauded, at the Friday evening concert.

"Six living, red-headed Chicago Milliners" is a leading attraction at a Chicago dime museum. What next? Probably six dead hen-pecked Chicago husbands.

Prof. H. Age informs us that there is no foundation in the report that he was offered the situation made vacant by the death of Prof. Cowen in the Valley City schools.

Mrs. Frank Buck, of DePanville, N. Y., writes to friends in Cooperstown that the father of Frank Buck died last month and that they would like to hear from him. He is now the heir to a large fortune.

C. P. Miller, of the firm of Simington & Miller called today, admired some new faces of job type, and informed the COURIER that the Plankinton Mutual is the only farmers' friend. Secretary Johnson denies the allegation.

"Another firm busted?" said the genial Stork, as he tried to get into Syverson's Wednesday evening. The truth of the matter was that the firm had just received a new invoice of goods, and were so overrun with customers, they could not unpack them, and barred the doors.

Last week's Courier speaks of a young man of Cooperstown getting into trouble with the girl's father's "dawg." Can it be the same one that thrust his elbow through the glass in the front door of the Maris mansion the last time he was in Sanborn.—Enterprise.

Perhaps at no time except during the ice carnival or the state fair, have more people from Dakota visited St. Paul and Minneapolis than within the last two weeks—the last chance to economize a pass. The COURIER editor, out of respect to the expiring privileges visited St. Paul, Chicago, and Madison, Wis., returning Monday.

The entertainment given last Friday night at the courthouse under the auspices of the Ladies Sewing Circle of the Baptist church, proved a great success both financially and socially. The house was crowded by our philanthropic citizens, who were drawn there by the extensive advertising of the programme and the cause for which the proceeds were donated. The programme which was a long and varied one, was rendered in a manner that reflected great credit upon the participants and was greatly enjoyed by the audience. Ice-cream and cake were served up during the intermission. The close of the exercises was a farce "The Mouse Trap," which was very funny indeed and would tickle the risibles of any sober-sided. The receipts of the evening were over sixty dollars above the expenses.

All Fool's Day.

M. B. Brosard, of Grand Forks, was in the city Wednesday.

Sylvester and Paul Flick were down from Willow, Wednesday.

Geo. F. Thayer and O. M. Billings, were down from Aneta, Wednesday.

Mrs. M. W. Lawrence went to St. Louis Wednesday, for a visit with relatives.

H. B. Kins, of Hannaford, took in the sights of the metropolis, Wednesday.

Charley Hunter and his caravan, started north Tuesday. Good luck to them.

Miss Lulu Lenham returned to Sanborn Thursday after a visit to the Van Voorhis farm.

W. G. Paine, Cran, the cigar man, and other commercial tourists visited the city, Monday.

G. B. Gray, a Pickertown granger, discussed the topics of the day in Cooperstown, Wednesday.

Dr. Kerr says that he and Treasurer Thompson are talking of starting a new paper, because it is fashionable.

The horses imported by Joseph Buchheit, Esq., are of medium size, and very desirable for general work.

Mr. Joseph Hogarth's wife presented him with a fine young lady, Saturday. Mother and child are doing well.

Geo. Ellis is out of the bank, and is looking after A. L. Bowden's business. Mr. Bowden is expected home Saturday.

Percy Trubshaw, of the COURIER force, is about to start a paper of his own at Sykeston, the county seat of Wells county.

J. D. Sawyer, W. G. Paine, St. Paul; P. T. Scotland, Ottefe, and E. D. Haskins, of St. Louis, registered at the Palace Wednesday.

H. G. Tiffany, the veteran pressman, called to see us Tuesday, and helped regulate the new Gordon press. He says it is the best manufactured.

Wm. Brophy, father of R. C. Brophy, of McCauleyville, Ind., has been visiting his son this week. He brought up some fine horses etc., for R. C.

Messrs J. H. Buchheit and Elijah Hamilton returned Tuesday with a car load of brood mares, and such. Jo says the old woman will follow later.

Chas. Richardson and L. Ed. Dayson have both left Valley City—the former going to Milwaukee and the latter to Perham where he will conduct the Bulletin.

Rev. O. D. Purinton and C. T. Whidden were out Tuesday, interesting people in the new Baptist church building. Several hundred dollars have been subscribed; and a fifteen hundred dollar building is an assured thing.

Sever K. Skagen, a Norwegian farmer living near the river was adjudged insane and taken to the Jamestown asylum, Tuesday. Saturday he broke up the furniture and drove his wife and child out. Religious excitement is supposed to be at the bottom of the matter. Sheriff Michaels and Al. Pinkerton accompanied the man.

One of B. B. Brown's valuable horses was driven by Doc. Murdock on the Galatin mail route, Monday; but is a little out of repair at present. Near Wm. Gumblett's the horse ran away, and after tipping the driver out, broke its neck. Mr. Brown is to be sympathized with in his loss, as seeding is about to commence, and he is without a team.

The subject of Mr. Frost's sermon next Sabbath morning will be "The modern dogma of a probation after death." "What is this dogma? Shall we accept it as the dictum of God? Sabbath evening will be devoted to a missionary concert. The unique and varied exercises of this service cannot fail to instruct and interest all. Those who think missionary meetings are dry affairs are especially urged to be present.

W. C. Jameson has put on his war paint and ordered a lot of gopher dosers. The Shook bill is dead, but still the good work goes on. Next to the Chinese, the gophers with their cheap, yet telling labor are a curse to the land. The "doser" is a big squirt gun and throws sulphur, blue vitrol, and many other delicacies into the very living room of the festive rodent. We would suggest that the orifice of the gun be made larger, so, by reversing the action of the piston, the gopher can be drawn into the gun, and the fact of his death be made certain.

Farmer—I'll give you $20 a month to work on the farm, and you can name your job.

Tramp—Put 'er thar. I'll keep the tramps away from yer old women and children while you are workin'.

FOR SALE—A car load of choice oats. Enquire at the Cargill elevator. GEO. N. STORK.

For Sale. A good yoke of heavy work oxen. Inquire of E. W. Blackwell, at Gull River Lumber Company's office.
