What the Employees of the Central Hudson Railroad have to say about Dr. Pardee's Remedy.
Rochester, May 28, 1886.

Pardee Medicine Co.
GENTS:—I desire to express to you something of my feelings of gratitude for what your remedy has done for me. For fifteen years I have suffered greatly with neuralgia. At times the pain has been so intense that death would have been a welcome relief. It affected my eyes to such an extent that for a time I was totally blind and gave up all hope of recovery, no treatment I could procure affording me even temporary relief. I have used Dr. Pardee's Rheumatic Remedy for several months and to-day I am as well and as free from all neuralgic pains as when a boy.

Dr. Pardee's Rheumatic Remedy has cured me and I am positive it will cure any case of neuralgia or rheumatism, and I shall recommend it to all.

I would not again suffer what I have for five thousand dollars.
Yours respectfully, D. W. MILLER,
Engineer, N. Y. C. & H. R. R. R.

More Words of Praise.

Mr. Horton Knight, a baggageman on the N. Y. C. & H. R. R., who resides at No. 9 Riverdale street, this city, says:

"I have been troubled with rheumatism for several years. This spring I had a very severe attack of inflammatory rheumatism and was compelled to leave my train. I suffered intense pain. My arm and hand were badly swollen and inflamed. I took various kinds of medicine, but obtained no relief. I was urged to try Dr. Pardee's Remedy, but it was with great reluctance that I did so, as I had no faith whatever in it. But I am fully convinced from personal experience that it is a positive cure for this dreaded disease, and I can recommend it as a remedy worthy the confidence of all. Am feeling better than I have for ten years, and attribute it all to Dr. Pardee's Rheumatic Remedy."

He Changed His Mind.
Speaking of suicides—there have been several lately, and a good many people are talking about them—a story is told confidentially by a worthy citizen who contemplated shuffling off this mortal coil. He thought of it, and thinks he was in earnest, but this I doubt, because killing one's self is said to be a painful operation, and the worthy citizen is a man who is extremely careful of his own comfort. However, business had gone wrong, another man had secured the church pew he set his heart upon, rents had been raised, he wasn't very well, any way, and life didn't seem worth living. His wife would get his insurance money; she knew as much about his business as he did himself, and could get along without him.

That night he took home a box of "Rough on Rats," and, after his wife had retired, took it out and read the directions. Then he got out his razor and strapped it and loaded his revolver. He didn't know which method he would use, or whether he would try all three and make a sure thing of it. He would decide after the razor was properly sharpened. Then he strapped away, and while he was trying to cut a hair a sleepy voice came from the next room: "George, Uncle John brought us a gallon of new maple syrup today, and we will have fritters and syrup for breakfast. I thought—you'd like to know." The razor and the pistol were laid away promptly; life took on a more rosy aspect, and the next morning after breakfast the "Rough on Rats" was carefully distributed along the trail of troublesome vermin. George still continues cheerful.—Indianapolis Journal.

One night the Eastern lady was watching the San Franciscan mother putting her little 4-year-old to bed, with the usual formulae.

"Ah," said the Eastern lady, "of course you haven't got so far in these matters as we have."

"What do you mean?"

"My children have all been taught to say their prayers in French."

The Californian mother blushed. She had to confess with shame that her child

UVILLA, W. Va., Nov. 17, 1886.
Recently I bought a young horse. He was taken very ill with Pneumonia. I tried to think of something to relieve him. Concluded what was good for man would be good for the horse. So I got a bottle of Piso's Cure and gave him half of it through the nostrils. This helped him, and I continued giving same doses night and morning until I had used two bottles. The horse has become perfectly sound. I can recommend Piso's Cure for the horse as well as for man.
