DAZEY DEPARTMENT.

 Going North.....5:35 p. m.
 Information in regard to rates and connection

 C. F. WEILAND, Agent.

BUSINESS MEN.

To the Editor of Griggs Courier:

The doings of our town have not been mentioned in your paper for sometime, and it seems to fall to my lot to give information. I have not learned whether the former correspondent has died or been released with a pension. But to the readers of the COURIER, we would say, Dazey is still alive and flourishing; she has never been struck and killed by a "boom," as has been the fate of some of her sister towns, but is in a healthy condition. The business men of the town are firm and solid, financially.

The firm of A. E. and R. Clendenning have a well selected and as large a stock of general merchandise as any in the county.

Mr. J. F. Halliday keeps a full line of farm machinery.

The lumber yard managed by R. Clendenning, Sr., is filled with all kinds of building material.

The N. D. and N. P. elevators have Messrs Barrett and Larson as agents. Both men are versed in grading wheat.

Mr. J. F. Treat represents one of the best insurance companies in the country, and is prepared to insure you from horse to gopher—from house to sty—against accident, death, sickness, hail, fire, tornado, etc.

Messrs Gilbertson & Knudson keep hammering away at the plow shares.

The sample room of Eistad & Barrett is well stocked with the fry liquid, which burns out the senses and stupefies the reason.

W. L. Pattison is refitting his hotel and is prepared to accommodate the traveling public with meals and lodging, not surpassed by any hotel on the line.

Mr. C. F. Weiland, real estate agent, is doing quite a business in that line.

Messrs Anderson and Wieste, are busy drawing modies and building.

Mr. L. Doyer, teacher and assessor, is teaching the young idea how to shoot, and taking the valuation of the town.

The brass band, under the direction of Prof J. F. Treat, is doing finely and will tout a sound of welcome to visitors on the coming fourth.

LOCAL ITEMS.

Wheat 61 cents.

Corner lots advancing.

Editor Adams, of the COURIER, was in town Monday.

Neis Larson's new residence is fast nearing completion.

The billiard parlor of Messrs Eistad and Barrett is being repainted.

Mrs. C. F. Weiland is home from her visit to Sheldon and Milnor, Dak.

The new addition Landlord Pattison has built to his hotel will be of great convenience, and appreciated by the public.

Band practice Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings. Members must attend or put up their little $5.00 fine.

Dr. Claypool, of Sanborn, was called to Dazey Tuesday, by the sudden illness of Mr. A. D.
 Root's little girl. The report is, she cannot recover.

We want all who feel interested in music to put their names on the list of members of the Dazey Cornet band. It will cost you only $1.25 per month, and will give the boys encouragement.

George Mitchell owns a white pony; J. F. Halliday a 54 inch bicycle—the former reports a black eye—the latter nearly a broken leg, and still they persist in taming the animals.

A good business opening here for a barber, harness maker, and a doctor, especially a good doctor, who could have a well settled territory for twenty miles.

The first session of the newly organized Sunday school was held in the school house last Sunday, and was well attended. The exercises were admirably conducted by Supt. J. D. Boyer. We trust all will feel interested and will give us large attendance.

Friday at 10 o'clock a bolt of lightning struck the chimney on the school house, doing considerable damage. Luckily all had gone to dinner, being dismissed a little earlier than usual, or the result would have been more serious. School has been closed for a few days until the damage can be repaired.

A certain party from Cooperstown, had a box checked as baggage to our town some time ago, bearing check No. 5812, which was hustled away from the depot unbeknown to our agent. No one knew anything about it until Agent Weiland found the box with check strap attached in a pile of rubbish. He is now lying low for the party to present the duplicate check, when, undoubtedly, he will get the 103 act read to him. People should know that such small things sometimes cause great annoyances.

Other mention might be made, but fear we may overcrowd your columns, which are already richly loaded.

For other notes regarding Dazey refer to future numbers of the COURIER.

Attention!

The COURIER subscription list is growing more rapidly than the contents of the subscription department of the cash box. To change this, until further notice the paper will be furnished at $1.50 per annum, if paid in a trance.
 Otherwise the subscription price, invariably, remains the same. To obtain the benefit of this deal it will be necessary that all arrearages shall be paid up.
