EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

Domestic News

Mormons and Gentiles celebrated the Fourth at Salt Lake City.

$500,000 in gold was received at New York last week, from Europe.

Armour & Co., of Chicago have invested $500,000 in a pork packing plant at Omaha.

The shipments of fractional silver coin by over $900,000, and the indication is that this excess will be maintained, if not increased, through the month. It is still maintained at the treasury department that the large expenditures to be made between now and the first of September will reduce the treasury surplus to about $36-000,000 by the last named date.

A special from Paducah, Ky., says: In 1873, while J. Hamp Swift was sheriff of Callaway county, Kentucky, his accounts were $3,000 short. He thought a deputy had many, about forty years old, unmarried and had no relatives in this country. He was making preparations to return to Germany having received a legacy of $8,000 left him by the recent death of his father.

The fire is supposed to have been caused by the explosion of a lamp, overturned by a dog or cat, in his room. The dog fiercely resisted the parties who went to the rescue of his owner.

The little village of Clarendon, Warren Co. Pa., was destroyed by incendiary fire on the morning of July 5th, the fire starting in least 100 perished, including M. Colles, president of the Canton. Men are now at work trying to recover the bodies of the victims. An infant was found alive in a floating cradle.

King Kalakaua, of the Sandwich Islands, has temporarily, at least, averted revolution in his domains by submitting to the overthrow of his ministry and the arrest of his chief state officials, and the appointment of a new cabinet, named and demanded by the populace. By adopting this policy he
