AROUND TOWN.

The man in the moon is disgusted
With the fools in the money cursed east—
With the serfs and the paupers dejected
That will not come to the feast;—
With fools and paupers that starve while
The soulless Monopoly is king,
While a thousand broad acres await one
And are dished up to him who will sing.

Wheat 56 cents.

John Syverson: Yes, I was one of the citizens to urge the appointment of that schoolhouse committee. The school board did not have anything to say about it. No, I didn't build the schoolhouse, and am not interested in the warrants. It must be ignorance that leads any one to kick at the meeting we had. Those warrants won't be paid any sooner because the building is taken care of by the citizens.

Karnes Hegge has moved to the farm, but proposes to have the county paper in the house.

Judge Mathew Davison made us a pleasant call Saturday.

La Moure county has already paid $500 for gopher strychnine, and now she will buy arsenic. Seven hundred pounds has been ordered for a starter.

Col. Frost was shooting a match at the Robinson shooting gallery, Saturday, and the monkey business that flies up refused to operate. The general Col. couldn't see any mark on the target, and was puzzled until it was discovered that the general Bartlett was generally holding the string. Ball's eyes didn't count.

Report of school No. 1, Dist. 12, Helena township, for the month commencing June 18th and ending July 1st, 1887: No. pupils enrolled, 15; No. boys, 9; No. girls, 6; No. days taught, 19; average daily attendance, 9, percentage of punctuality, 90. Pupils present in deportment were: Bertha Thompson, Susie Peterson, William Hanson and Iver Anderson. No. of visitors, 5, including Dr. Kerr, county superintendent of schools. JENNIE E. SHELLEY, Teacher.

Wild Morning Glory—A perennial climber; very tenacious of life; of some value as a forage plant; grows readily from seed, and spread rapidly by means of creeping roots. Hogs are fond of the root and will destroy it if allowed to root for it.

Our esteemed contemporary has moved again. This time into the old Roestuen photograph gallery.

The wife of Thomas Trulson died, Thursday night, of consumption.

Geo. W. Barnard lost two valuable mules of colic Tuesday.

Wheat, which two weeks ago Geo. W. Barnard expected to plow under, he thinks will go 20 bushels to the acre.

Hope has recently organized a G. A. R. post. Bro. Simpson of the Pioneer it seems is an old confederate soldier. The veterans, however, invited him and his talented wife to the banquet, and they clasped hands over the bloody chasm. What is the trouble with our old vets that they do not organize?

Sheriff Michaels drove over to Hope Monday.

The veterans will organize a G. A. R. post July 25. Comrade West, of Fargo, will muster the boys in.

Under the auspices of the Good Templars and river temperance societies of Griggs county, a grand union picnic will be held in Quale's grove next Tuesday, July 26. Revs. O. D. F. and Quamme have been invited to deliver suitable addresses, respectively in English and Norwegian and have consented to do so. Other speakers will also take part. W. B. Whidden is master of ceremonies and will be assisted in promoting the enjoyment of those present by a general committee consisting of Messrs. Trubshaw, Pickett, Whidden, Robinson, and Mesdames Pickett, Brown and Lloyd. Croquet, swinging, paddling in the brook, basking under the trees and other diversified and delightful picnic amusements will constitute the day's programme. Be it further understood that this is a basket picnic and those bachelors who have no invitation to dine at some family festal board and no "solid" girl and who omitted to fill their pockets with crackers and cheese, can, by putting up for it, purchase of the ladies any quantity of ice-cream, cake, etc. 200 to 300 people will be present and a grand time is anticipated.

A Dasey lady, better known for force than elegance, has named her infant daughter, Castoria. She says she either dreamed the name, or read it in a poem, and she will be "cursed" if she knows which.

Mrs. J. N. Jorgenson has retired from the military business.

The celebrated law suit between Andrew Johnson and John N. Jorgenson involving $30 connected with the Johnson-Jorgenson store resulted, Saturday, in a judgment by Judge Whidden for the defense. Attorney Carleton for Johnson, Attorneys Bartlett and Jacobson for Jorgenson.

A teachers institute was held by Supt. Korr, Saturday. Misses Bauer, Merryman, White, Barnard and Hagerty, and Mrs. Carleton and Mr. Hodge were in attendance. A few hours were spent in profitable discussion. It was agreed to meet again Saturday, the 30th of July, and once every month. All teachers are invited to attend.

Miss M. Jessup came up from Valley City to consult with Dr. Newell about the case of a sick child of Charles Jessup of Gragreen, Saturday. The Dr. went to Gragreen Tuesday.

Married—at the Baptist parsonage in Cooperstown, July 16, 1887, by Rev. O. D. Parison, Mr. John C. Johnson and Miss Mary L. Jacobson, both of Rosness, D. T.

Burt Collins, well known in Cooperstown, and who erected the other elevators, came up Monday to commence work on the Christian elevator. It will be located between the lumber yards, and will have a capacity of 30,000 bushels. It will not be used for storage as Christian has storage enough elsewhere.

At 8:30 Tuesday morning about 100 friends and scholars of the Cooperstown Sunday schools hid themselves to Lake Jessie to hold their annual picnic. Arriving at the lake the afternoon was devoted to eating, swinging, swimming, keeping out of the rain and getting wet through, and other amusements. A very nice time is reported.

The families of B. C. Cooper, J. N. Brown and A. N. Adams are going to Spiritwood for a camp.

A swimming party is on the tapis for this week end, and will comprise a number of ladies and gentlemen in town. The bathing suits will be gaudy—representing all colors of the rainbow, and warranted not to leave a stain after being wet.

Charley Hall, B. B. Brown, and R. C. Cooper on Section 13, were struck by hail, Tuesday. The damage was about 15 per cent. Insured.

Some railroad surveyors were promenading about Wednesday. The line is supposed to be, from Hope to the moon, via, the 'air castles' that have been built by Peter Holland, Thayer & Co.

Mysterious and inscrutable are the ways of providence. Our "devil" attended a Sunday school picnic on Tuesday.

Lake Jessie promises to become a great water cure. One of the bathers at the picnic came out without a vestige of rheumatism left, and one party who hadn't told the truth in fifteen years remarked on rising from the sea foam "This beats Long Branch nine per cent a month."

The Lawrence party mentioned last week returned to civilized life, Tuesday. That they enjoyed the trip is evident by their long stay. It is easy to tell where they have been by the guttural "How! How!" of J. A. They report fishing poor at the lake, but appetites and climate immense.

Capt. Haskell has one of the finest vegetable gardens in the county.

The surveyors of the Minneapolis & Pacific crossed the N. P. between Spiritwood and Eckelson, and are making for Minnewaukan. The same company built 219 miles of road last year, from Minneapolis to Richland county.

The undersigned never received one cent of the money Richard Hall collected for me after my horse was killed. It was repaid that I got some of the money. It is false.

BENJAMIN B. BROWN.

There is liable to be a trotting and pacing mania at the driving park Saturday evening, the 30th inst. Since Old Gold got his three minute record on a track 25 seconds slow, Treasurer Thompson has been getting concited; Col. Frost's grey pacer is a little ambitious, and the COURIER horse thinks himself a dandy even with three legs and 20lbs too much of flesh.

Rev. H. C. Birch, of Chatsworth, Ill., has been looking over his land in northern Griggs this week. He has 480 acres of fine land on the line of the Hope(less) extension, near Aneta. Mr. Birch is highly delighted with Dakota in general and the fine land of Griggs county. He sees more advancement in Cooperstown—signs of prosperity—than in any other town in this section. He made the COURIER a pleasant call.

The COURIER has been about a year in getting a mate to the celebrated Syverson clock. It is done, and it is a bird. The tick-tick of the pendulum between the fleshless jaws of the deceased bison, the dial upon the forehead, the sightless eye sockets, the gilded horns, and the bronzed bones, are a combination as startling as unique. There is only one clock like it in the world.

A dance under the auspices of the Cooperstown orchestra, is announced for tonight.

F. A. Hanscom, of Oriska, with a force of carpenters, came up last evening to commence work on the Christian elevator at this place.

Charley Miller took a trip southward on Thursday.

A party of bachelors start for a ten days trip to Devil's Lake this morning. The party is made up of Messrs. George and Willis Clark, John Glass, David Bartlett, Frank Coven, Fred King and others.

Cashier J. M. Burrell, of Sanborn, came up from the latter place to visit friends in Cooperstown, Thursday.

Miss Lena Hagen has been visiting her friends in Cooperstown this week.

E. C. Ward is suffering with a severe attack of asthma.

Miss Edith Brown is visiting friends at Lee.

Miscellaneous.

Happy Medium now stands at the head of living stallions, so far as the $30 list is concerned, there being now thirty-two of his get within the list, but it is a noticeable fact that not one of the many colts he has sired a one being taken to Kentucky eight years ago has entered the list, and this is causing some talk among horsemen and breeders. Edwin Thorne, 2:16 1/2, is taking his preliminary work very kindly, and thus far the lameness that troubled him last year so much as to prevent him appearance on the turf has not shown itself. He will probably join Turner's stable next fall.

The great Ten Broeck that died a few days ago had a record for one mile of 1:30 1/2; one mile and five furlongs, 3:40 1/2; two miles, 5:27 1/2; two miles and five furlongs, 6:38 1/2; three miles, 8:26 1/2; four miles, 10:15 1/2.

The well-known Indiana stallion, Hambletonian Trunby, son of Edward Everet, that was kicked by a mare a short time ago, was destroyed, the broken leg refusing to unite.

Jay Eye See is again on deck. A few days ago Bither moved him a mile in 2:27 1/2 over the race track, and reports that the little gelding is improving all the time.

Five of the produce of Lady Patriot has contributed to the $30 list, she being the dam of Volunteer Sentinel, Green's Hambletonian, Markseman and Heroine.

Frank T. the Eastern trotter that has won some good races this season, is by Durack, record 2:36 1/2, he by Banker Messenger, son of Rysdyk's Hambletonian.

The book of Pancoat, the stallion that sold at auction for $28,000, was full long ago, and the horse will pay for himself by two seasons's work in the stud.

Fanny the dam of Annie Page 2:27 1/2; and Aristos 2:27 1/2, have been bred to Charley Wilkes, son of George Wilkes.

The estate of Gen. Grant owns the Arabian Linden Tree, presented by the sultan of Turkey to Gen. Grant in 1879.

Senator Stanford recently refused an offer of $20,000 for the brown colt Electricity by Electioneer, dam Midnight by Pilot, Jr.

Jay Eye See, Harry Wilkes, Clingstone and Oliver K are barred in the free-for-all class through the central circuit this season.

Godiva, dam of Domestic 2:34 1/2, has foaled a fine filly by Bismuth, and will be bred to Pancoat. Antar is the third son of Almont to enter the $30 list of producing sires this season.

Peterson's

PETERSON'S MAGAZINE for August is at hand, in even better season than usual. This second number of the new volume is fully equal to that of July, and to say so is to bestow every high praise. The steel-plate is charming, and the fashion and needlework designs are first-class. Miss Bowman's serial, "Along the Bayou," increases in interest, and the number abounds in capital tales and pretty poems. Unless the other magazine for the month have very unusual attractions to offer, they will have to be content to see "Peterson" bear off all the honors. Terms: Two Dollars a year, with great reduction to clubs. Address PETERSON'S MAGAZINE, 306 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa.
